French Immigration To Be Given A Boost

OTTAWA (CP) — Immigration Minister Marchand announced Wednesday plans to boost immigration to Canada from France.

The minister told a press conference his department has no specific target or detailed scheme yet worked out but one idea that's being given priority is a survey of Canadians—particularly in French Canada"—to find out why many French immigrants don't feel at home in Canada."

He said Canada gained about 5,000 immigrants from France in 1965 only half of them French nationals and immigration from France this year is running 50 per cent ahead of where it was at this point last year.

Canada needed a "better balance in immigration as far as languages are concerned."

The minister made a four-day visit to France last week. He questioned officials during his visit on the reasons for the low immigration from France. There was a suggestion that Frenchmen were probably more reluctant than other nationals to leave home.

He was also unsure that French immigrants, as well as other immigrants, were as well received by French Canadians as by other Canadians. This was the reason for the survey.

Despite the upsurge in French immigration — immigrants from Belgium, many of them French-speaking, are also running 100 per cent ahead of last year—Canada's need for skilled French-language immigrants remained high.

France appeared to have a surplus of technicians, and professional groups there told him many engineers were unemployed.

Mr. Marchand stressed that his department didn't want "a policy that will follow linguistic lines." In the case of France, Canada had not drawn a proportionate flow of immigrants compared with the 40,000 or so that come from the United Kingdom annually.

Nursing Station Set For Arctic

OTTAWA (CP) — Three Arquoise trailers soon will be cruising into Pond Inlet at the top of Baffin Island in the Canadian Arctic. Once they hit land they'll be stripped of their wheels and set up as a fully-equipped Arctic nursing station.

The trailers leave Montreal today on the transport department ship Sir John Crosby. They'll be set up by mid-September at Pond Inlet where they'll serve 675 people, 90 per cent Eskimos.

The pre-fabricated nursing station, second in the Arctic, costs $50,000. The government of the Northwest Territories pays 8½ per cent of the cost and maintenance and the federal government pays the rest.

A similar nursing station was set up last August at Rankin Inlet, and one is planned for northern Alberta in early winter.

Manufactured by a Calgary firm, the trailer-stations are less than half the cost of a permanent building. Because they are easily moved, they are suited to an area where the population may shift to better hunting and fishing grounds.

BIDDING QUIZ

You have the following hand, both sides vulnerable:

♠KQ1083 ♥KQ95 ♦K4 ♣A2

1. Your partner bids One Diamond, to which you respond Two Spades. Partner bids Three Diamonds and you respond Three Hearts. Partner then bids Four Diamonds. What would you bid now?

2. Your right-hand opponent bids One Diamond, which you double. Partner responds One Heart. What would you bid now?

3. After two passes your right-hand opponent bids One Club, which you double. Partner responds Two Hearts, which the opener passes. What would you bid now?

4. You open One Spade, to which partner responds Two Notrump. When you bid Three Hearts, partner responds Three Notrump. What would you bid now?

1. Four Notrump. It sounds very much as though partner has only a one-track mind—he likes diamonds. He probably has seven to the A-Q-J or some similar holding, and the chief question to be resolved is how many aces he has.

It is therefore best to bid four notrump. In view of the immediate jump shift, thus showing interest in a slam, four notrump must be regarded as a Blackwood call for ace, even though no suit has yet been agreed upon as trump. If partner shows three aces by responding five spades, you bid seven diamonds (or seven notrump). If he shows two Aces by responding five hearts, you bid six diamonds. If he shows one ace by responding five diamonds, you pass.

2. Three hearts. You don't have quite the values for a jump to four, and you have too much strength for a mere raise to two hearts. Three is just about right.

3. Three clubs. When this hand appeared in the Bridge World magazine, a panel of experts voted to respond this way: 22 for three clubs; 18 for four hearts; 5 for four notrump; 2 for two spades.

Obviously, those who favored three clubs (a cuebid) or four notrump were more slam-minded than those who favored four hearts, which was only a faint slam try. It does seem that if partner has two aces a slam looks very promising, and for that reason this writer favored three clubs or four notrump.

4. Four notrump. Twelve tricks may be there if partner has the right hand, even though the combined high-card point count cannot possibly come to 33 points. (The jump to two notrump shows 13 to 15 points.)

Four notrump is merely invitational in this sequence and partner is free to pass. It is a raise in notrump and has nothing to do with Blackwood.
