

Live and Let Live.

A FARM BALLAD.

Well! Farmer Smith has lost his wheat his shed and mammoth barn;

I don't know as I pity him; I call it a great sin To hoard the harvest of three years in spacious barn and bin;

I like to see economy; I like to see men save, And lay up something for their kin when they are in the grave;

When wheat was sixteen shillings—a price that paid us well— Smith said I'll wait for twenty, I vow before I'll sell.

He held it and he run in debt for things to wear and eat; When merchants dunned him, he would say, 'Wait till I sell my wheat.'

When Smith goes off to by a thing he spins around the town, And tries with all his might and main the price to banter down;

God bless the farmers of our land! They are not all like him, Who walks around the smouldering pile now in the twilight dim;

God bless the men, where'er they are, in country or in town, Who do not think it's life's great work to crowd their neighbors down;

Starting a Boy.

A lonesome-looking boy was yesterday hanging around a wood-yard in the northern part of the city, when the owner of the yard, having both charity and philanthropy for boys with tears in their eyes, asked the lad why he didn't peddle apples or do something to earn a few shillings.

"Now, my boy I'm going to start you in life. Take this nickel and go and make a purchase of something or other." I'll buy it of you for ten cents, no matter what it is. Come, now, let's see what sort of a business head you have on you.

The boy took the nickel and went off, but in ten minutes was back with a gallon jug which he had purchased with the nickel.

"Well, you are a keener," replied the man. "I never saw one of those sold for less than fifteen cents to any one. I want such a jug and here's its fair price. Go now and lay out your fifteen cents in apples and I'll buy half your stock."

The boy did not return. Perhaps he fell into a sewer somewhere; but you can't make the wood-yard man believe so. When he lifted up the jug from under the table where the boy had carefully placed it he found a hole in the bottom large enough to let in a black and tan terrier.—Detroit Free Press.

The People Want Proof.

There is no medicine prescribed by physicians, or sold by Druggists, that carries such evidence of its success and superior virtues as BOSCHER'S GERMAN SYRUP for severe Coughs, Colds settled on the breast, Consumption, or any disease of the Throat and Lungs. A proof of that fact is that any person afflicted, can get a Sample Bottle for 10 cents and try its superior effect before buying the regular size at 75 cents. It has lately been introduced in this country from Germany, and its wonderful cures are astonishing everyone that use it. Three doses will relieve any case. Try it. Sold by all Druggists on the Western Continent.

The Greatest Medical Discovery since the Creation of Man, or since the Commencement of the Christian Era.

There never has been a time when the healing of so many different diseases has been caused by outward application as the present. It is an undisputed fact that over half of the entire population of the globe resort to the use of ordinary plasters.

DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTERS are acknowledged by all who have used them, to act quicker than any other plaster they ever before tried, and that one of these plasters will do more real service than a hundred of the ordinary kind. All other plasters are slow of action, and require to be worn continually to effect a cure; but with these it is entirely different: the instant one is applied the patient will feel its effect.

Physicians in all ages have thoroughly tested and well know the effect of Capsicum; and it has always been more or less used as a medical agent for an outward application; but it is only of very recent date that its advantages in a porous plaster have been discovered. Being, however, convinced of the wonderful cures effected by DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTERS, and their superiority over all other plasters, they now actually prescribe them, in their practice, for such diseases as rheumatism, pain in the side and back, and all such cases as have required the use of plasters or liniment. After you have tried other plasters and liniments, and they have failed, and you want a certain cure, ask your druggist for DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTER. You can hardly believe your own convictions of its wonderful effects. Although powerful and quick in its action, you can rely on its safety for the most delicate person to wear, as it is free from lead and other poisonous material commonly used in the manufacture of ordinary plasters. One trial is a sufficient guarantee of its merits, and one plaster will sell hundreds to your friends.

Ask your druggist for DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTER, and take no other; or, on receipt of 25 cents for one, $1 for five, or $2 for a dozen, they will be mailed, post paid, to any address in the United States or Canada.
