Harrison-Robertson Wedding Is Solemnized

Baskets of flowers formed a pretty setting for the marriage in Heron Park Baptist Church, West Hill, Toronto on August 30, 1957, at 5 p.m. of Betty Eva, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Robertson, Munn's Road, P.E.I., and James David, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Harrison of West Hill, Toronto. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Gordon Allen, pastor of the church.

Mrs. S. Robinson played the wedding music and accompanied Mrs. B. Arnot who sang "O Perfect Love" preceding the ceremony and "Because" during the signing of the register.

The bride, given in marriage by Mr. Arthur Jenkins of Marshfield, P.E.I., wore a ballerina length gown of white Chantilly lace jacket. Her finger-tip veil fell from a coronet of seed pearls and sequins. Her only ornament was a pearl choker and earrings, the gift of the groom. She carried a nosegay of red roses and white lilies of the Valley.

She was attended by her sister Miss Kathleen Robertson who wore a street length dress of blue nylon net over satin with matching headpiece and mitts. She carried a nosegay of pink roses.

Mrs. William Brady accompanied by Mrs. E. Carley at the organ sang "The Lord's Prayer" during the ceremony and "O Promise Me" during the signing of the register.

Following the ceremony a reception was held for 115 invited guests. The bride's table was arranged with a three-tiered wedding cake, flanked by bouquets of early summer flowers.

Pastor V. W. Collins, the presiding minister, proposed a toast to the bride and the groom fittingly responded.

The happy couple motored to P.E. Island for their honeymoon and have now taken up residence in Oshawa, Ontario.

Prior to and following her marriage the bride was the guest of honor at several miscellaneous showers.

VICTORIA WEST L.A.

The Presbyterian Ladies Aid of Victoria West met for their August meeting at the home of Mrs. Gordon MacArthur, Enmore. The meeting opened by singing the Hymn "Rescue the Perishing" followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison.

Twenty-six members answered the roll call with a verse of scripture. The Scripture reading was taken from the hundred and forty-third Psalm.

During the business period the canvassers of the budget passed in their collection. Readings were given by Mrs. MacNaughton and Mrs. Alexander Murray.

Next place of meeting is at the home of Mrs. Kenneth MacArthur with the following lunch committee in charge, Mrs. David Enman, Mrs. Leaman Moore, Mrs. John Bishop and Mrs. Kenneth Enman.

A minute of silence was observed in memory of a faithful member, Mrs. Angus Enman. The meeting was brought to a close by the hymn "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," followed by a prayer by Rev. Mr. MacNaughton. Lunch was then served to members and the many visitors who were present.

CAMPUS PREDICTIONS

Ivy league experts predict that a shirt and shorts, shirt and slacks, and the shirt and skirt will be the favorites on campus this year.

This shirt is of woven cotton stripes with three-way sleeves that can be worn rolled up, loose and free or snugly buttoned below the elbow. A button down collar and action back styling are added attractions. Pictured with Bermuda shorts.

Meeting closed by singing the Queen, after which the secretary, Mrs. James Tierney, was presented with an address and gift on her fifth wedding anniversary. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess and several members.

It was moved and seconded that all bills be paid. The next meeting is to be at Mrs. Melville Pollards. It was decided to invite Elmwood Institute as guests at this meeting. Roll call to be a Grab Bag of recipe's Grab to be 10 cents.

The collection for the evening was 95 cents. A singer's contest was put on by Mrs. Darrach and won by Mrs. R. MacPhee.

MR. AND MRS. DOUGLAS A. SMITH

Pretty Summer Wedding Held In Oshawa, Ontario

The Oshawa Adventist Church was the setting for a pretty summer wedding when Joyce Pearle, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Carley of Oshawa, was united in marriage to Douglas A. Smith, formerly of East Cambridge, N.B., now of Oshawa.

As Mrs. Elmer Carley of Oshawa, played several selections on the organ, the guests were ushered to their pews by Messrs. Alton and Wendell Willis, brother of the bride and Mr. Don Shepard. Just preceding the entrance of the bride a white carpet was unrolled for her to walk on by little Miss Elizabeth MacDonald and Master Larry Shepard.

The bridal party took their places amid a setting of beautiful flowers consisting of bouquets of peonies and mixed flowers, potted African palms and house plants.

The church was tastefully decorated for the occasion by girl friends of the bride.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and wore a floor-length gown of white net over satin. Her veil of tulle illusion was held in place by a sequin-studded head-piece. Her bouquet consisted of pink and white roses.

Miss Emma Wilson of Oshawa, as maid of honour wore a street length azure blue dress of crystal charm, and carried a bouquet of yellow mums.

Mrs. Alton Willis, sister-in-law of the bride performed the part of bridesmaid in a similar dress of pink crystal charm. Her bouquet was yellow mums.

Little Miss Diane Smith, niece of the groom presented a winsome picture as flower girl in her long gown of pale green organdy with full skirt and bronze mums. Supporting the groom was his brother Llewellyn of Oshawa.

The bride's mother wore a dress of dusty pink crepe with lace inserts and white accessories. She wore a corsage of white roses. Mrs. Smith, mother of the groom, chose a lace-pannelled blue crepe dress with white accessories. She wore a corsage of pink roses.

Mrs. William Brady accompanied by Mrs. E. Carley at the organ sang "The Lord's Prayer" during the ceremony and "O Promise Me" during the signing of the register.

Following the ceremony a reception was held for 115 invited guests. The bride's table was arranged with a three-tiered wedding cake, flanked by bouquets of early summer flowers.
