RIPLEY'S BELIEVE IT OR NOT

CONTRACT BRIDGE

By R. JAY BECKER

North dealer. Both sides vulnerable.
NORTH: AK97, AK4, AS, QJ87
WEST: Q432, KQJ72, 9542
EAST: J1065, J10975, 63, AS
SOUTH: AS, Q8632, 10954, K103

The bidding: North East South West
2NT Pass 3♥ Pass

Opening lead — king of diamonds.

Both the American and Italian systems of bidding fell down on Board No. 55. Here was a hand where three notrump was ice cold against any distribution of the opponents' cards...

Not that four hearts wouldn't ordinarily be made. It would. But it was an inferior contract to three notrump, and as the East-West cards happened to be divided, the contract had to go down.

Peculiarly enough, the United States team gained 5 international match points on the deal. Fishbein got to four hearts peacefully

WMS Auxiliary Holds Meeting

An Easter devotional program was led by Mrs. Ernest Dunning and Mrs. Russell MacKay at the regular meeting of the Kensington United Church Auxiliary of the Woman's Missionary Society held on April 1st.

Included in the program were appropriate hymns, prayers, readings and responses, and a vocal solo, "Ivory Palaces" by Mrs. P.J. Kennedy. The Hope of a Warless World was the subject of the Bible study from Micah 4:1-7: 5, 10, 11, and other selections from the Old and New Testaments.

The meeting divided into three groups for the discussion of related questions, findings of which were reported to Mrs. Alexander MacKay, Mrs. Murdoch MacLeod and Mrs. L.M. Murray, Mrs. W.D. Profit led in prayer for the Prayer Partner, Miss Ead Horn.

The program committee for next month will be Mrs. P.J. Kennedy, Mrs. G.H. Brookins and Mrs. J.L. Davison. Mrs. George Duggan, Mrs. Evans Inglis and Mrs. A. MacKay were appointed.

and went down one-100 points. But the bidding was more active when the Roman pair, using their artificial methods, held the North-South cards. Here is how the bidding went:

The club bid (artificial) in the Roman system is an introductory call used to show possession of one of three different types of hands. Identification of which type is held comes with the rebid.

The diamond response (artificial) denied affirmative values. Harmon's double indicated diamond strength and was not for takeout.

Avarelli now showed that he had the balanced, strong type of hand (just as Hazen had done) by bidding two notrump. Belladonna was sure there would be a good play for game opposite Avarelli's strong bidding and jumped to four hearts.

When this bid rolled around to Stakgold, he doubted. Stakgold had an advantage—he knew Harmon had diamond strength which was not obtained at the other table, where East-West were silent throughout.

The double was highly successful. Belladonna was defeated two-tricks—500 points. The first three leads were the same at both tables: king of diamonds, ace of hearts (both declarers' faces fell), seven of clubs. The play varied after that.

America gained 400 points on the deal—5 IMPs.

ted to visit the homes of Baby Band Member in their area and report to the superintendent, Mrs. Roscoe Walker.

It was reported that 28 lbs. of material for bandages, etc., had been mailed to Dr. Florence Murray, Korea. The cost of postage, $7 had been kindly paid by the W.A. The financial report for the first quarter is: fees $10, envelopes, $45.15, donations, $1.50. An In Memoriam Fund was donated in memory of a former Life Member.

Mrs. Horace Glover read a letter from Mrs. Katherine Thompson stating that the Presbyterial will be held in Heartz Hall, Charlottetown on April 25, with sessions at 9 a.m. and 2 p.m. Miss Hattie Clark was appointed as official delegate. Names were also suggested for nominations for Presbyterial officers.

Mrs. Carruthers reported on the W.M.S. adopting C.G.I.T. daughters. Nine books were read and 44 home calls, 20 hospital calls were made. Seventeen letters, 38 cards, 11 treats and 10 flowers were sent during the month.

Harry Brown was appointed to lead in prayer for the Prayer Partner at next meeting.

In order to supplement expense funds, plans were made to sponsor a pantry sale on April 11th.

NEW ANNAN

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Moase had as their guest for the weekend, Miss Mabel Scott of Mount Allison.

Mrs. Isaac Tupin and two children returned to her home in Nova Scotia after spending some time with Mr. James Tupin.

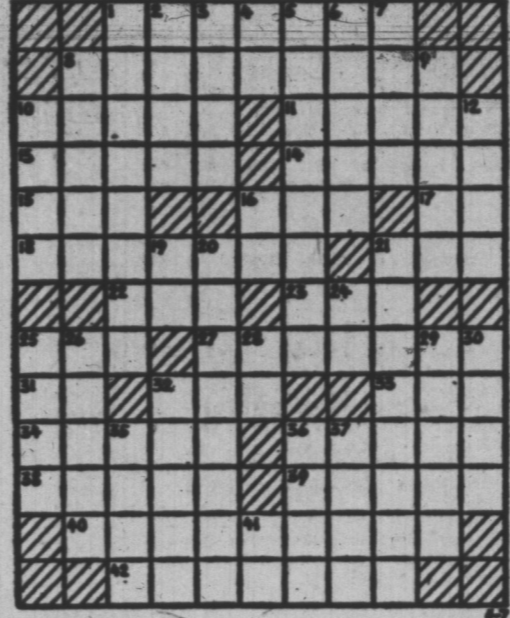

Miss Donna Mill of Kensington spent Sunday afternoon with Miss Georgie McInnis.

The Farm Forum meeting was held on Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Walker.

On Saturday evening, March 7th a number of ladies of the Travelers Rest and New Annan districts gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Walker to tender a stork shower for Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Schurman, the proud parents of twin boys. A nice assortment of baby gifts were received and a pleasant evening was enjoyed, followed by a delicious lunch —A.V.
