S'side Girl Killed In Highway Crash

SUMMERSIDE BUREAU OF THE GUARDIAN

A sparkling, 20-year-old blonde Summerside girl, Miss Erma Casey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Casey, of 398 Willow Avenue, Summerside, died almost instantly after a head-on collision on the Trans-Canada Highway near Albany on Saturday morning.

Miss Casey, who was planning to be married in the near future, was travelling alone towards Borden in a Porsche sports car, when the accident occurred about one mile east of the Albany turn-off on a straight stretch of highway east of Carleton Corner. Time of the accident was estimated at 9:45.

The slushy remnants of an unseasonable snow storm were believed to have contributed to the cause of the accident.

The only occupant in the other vehicle, a 1960 Plymouth, was Edgar Howard Stewart, of Maple Avenue, Summerside, who suffered minor cuts and bruises but was not injured seriously enough to need hospital care.

Both vehicles, particuiarly the sports car, were badly wrecked and had to be towed from the scene.

The accident was investigated by Cpl. W. J. MacDonald and Cnst. Allan Burchill of the Borden RCMP detachment and Cnst. William Rowan of the Summerside highway traffic squad.

Dr. J. C. Bonnell, of Bedeque, arrived at the scene with the Bowness ambulance and pronounced the girl dead on arrival. The remains were forwarded by ambulance to Charlottetown where an autopsy was to be performed.

Coroner Dr. W. E. Callaghan,

ERMA CASEY

was called and ordered an inquest with the following being named to the jury, Wendall Earl MacWilliams, foreman; Edgar Robert Williams, Joseph Elsworth Bassett, William Boyko, Garth James Toombs, James Waldron Cameron and Joseph Arnold Murray.

This was the second tragedy in 10 years to strike the Casey family, as her younger brother, Joseph Ronald, was killed when struck by a truck on Water Street in Summerside on Oct. 27, 1952.

The popular Summerside girl was a Miss P.E.I. contestant in last summer's lobster carnival and was employed at the local Household Finance Company office.

She is survived by both parents and the following brothers and sisters, Eldon, Nancy, Sandra and Judy.

New Chapter Of Travellers Here Has Charter Presented

Another stepping stone in the advancement and growth of the Order of United Commercial Travellers took place in the Charlotttetown Hotel Saturday, April 14 with the presentation of a charter to the members of the new chapter by Maritime Grand Counsellor William Adams, Campbellton, N.B. The new chapter will be known as Charlottetown Local Branch 859.

The order was first established in 1888 and has grown rapidly since with a total of 643 branches in the US and Canada, the Charlottetown branch being the newest and latest.

The order is comprised of commmercial travellers, business and professional men and is duly constituted as a fraternal organization. It has been officially accepted by the Association of Advancement for Retarded Children in Canada and the US. as its official sponsor.

Main speaker William C. Shortt, Montreal chief agent for Canada, gave an interesting insight into the functions of UCT.

GROCERIES ARE STOLEN BY 'HUSBAND'

A young Charlottetown woman found out over the weekend that the old adage "you get what you pay for" is not always correct.

The woman had filled her grocery order at a local supermarket and on finding that she was too late to have them delivered paid for them and told the clerk that her husband would pick them up.

However, she later phoned the store and told them that her husband was unavailable and to send the groceries to her in the morning.

She got an unexpected surprise when she was told that her "husband" had already picked up the groceries.

Neither the lady, nor her husband, who was home at the time, know the identity of the caller.

Due to the generosity of the firm's manager, her order was refilled the next morning.

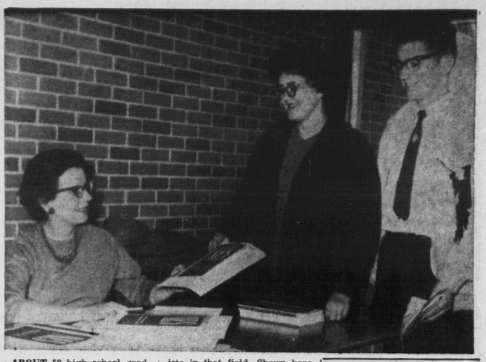
Driver Has License Suspended

SUMMERSIDE — Charged with leaving the scene of an accident, Leonard Gaudet, of Miscouche, was fined $20 and costs and automatically lost his license during a session of Summerside police court held Saturday with Judge Walter Darby presiding.

The accused was involved in an accident on April 12, on Granville St., with Mrs. James Hogan. Damage amounted to less than $100. The vehicle, a Volkswagen, is owned by his father, Cedric Gaudet.

One police official remarked later that charges of this type have doubled in the Summerside area since legislation was passed recently which provided for cancellation of licenses of persons who are not insured and become involved in accidents.

A Summerside man, Sheldon Harris, was fined $10 and costs on a charge of driving without due care and attention (speeding). Police evidence showed that he was driving 39 miles per hour on Granville Street at about four o'clock in the afternoon.



ABOUT 50 high school graduates took advantage of a career counselling course held on Saturday afternoon at the Elm Street School in Summerside. They were shown an interesting film on vocational guidance and then divided into groups according to the career in which they were interested and were lectured by specialists in that field. Shown here left to right are, Miss Blanche Hogg, of the Unemployment Insurance Commission, who is registering two of the participants, Miss Donna Bradshaw, of Summerside who is interested in secretarial work and William Gaudet, of Tignish, who expects to study engineering.

Guidance Course Has 50 Attending

SUMMERSIDE BUREAU OF THE GUARDIAN

The career guidance program, sponsored by the local branch of the Unemployment Insurance Commission, was held Saturday afternoon at the Elm Street School in Summerside, with about 50 students in attendance.

Earl Cannon, the local manager of the commission outlined the purposes of the program to those present and introduced W. A. Hillcoat, Moncton, the Maritime regional supervisor for special placements, who also spoke briefly.

Ernest Murphy, the local special placements officer, stated later that although the numbers in attendance were disappointing, those present received very valuable instruction. He explained that many more applied for the program than actually showed up, with only five Prince County high schools represented. O'Leary, Miscouche and Kinkora were not represented.

The number present totalled about 20 per cent of the high school graduates in the county.

The students were then split into smaller groups according to the vocation in which they were interested, and the career counsellors in attendance outlined the advantages and pitfalls of their prospective professions.

The program was carried out under the direction of Mr. Cannon, Mr. Murphy and Miss Blanche Hogg, of the local National Employment Service, with most of the counsellors being provided by the Y's Men's Club.

The career counsellors who were called upon last Saturday included Floyd Gates, for banking; Mrs. Floyd Gates, nursing; Mrs. Allison MacLean, Home Economics; Wilson Ross, teaching; Cpl. Calvin Bungay, RCMP; J.C. McKenna, surveying; Mrs. Evelyn MacAlpine, secretarial; Miss Una Gallant, Civil Service; Earl Hickey, accounting and business administration; Eric Tanton, radio and TV technicians; Dr. J. L. Saunders, medicine; Francis MacNeill, chemistry; Elmer Murphy, journalism; William Watson, engineering; Alexander Campbell, law; Miss Gail Hancock, airline stewardess; Keith Pickard, architecture; Miss Christine MacLeod, lab technician, and Frank Sampson for social workers.

This is the second such program that has been held in the Maritimes it was stated, with the first being held in Charlottetown earlier last week.
