

Good B'Ball Turnout

by CIMN TRavelling News

Perhaps the best turnout for women's basketball was witnessed last Thursday evening. In the first game, Blanchard Hall with 9 players, showed up to put Daze students to the test. The "Tiqnish Trio", Ann, Sharon and Donna, pooled their talent but couldn't overtake Daze Lori, Duckie, and Whimp. The final score was 23-14 in favour of Daze students.

Daze Students have certainly come a long way since September. In fact, it's been 6 months!

Judy MacDonald landed a few heavy dives and spills during the game. I guess the Scarsdale took those ugly pounds away and she's only a push over now.

Elizabeth Zinc, Sleezebag herself, managed to drag herself on the floor and make an "unathletic" appearance. Liz, women's intramurals is not a way to get to the refs. You can't make eyes at Larry and expect to score at the same time!!

The second game saw

Bernie "Out to Win" 2 and Bernie "Take It Easy On Us" 1. Cynthia King with her dramatic moves and fast break potential could not come close to the boisterous cheers of Jackie Doran.

Clare MacAulay played superbly by jumping for rebounds and calling plays left and right.

Nancy Gallant, ex 1st floor player turned Daze Student, is playing for Bernie 2. If you can figure that one out, give Bernie 1 a call. Just doesn't make sense, does it???

Larry LeBlanc, Mr. PEI, and Mr. Wonderful himself (Just ask him, he'll tell you!) attempted to keep score. A small disturbance arose when the time ran out in the 1st half. The whistle blew (ref. Larry MacAdam) before the buzzer and Bernie 1 scored. This basket could have made the whole game. As a result, Bernie 1 could not concentrate on the second half and let Bernie 2 slip by 40-20.

Leading scorers for Bernie 1 were Sharon Nick and CK. Anne MacNeill made an appearance as well, but when you are a twin with myopia, forgetting your glasses can be tragic.

Whimp Morrison of Daze Students played alright. When you come from a high school where Phys Ed class was wrestling with the guys, you're bound to be tough.

Bernie 2 powerhouse just can't seem to win without illegal recruits. They have Bernie 3 and Daze Students join forces with them. Maybe next game they can play by the rules and give Bernie 1 a chance to bribe the ref first.

There should be a law in women's intramurals to wear sport bras one size smaller so the wide eyed refs can concentrate on the game. Even underwear would help, C.K.!!!

Monday night was the women's all-star game at 8:15 pm. More news after the break.

Enjoy the week and study hard.

NEXT WEEK'S HIGHLIGHT
Abdule Doran to dunk the ball 3 feet out using her mouth.
