The special soloist is Miss Evelyn Gay Kauford. Everybody is very cordially welcomed to hear and see this gifted speaker.

The Dunblane Women's Institute met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Percy MacPherson. The meeting opened with singing "Coming Through the Rye". The roll call was responded to by thirteen members, each contributing two articles to a grab bag. Thirty visitors were present. Quilt pieces were brought in and basted after the meeting. The sick committee reported one call made by Mrs. Livingstone and Mrs. Boulter. The secretary reported receiving the Government Grant. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Leslie Gorrill. The roll call will be answered by an exchange of plant slips or flower seed. Jolly contests were given by Mrs. Leslie Gorrill and Mrs. Lionel Livingstone. During the meeting the young people were enjoying games of crokinole in another room and the winners were Norma Gorrill and Rosamond MacLean who were given a free lunch. The meeting closed by the singing of the National Anthem. The lunch was served by the hostesses. After singing some old songs, all returned to their homes, having spent a very enjoyable evening.

A telegram was received by Mr. Watson Silliker of O'Leary conveying the sad news of the sudden death in New Glasgow of his cousin, Mr. Daniel Silliker, at the age of 80 years. A son of Mr. and Mrs. James Silliker of Knutsford, P. E. I., Mr. Silliker attended church service on Sunday and as usual on Monday was at his place of business and seemed in perfect health when retiring on Monday night but early Tuesday morning suffered a stroke from which he never rallied. The service was held on Thursday afternoon from First Baptist Church in New Glasgow and was conducted by the pastor, Rev. E. S. Dunn, assisted by Rev. B. G. Manzer. He was a deacon of the church and seldom missed a Sunday service or a mid-week service and was the choice of president when the First Baptist Brotherhood was organized on June 21st, 1945. Rev. Mr. Dunn took as his text: "For we are saved by hope." He leaves to mourn his wife and a daughter in New Glasgow. Interment was in Lorne Street cemetery.

There was a splendid attendance of the O'Leary United Church Canadian Girls in Training on Friday night, April 21st at the home of Mrs. Herbert Yatcher. Despite the fact that a number of the girls from Unionvale were sick with the mumps, the attendance was most encouraging. The worship service was led by Peggy Ellis assisted by Bessie Dennis, Freda Strang, and Isabel MacDonald. A reading on "Our New Canadians" was given by Mrs. W. G. Dickson. Plans were made for an affiliation service with the Women's Missionary Society at the O'Leary United Church on May 3rd. Plans were also made to take the 14 members of the C.G.I.T. camping early in July at Maxfield's Beach on the beautiful Mill River. Through the co-operation of the Boy Scout Association and the kind assistance of Brig W. W. Reid of Charlottetown, Physical Fitness Director for the Province of P. E. I., tents will be made available. The special speaker at the meeting was Mrs. L. G. Dewar R.N. who gave the C.G.I.T. a splendid address on Nursing. It was interesting and instructive and the girls enjoyed it very much. The next meeting will be held at the home of Peggy Ellis.

appetites grew. All they could think about was food, and they started off hunting at once.

One met an Ant That Ant never met any one else. One spied a Cricket just starting to tune his fiddle.

He never had a chance to play. Another found a big Beetle with a hard shell. That is, it was hard for a beetle. But it wasn't hard enough. No, sir, it wasn't hard enough. The sharp little teeth of that young Shrew didn't mind that shell at all. A fourth found a cocoon on the ground and tore it open and the moth asleep inside would never awake. "I wish they were not living in the dear Old Briar-patch," sighed Mrs. Peler. "And how glad I am I'm so much bigger. With so many of these little gluttons about what is the Briar-patch coming to?"

Your B. F. Goodrich Dealer Knows Why—

3 out of 5
SWITCHED TO
B.F. Goodrich

FROM SOME OTHER BRAND

"A nation-wide survey made of the tire customers of B.F. Goodrich Dealers from coast to coast shows — that 3 out of 5 B.F. Goodrich tire buyers switched from some other brand.

Why did they switch? Your B.F. Goodrich Dealer knows.

He'll tell you that some switched to get more mileage... for extra blowout protection... some for smoother riding, added safety, lower-cost motoring, better all-round performance due to B.F.G. engineering and manufacturing skill... for all the advantages of B.F. Goodrich research.

From B.F. Goodrich research have come cooler-running, longer-wearing rubber compounds, superior tread and body design, advanced tire building methods that mean better tire performance... greater value for your money.

BETTER SERVICE

"My B.F.G. DEALER had a lot to do with my switch to B.F.G. Tires. He's a tire expert... and a service expert too. That's important!" — R. K. Ferguson, London, Ontario.

GREATER SAFETY

"The best tires I've ever had", says H. R. Pollock, of Toronto, Ont. "B.F.G.'s are always absolutely dependable... with tougher tread and stronger sidewalls for extra blowout protection."

PROVED ECONOMY

"I switched to B.F. Goodrich to get extra mileage and haven't been disappointed. After long, hard driving, mostly over bad roads, tread still look good for many more miles." — Don Sinclair, East Kivuensis, N.B.

DEPENDABILITY

"I've had B.F. Goodrich tires for two years... enjoying safe non-skid traction and complete trouble-free performance." — J. Reil Langlois, Granby, Que.

LONGER LIFE

"I have driven on B.F. Goodrich tires since 1936 and have always enjoyed long wear and trouble-free performance." — Peter W. Wasilk, Winnipeg, Man.
