

Local and Other Items.

REMEMBER.—The Literary and Scientific Institute meets this evening.

THE GREAT sale of fancy goods at Beer Bros. will be continued on Wednesday.

SAILED.—The steamer M. A. Starr, Captain Ferguson, sailed for Halifax about midnight.

HEA EIGHTEENTH.—On the 11th inst., at St. Leonard Station, Madawaska County, N. B., Mrs. H. A. Couillard gave birth to her 18th child, a girl.

BAZAAR.—The Diamond Bazaar over the Diamond Bookstore is being lighted with electricity and will be open for business this week. Look out for advertisement in a few days.

PERSONAL.—Artemas Hooper, Esq., of Centreville, was in town to-day. We hear that he intends soon to retire from the farm, and that consequently his beautiful homestead is in the market.

TRI-WEEKLY MAIL WANTED.—Those interested in the mail route between Souris and Bay Fortune are petitioning the Postmaster-General for tri-weekly mails instead of bi-weekly, as at present.

SOMETHING NEW.—Fraser Bros., machinists, New Glasgow, N. S., have invented a new style of hot water heating furnaces, for which a patent has been applied. It is so constructed that it will burn soft coal.

FATHER MCGILLIVRAY.—A finely executed crayon portrait of the late lamented Father McGillivray is on exhibition in the show window of Reddin's Drug Store. The artist is Miss Maud Harris, of Boston.

THE CURRIE CASE.—The Methodist Conference, according to the St. John News, have retained the Attorney-General to act with Dr. Stockton in the D. D. Currie case, which is set down for trial at the Hilary term.

ILLEGAL VOTING.—In New York the other day Dennis Foley was sentenced to two years and four months in the penitentiary for illegally voting under the name of Hurley. The risoner swore in his vote after Hurley had voted.

POST OFFICE CLOSED.—Owing to the death of the Postmaster at Souris West, the office at that place has been temporarily closed. We hope soon to hear of its being opened again. The more post office facilities the better for the people.

CREDITABLE.—We learn that Mr. Alexander McRae, of Point Prim, has passed a very successful examination in England and received his certificate as a chief mate. He is now chief officer of a ship sailing out of Liverpool. We wish him good luck as he sails or the sea.

MEETING TO-NIGHT.—Remember the annual meeting of the Scientific and Literary Association to-night, at 8 o'clock, in the Colonial Hall, to hear the President's Address, elect officers, &c. All persons wishing to become members are requested to attend to-night. Fees of membership 50 cents.

SANTA CLAUS.—Our storekeepers are busily engaged making ready for the holiday season. Some of them already have their show cases and windows decorated. Several new and excellent lines are being introduced; indeed, the great trouble this year will be to decide what not to buy, rather than what to buy.

NEW POST OFFICE WANTED.—The people of Beer's Road, Rollo Bay, are petitioning for a Post Office. They have just finished plastering a fine new schoolhouse. Inside and out, the building is thoroughly finished, and the school is now in good running order. A post office is considered the next thing needed in the neighborhood; and it is hoped that the expectations of the petitioners may be realized at an early date, in the opening of an office somewhere near the Railway station.

BOSTON PRICES.—Boston advices of the 25th report: Eggs liberal, and the demand only fair; E. E. Island firsts hard to place at 24 cents. The potato market is firm, during the receipts have fallen off considerably during the past few days. Following are the prevailing prices:—P. E. Island Rose per bush, $2.50 to $2.15; P. E. I. Hebrons, per bush, 70 to 75 cents; P. E. I. Rose per bush, 70 cents; White stock, 65 to 70 cents; McIntyres, 55 cents; Chenagenos, 55 cents. Nothing worthy of special notice given in fish.

SHOOTING AFFRAY.—The Summerside Agricultural reports that on Tuesday evening last a shooting affray, of a serious nature, took place at Turkish. It appears that a young man named Leard was attending one of those abominable gatherings known as charivaris, in the course of which he became somewhat demonstrative in his efforts to gain admittance to the house. Finally he forced his way in in spite of repeated warnings, when he was shot by a man named Brennan, in self-defence, it is claimed, the bullet lodging in his head, just back of the ear.

OBSTRUCTING THE SIDEWALKS.—Now that the mud is ankle-deep on our streets, and it is consequently somewhat difficult for pedestrians to make their way thereon, we must insist upon getting a little more of the sidewalk than we have been. It is too much the custom for truckmen and others to spread their teams across the sidewalk while loading and unloading freights, thus compelling pedestrians to go out almost to the centre of the street in order to pass. Pedestrians desiring to be as accommodating as possible, did not grumble to any extent, about this nuisance while the streets were fairly clean, but now that they are almost impassable, a reform is demanded. We trust that the persons to whom we are referring will consider the matter and will in future decide to let pedestrians have just a small portion of the plankway.

ISLANDERS IN MASSACHUSETTS.—According to the Massachusetts census of 1885, an interesting summary of which is given in the British-American Citizen, to hand last evening, there are a surprisingly large number of Prince Edward Islanders residing in that State. In Boston there are 2,712; Worcester, 82; Lowell, 135; Cambridge, 430; Fall River, 313; Lynn, 134; Lawrence, 34; Springfield, 24; New Bedford, 68; Somerville, 116; Salem, 35; Holyoke, 4; Chelsea, 312; Taunton, 164; Gloucester, 399; Brockton, 101; Haverhill, 34; Newton, 129; Malden, 134; Pittsburg, 13; Waltham, 56; Pittsfield, 19; Newport, 88; Attleboro, 20; Northampton, 1; North Adams, 4; Quincy, 146; Woburn, 169; Chicopee, 4; Marlboro, 10; Weymouth, 15; Peabody, 10; Milford, 14; Brookline, 60; Beverly, 10; Medford, 71; Westfield, 3; Clinton, 3; Natick, 1; Hyde Park, 32; Adams, 1; Framingham, 31; Spencer, 0; Marlborough, 1; Gardiner, 0; Plymouth, 12; Danvers, 32; Dedham, 25; Southbridge, 0; Waterbury, 38; Webster, 2; Melrose, 13; Wakefield, 1; Ware, 2; Palmer, 0; Everett, 14; Andover, 11; Stoneham, 12; Montague, 0; Blackstone, 3; Leominster, 12.

Local and Other Items.

THE COBAN.—The steamer Coiban, Captain Fraser, sailed from Quebec for this port to-day.

HOME AGAIN.—Miss McGarry has just returned to Montreal from her professional tour in the Maritime Provinces where she won great opinions.

BRAIN PARALYSIS.—During the past three months there have been six deaths from brain paralysis in Calais, Me. The last death occurred on Wednesday.

JUST ONE HITCH.—"Did the wedding go off smoothly?" "About as smoothly as such affairs always go off. The only hitch that occurred was when the pair stood up to be united."

CROWDED OUT.—The new advertisements of Jas. Paton & Co., Beer Bros., J. B. Macdonald, L. E. Prowse, Perkins & Sterns, Stanley Bros. and others, crowded out to-day, will appear to-morrow.

CORRECTION.—The public meeting to receive the report of the Water Commissioners, will be held in the Market Hall on Thursday evening, 8th inst., instead of on Monday evening, as inadvertently announced yesterday.

NEW POST OFFICE.—Rollo Bay people are asking for a new office to be opened in the eastern end of the settlement. There are two post offices in Rollo Bay already, and some are of opinion that another one is also needed in the neighborhood.

NEW PAPER.—We have received the first number of L'Evangeline, a French journal published at Digby, N. S., and edited by Mr. V. A. Landry. It is nicely printed, and is well stocked with reading matter. We wish the new venture success.

RUSHING THINGS.—An Ottawa despatch reports that the Treasury Board is calling on the departmental heads to make up their estimates for the fiscal year 1888-89 at the earliest opportunity. This is thought to indicate not only an early session, but a desire to expedite business once the houses have met.

WORTHY OF IMITATION.—The enterprising proprietor of the Sea View Hotel, Souris, has just completed the laying of a plank sidewalk along the street from his hotel premises to the main sidewalk on the principal street. The example set by Mr. Cox in this respect might well be imitated by other residents of Souris.

SCOTT ACT.—Seventeen Scott Act cases constituted the docket at the Seditious Magistrate's Court to-day. Up to the time of writing (three o'clock), Owen Connolly had been fined $50 for a first offence, two cases were dismissed, and four postponed. The hearing of the evidence in the remaining ten cases takes place this afternoon. The Court-room is crowded with spectators, and great interest is taken in the proceedings.

THE SCOTT ACT.—The majority in favor of the Act in Charlottetown was 15. The supporters of the act now declare they will enforce the law vigorously. This will be no easy task, for Charlottetown must be a very bad place, judging by the fact that Rev. J. A. Cahill, at a public meeting said, "The same element was in the United States to-day, shouting for free love and dynamite, which was here (in Charlottetown) working for license." And this wicked element polled nearly half the voters cast in the election.—St. John Globe.

THE SCOTT ACT.—The Gloucester, Mass., Advertiser says that for the fishing season now brought to a close, the loss, while heavy and greatly to be regretted, has been less severe than last year, and somewhat below the average of the past 15 or 20 years. The number of vessels lost the past year has been 13, of a tonnage of 843, valued at $62,900, on which there was an insurance of $51,445. The loss of lives numbered 85, including the crews of lost vessels, 42; one lost from wrecked schooner; 11 capsized in dories; 8 astray in dories; 8 washed overboard; 5 died on shipboard at sea; 3 drowned in the harbor; 2 drowned in Boston; 2 drowned by overloading dory; 1 drowned in boarding seine boat, and 1 run over by the cars in Boston. Several of those lost were natives of the Island, chiefly of King's County.

AN ISLANDER ABROAD.—We are indebted to Captain M. P. McRae, formerly of Point Prim, for late Lower California papers. From one of the papers, the "Voice of the Frontier," we extract two paragraphs in the hope that they will prove interesting to our readers. Here is the first one:—"Et Coronel Crane inspecciona diariamente los trabajos importantes que se llevan con bastante actividad en dicha ciudad; las casas rurales se han cimentado con notable éxito. El camino que conduce a aquel lugar ha sufrido la semana anterior notables composuras."

The second is somewhat shorter, but loses none of its importance on that score. Read it:—"La Goleta 'Dona Lena' procedente de San Francisco, con un cargamento de maderas, salido de este puerto con destino a San Quintin el dia 10 del corriente."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

What About our Fisheries?

SIR.—As one deeply interested, I would wish to ask the advocates of Commercial Union what are they going to do with our fisheries, providing their pet scheme be adopted? Are the American seiners to be allowed to swoop down upon our fishing grounds with their destructive purse seines and utterly ruin our mackerel fishing? If so, we don't want Commercial Union. Reciprocity with the United States on fair and equitable terms, would be a good thing for both that country and this, but we are not willing to give up our fisheries to American seiners in order to obtain it; and if Commercial Union men mean to sacrifice our fisheries, (and they most certainly would do so) all I have to say is that they can keep their Commercial Union and we will keep our fish.

(SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.)

French Politics.

PARIS, Nov. 28. A congress of the Senate and Chamber of Deputies will meet on Friday at Versailles to elect a successor to Grevy. Grevy's message of resignation will be short. He will disclaim all responsibility for the consequences of his retirement. M. Deroulle declares he will convert the patriotic league into a revolutionary society if M. Ferry is elected President. Thirteen Deputies and Senators waited upon Grevy to-day, and expressed their readiness to join the new Cabinet if he undertook to obtain a dissolution of Parliament by the Senate. They urged Grevy to stay at his post and save France from the dangers threatened. The President's response is unknown.

The Pictou Branch Railway.

PICTOU, N. S., Nov. 28. This was a gala day in the history of Pictou, the branch railway from Stellarton having been opened for traffic. The town was in holiday attire and the streets were full of people. A grand banquet was held here in the afternoon, which was a great success, nearly 300 persons being present. The various speakers referred to the excellent facilities Pictou afforded for manufacturing purposes, being unsurpassed by any town in Nova Scotia. The proceedings of the day wound up with a grand ball and fireworks.

More Smuggling.

WINNIPEG, Nov. 28. A despatch from Victoria, B. C., says the Canadian Pacific steamship Abyssinia arrived Saturday morning. Information had been received that smuggled goods were aboard, and customs officers made a search, discovering and confiscating 20,000 cigars and several hundred bottles of Chinese wines. The goods had been smuggled by the crew, and it is thought that a large quantity got ashore at Vancouver.

The Fog Lifted.

HALIFAX, Nov. 28. The dense fog which hung like a pall on the coast for the last three days lifted to-night, and the Vancouver, from Portland for Liverpool, which had been off this harbor since Friday night, entered and sailed at 11 o'clock for England. The Sarnia also arrived from England, and her mails and passengers were forwarded at midnight on special trains.

A Schoolhouse Horror.

LONDON, Nov. 28. A school in the village of Wercheblastrak-for, Russia, was burned a few nights ago. A large number of girls were sleeping on the upper floors. Twenty-four escaped by jumping from windows, sixteen others were afraid to jump and were burned to death.

An Explosion.

LONDON, Nov. 28. An explosion occurred in Aberrant Colliery, Aberdare, this morning. It is reported that 300 men were in the mine, and 230 got out during the day through an old working. The others are still entombed. It is hoped they will be saved.

A Cold Wave.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 28. The coldest place in the United States last night was Fort Buford, where it was 28 degrees below zero. Bismarck next, 24 below. The cold is abating all over the Northwest.

Choked to Death.

COLLINGWOOD, Ont., Nov. 28. The eight year old son of Capt. H. Rowe was choked to death yesterday by getting a cent into his throat.

Shut Down.

HAVANA, Nov. 28. Ninety-five cigar factories shut down to-day owing to demands of cigar makers for an increase of wages.

Gone to Rest.

HALIFAX, Nov. 28. Dr. Avery, aged 94, one of the oldest and wealthiest citizens of Halifax, died to-day.
