

MISCELLANEOUS.

Chas. Derroud, treasurer of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, has been convicted on a charge of embezzling the funds of the society. The deficit is from $20,000 to $60,000.

Mrs. Estelle Johnson, wife of ex-Governor Charles P. Johnson, of Missouri, committed suicide in St. Louis on Tuesday night. Grief over the death of a child had brought on mental derangement.

On the arrival of the Pacific Mail steamship 'Crescent City' at New York on Wednesday last, purser Wheeler left the ship taking $90,000 of the company's money and has not since been seen.

Lord Charles Innes Ker, a son of the sixth Duke of Roxburghe, has gone into bankruptcy. On an examination in the case at the Windsor County Court the debts were stated at £28,000. Nothing was said as to the assets.

Alfred M. Church, of Norwich Conn., made three attempts to burn a house Wednesday evening, the fire department being called out twice. The third time he was seen by a neighbor, and being arrested the next day, confessed.

Theodore Schimper, a wealthy pocketbook manufacturer of New York, while bathing in a bath-house in that city on Tuesday, took a dive and struck his head on the bottom, breaking his neck. He died in the hospital subsequently.

The will of the late Thomas Wilson, a prominent Baltimore Quaker, who died recently aged 91, bequeaths half a million for the endowment of a sanitarium for poor children, and $200,000 for the endowment of a fuel-saving society and to aid the poor.

At Trenton, N. J., John Toudon tied his wife up in a bag, naked, and when some neighbors discovered her in that condition she was immediately released but expired shortly afterward. Toudon then picked up his little boy and running to the canal jumped in. He was drowned, but the child got ashore.

Violent storms in the Gulf of Finland have caused the river Vaga to rise to the level of the streets. The canals in the centre of St. Petersburg have overflowed; the faubourgs are under water; iron roofs were blown from houses and churches in all directions. Notices have been issued warning the inhabitants to take precautions against floods.

King Stephen Pharaoh, hereditary ruler of the Montauk tribe of Indians, and fifth-nine years of age, died of quick consumption, near Montauk, August 30, and was buried next day from the African Methodist Episcopal Church. It is said that he leaves no successor to reign in his stead over his tribe, he being the last of the Montauk Indians that had pure blood in their veins.

The Spanish Minister of Colonies telegraphs Captain General Blanco, of Cuba, authorizing him to draw against the Spanish Treasury $5,000 daily. The newspapers say official information from Hollgium and Santiago de Cuba represents perfect tranquility prevails among the inhabitants; the principal chiefs of the old insurrection remain loyal. Heavy continuous rains prevail in the greater part of the Island.

A young lady who teaches Sunday-school (in the summer) at Swampscott is in the habit, after the regular lesson is ended, of asking questions in natural history. Last Sunday she asked: 'What bird is large enough to carry a man?' A little girl held up her hand and said: 'I know; a lark.' 'Oh, no!' said the teacher, 'larks are not large enough to carry men.' 'Yes, they are,' said the youngster. 'My papa goes away for two or three days, and my mamma says he's gone off on a lark.'

Some serious accidents have occurred during the recent bull fights in Spain. At Figueras, a man was killed, and a soldier and a woman were severely injured. At Ruzala, near Valencia, two amateurs of the sport were wounded. During a bull baiting at St. Roque, in the neighborhood of Gibraltar, the torreador Hermosville received some serious wounds. At Amporia a more unlucky individual has lost his life, and the Epoca, remarking that the sequel will be given shortly, announces the inauguration at Guadix of a new and very pretty bull ring.

Boschees German Syrup can now be purchased right at home, it is the most successful preparation ever introduced to our people. It works like a charm in all cases of Consumption, Pneumonia, Hemorrhages, Asthma, severe Coughs, Croup and all other Throat and Lung Diseases. No person has ever used this medicine without getting immediate relief, yet there are a great many poor, suffering, skeptical persons going about our streets with a suspicious cough, and the voice of consumption coming from their lungs, that will not try it. If you die, it is your own fault, as you can go to your druggist and get a sample bottle and try it; three doses will relieve any case. Regular size only 75cts.

CATARRH.

Constitutional Catarrh Remedy CURES CATARRH.

Hear what a Reverend Gentleman says of the Constitutional Remedy.

T. J. B. HARDING, Esq., Brockville, Ont.—DEAR SIR—It is now two years since your "Constitutional Catarrh Remedy" was introduced to me. I have waited this long to see if the cure would remain permanent before doing this, my duty, to you, as at first the happy effects seemed to me to be "too good to be true."

I was afflicted in my head for years before I suspected it to be Catarrh. In reading in your Circular I saw my case described in many particulars. The inward "drop" from the head had become very disagreeable, and a choking sensation often preventing me from lying long. I would feel like smothering and be compelled to sit up in the bed. My health and spirits were seriously affected. When your agent came to Walkertown in August, 1876, I secured three bottles. Before I had used a quarter of the contents of one bottle I found decided relief, and when I had used two bottles and a third, I quit taking it, feeling quite cured of that ailment, and have not used any since until of late I have taken some for a cold in my head. A sense of duty to sufferers from that loathsome disease, Catarrh, prompts me to send you this Certificate, unsolicited, with leave to make what use of it you may see proper. Yours truly, W. TINDALL, Methodist Minister. Port Elgin, Ont., Aug. 24, 1878.

Ask for Littlefield's Constitutional Catarrh Remedy and take no other.
