

OBITUARY

SUSAN GAIL MACDONALD
Inserted by the family

On May 29th, the Angel of Death winged its way earthward and at Ajax Hospital, Toronto claimed for His Own, Susan Gail, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Macdonald (Jr.) at the tender age of four years.

Two years ago, while Mr. and Mrs. Robert Macdonald were residing at Cornwall, P.E.I. it was sensed that Susan's health was declining and upon advice of their physician they moved to Toronto, where Susan was given all possible medical care — but to no avail — as the Great Physician willed otherwise and stretched forth His loving hands, drew her to His bosom, saying: "Come unto Me, for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven."

Although she just, budded on earth to bloom in Heaven yet her loving disposition endeared her to all with whom she came in contact, but it is in the home that her loss will be most keenly felt.

Besides her sorrowing parents there are left to mourn one brother, Harleigh, also grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Macdonald (Sr.), Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Willis and also several aunts and uncles.

The funeral was held from Cutcliffe's Funeral Home to Cornwall United Church. The service was conducted by Mr. Roydon Reynolds assisted by Rev. R. Gillis. Both spoke comforting words to the bereaved.

Then as the hush of death prevailed, all that was mortal was tenderly laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery but while tears bedimmed the eye, comfort flowed with the thought that this grave some day will be like the grave of Jesus Christ, vacant and untenant.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. Vernon Inman, Elliot Wight, Ewen Taylor and Winston Taylor. The many floral tributes bore a silent testimony of the love held for their dear one.
