

New Que. Political Party Will Not Field Candidates

MONTREAL (CP)—Le Bloc du Quebec, established this month as a new federal political party, will not field candidates in the forthcoming election, its president said Wednesday.

The group had originally planned to enter candidates in every Quebec constituency in the next election.

In a Wednesday announcement the president, Andre Lecompte, said also that Le Bloc will cease to be a political party and will operate as a non-partisan organization to influence voter opinion.

Le Bloc is non-separatist but insists on respect for the principle of equality between English- and French-Canadians by means of a new constitution.

Mr. Lecompte made his statement after a closed meeting with representatives of the Progressive Conservative and New Democratic parties, Real Coeur's Ralliement des Creditistes and other groups.

Mr. Lecompte said the organization also had consulted other "leading French-Canadians."

B.C. Company Will Make Use Of Waste Wood

VANCOUVER (CP)—Rayonier Canada (B.C.) Ltd., has instituted a $2,000,000 program to make use of small logs and chunks of wood normally burned or left in the woods to rot after primary logging.

W. E. Breitenbach, Rayonier president, says it is the first full-scale program in B.C. designed to salvage small logs and other logging waste.

He says $1,000,000 has been spent to construct a smallwood chip plant at Port Alice on the northern end of Vancouver Island about 200 miles northwest of here.

The plant is now in production and will utilize salvage wood from logging operations on the north end of Vancouver Island and the Queen Charlotte Islands to the north.

Mr. Breitenbach says that an additional $1,000,000 has been spent on yarding equipment and mobile loaders specially designed for smallwood recovery.

Wage Demands Are Described As Irresponsible

EDMONTON (CP)—Industry is running into a wave of irresponsible wage demands from organized labor, the president of the Canadian Association of Real Estate Boards said here.

B. E. Willoughby of Toronto told the 22nd annual association convention "unless there is a sharp slowdown in demands, average pay scales for unionized industrial and construction workers could go to $10,000 a year in five years."

Strikes have hit the Canadian economy with unabated force this year, he said. More than twice as many days have been lost of this year than last.

"The major tragedy in the construction field has been the many working hours lost because of strikes by unions for higher wages. As labor costs are an important aspect of over-all construction prices, construction management has had to boost prices."

The wage demands are not in line with productivity, he said. If the trend is allowed to continue, industry will be priced out of the market, unemployment will increase, consumer spending will be reduced "and the whole vicious chain reaction would weaken our economy."

Wants Policy For Baby Boy

FREMONT, Calif. (AP)—Robert Ahern, a shoe store manager, says he is willing to pay Lloyd's of London $4,000 for an insurance policy guaranteeing him $20,000—or a baby boy.

Ahern and his wife, Barbara Ann, already have three boys and are about to join the stork club a fourth time. Their heart's desire they disclose, is another boy—not the $20,000 insurance money, and not a girl.

The shoe store manager said in an interview that he and his wife get along fine with their sons, John, 1½; Robert Jr., 3, and Danny, 5. And it isn't that he doesn't like girls.

"But a girl would create problems," he said. "I'd have to buy her new and different toys and clothes. Have to add another room to the house. There's no end of the extras a girl needs. Every man knows it costs more to keep a girl happy."

Wants Policy For Baby Boy

LONDON (AP)—Queen Elizabeth unveiled a memorial stone to Sir Winston Churchill in Westminster Abbey Sunday after a Battle of Britain thanksgiving service commemorating the air victory over Nazi bombers 25 years ago. The stone is in the cathedral's west nave, surrounded by the names of Britain's great men down the years.
