

Annual Meeting of Presbyterian WMS, Alberton

Mrs. Vernon J. Campbell was president of the Alberton Presbyterian W.M.S. when they met for their annual meeting on Monday evening, June 6th. Opening worship and meditation was led by the president, Mrs. Norman Oliver, who also conducted the business of the meeting.

Mrs. Lloyd Wilkie invited the members to her home for the July meeting when the devotional will be read by Mrs. David Hodgson and the study book by Mrs. V. J. Campbell.

A committee was appointed to finalize plans for entertaining the forthcoming W.M.S. Presbyterian which meets in Alberton on June 30th.

The nominating committee then presented the following slate of officers for the ensuing year: Honorary president, Mrs. Norman Oliver; president, Mrs. F. J. Spencer; 1st vice president, Mrs. Helen Kerr; 2nd vice president, Mrs. C. W. Hayes; secretary, Mrs. V. J. Campbell; treasurer, Mrs. L. Wilkie.

A vote of thanks was tendered to the retiring officers and the president thanked the members for their help and cooperation during the year.

The chapter from the study book "How I Know God Answers Prayer" by Mrs. Goforth was read by Miss Margaret Forsyth.

At the close of the meeting delicious refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. S. Bell, Mrs. H. Horne and Mrs. Edgar Forsyth.

Bedeque Notes

—Mr. and Mrs. Leo Locky of Wellington, with their family, were visitors with relatives in Bedeque on Sunday, May 29th.

Mr. Stephen Arsenault has been in the Prince County Hospital for treatment for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Cotton, Northam, were guests of Rev. and Mrs. Ernest Weeks on May 30th. They were accompanied by Mrs. George Ellis of Tyne Valley.

The monthly congregational social of the Bedeque United Church was held in the Church hall on Tuesday evening, May 24th. A good time was had.

The annual meeting of the Bedeque W. C. T. U., was held at the home of Mrs. Percy Affleck, on Wednesday, May 25th. Thirteen members were present. The meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. Howard Schurman of Central Bedeque. The usual business was transacted. The officers for the ensuing year were re-elected. They are: President, Mrs. Howard Schurman; Secretary, Mrs. Calvin Leard and Treasurer, Mrs. James Henderson.

Mrs. Orville Johnson was hostess of the Bedeque "Half Century" Club, on Saturday evening, May 28th. The president Mrs. Walter Leard presided. Meeting opened with reading of a poem by Mrs. James Henderson. Twelve members and one visitor were present. The roll call was answered by presenting a fancy apron for a bazaar; the bazaar and a pantry sale to be held at Smallman's Store in the near future. The programme consisted of a reading and contests. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. James Henderson.

No Cases At June Term Of S'ide Supreme Court

—There were no cases on the docket when the June term of Supreme Court convened at Summerside yesterday with Mr. Justice Mark R. MacGuigan presiding. No Grand Jury was present at the court, and most of the short session was spent in selecting names of prospective jurors for the next term of Supreme Court.

In the only reference to court action, the case against a resident of Roseville with regard to a charge of inciting to arson was withdrawn with no bill of indictment preferred, and the bondsmen were discharged.

Mr. W. Chester S. MacDonald represented the party concerned. Those present at the court included Attorney General A. W. Matheson, crown prosecutor D.

Magistrate's Court In Summerside

—A man from New Glasgow, P.E.I., charged with (1) possession of intoxicating liquor other than in residence and (2) unlawfully obstructing police officers in discharge of their duties, pleaded guilty to both charges and was fined $30 and costs and $25 respectively, when he appeared before Magistrate R. S. Hinton, Q.C., in County Magistrate's Court yesterday morning.

The charges arose from an incident that occurred in Kensington on May 27 in which Cst. D. J. Hender of the Summerside detachment of the R.C.M.P. suffered a broken bone in his right arm. Mr. D. O. Stewart, Q.C., acted for the Crown and Mr. W. Chester S. MacDonald for the defendant.

A party was fined $10 and costs for failing to stop at the scene of an accident in which he did slight damage to another car while passing it at Day's Corner. A man from Clermont was found guilty of possession of 17 short lobsters and was fined $17 and costs, while two other fisheries cases were adjourned until Tuesday, June 14.

The driver of the truck and a passenger in the vehicle also escaped injury, but the front of the truck was damaged by the impact.

A.Y.P.A. Closing Banquet Held At Kensington

The closing banquet of St. Marks A.Y.P.A., Kensington, was held in the church hall, which had been decorated for the occasion, on Monday evening. The church guild provided a delicious supper to 40 members and their guests which included Ven. Archdeacon Harrison, Padre and Mrs. H. Christmas, Rev. L. Ebsary, Miss Audrey Coles, Mr. Horace Coles and Mrs. K. Pidgeon.

Following supper a number of toasts were proposed, to the Queen, the Church and the A.Y.P.A.

The guest speaker, Miss Audrey Coles, was then introduced and in speaking to the members she emphasized the great obligations each member had in witnessing for the A.Y.P.A. in their community and daily lives and in holding fast to the principles of the A.Y.P.A.

Prizes for perfect attendance were then presented to Rev. Eric Ingraham and Clarence Moase with special mention to five other members who were only absent for one meeting during the season.

Winners in the badminton tournament were then presented with prizes. Ladies' doubles, Norma Proffitt and Lauretta Mill; men's doubles, Wayne Champion and Clayton Mill; mixed doubles, Norma Proffitt and Clayton Mill; men's singles, Clayton Mill; ladies' singles, Lauretta Mill; branch champion Clayton Mill.

A sing-song, accompanied by Mrs. K. Pidgeon, and films closed out the evening's entertainment.

Annual School Meeting Held At Alberton

—There was an attendance of eighty-seven ratepayers at the annual meeting of Alberton School District last night. Rev. J. P. McMahon was appointed chairman. Minutes of the last annual and a special meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. Vernon England and adopted. The Board of Trustees' report was read by Dr. O. H. Phillips. Mrs. Everett Shea was re-appointed auditor. The secretary's financial statement was adopted.

Mrs. Shea reported that she had audited the books and found them correct.

The supervisor's report was read by Mrs. England and among other improvements recommended that the school grounds be fixed up. On motion it was approved that the grounds of both schools be properly attended to at the end of the school term. Also that the outside of the old school be repaired and painted.

Supplements for grades 11 and 12 were increased from $300 to $400 other supplements remained the same as last year. The sum of $100 was voted as the district's share of a supplement for a music teacher. Total assessment is $8.90.

Dr. W. A. Shea was elected trustee. The School Board is now composed of Dr. O. H. Phillips, J. R. Rochford and Dr. W. A. Shea. Retiring trustee was Albert Clarke.

On motion it was approved that the school district be reassessed by government assessors.
