TREATMENT OF GALLED BACK.—George H. Dault, Veterinary Surgeon, gives in the Prairie Farmer the following: So soon as an abrasion is discovered on the back of a horse, the animal should be excused from duty for a few days; the abraded parts should be dressed twice daily with a lotion of tincture of aloes and myrrh. This simple treatment will soon heal the parts. Should there be no abrasion, but simple swelling, attended with heat, pain and tenderness, the parts should be frequently sponged with cold water. Occasionally the skin undergoes the process of hydrating, (induration.) This is a condition of the part known to the farmers of old as "siftast," and the treatment is as follows:—Procure one ounce of iodine, and smear the indurated spot with a portion of the same, twice daily.

Some cases of galled back and shoulders are due to negligence and abuse, yet many animals, owing to a peculiarity of constitution, will "chafe," as the saying is, in those parts which come in contact with the collar and saddle, and neither human foresight nor mechanical means can prevent the same.

HOW TO FEEL THE PULSE OF A HORSE.—This is best felt where the artery passes over the edge of the jaw-bone. To find it, apply the fingers to the angle of the jawbone, and slowly pass them down to where a notch in the bone may be felt; the artery passes along this notch, where the throbbing will be perceptible. It is generally situated about three inches from the angle of the bone. In the horse the beats of the pulse are from 32 to 38 times in a minute, in a state of health.

The most approved form in sheep is general roundness of shape and fineness of bone. The chest should be broad, the ribs well arched, the back and loins broad, flat, and straight; the limbs should be short in proportion to the body, the head small, the ears thin, the skin soft and elastic, the wool soft to the touch, thick, and coming forward to the face, but not covering it. The face and forehead should be clothed with short hair, and the eye should have a lively expression.

CURE FOR SPAVIN.—E. J. Bantz writes to the Prairie Farmer that to cure a bon-spavin the leg should be washed clean with soap and warm water, then clip off the hair and apply 1 oz. pulverized sal ammoniac; 1 oz. gum camphor; 1 oz. Venice turpentine; 1 oz. tincture of castor-oil; 1 oz. spirits ammonia; 2 oz. olive oil; twice per day and rub in the roughly. Wash clean every fourth day till well.

CHILDREN TEETHING

MRS. WINSLOW, An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of mothers, her which greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay all pain and spasmodic action, and is SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and Relief and Health to your Infants. We have put up and sold this article for over thirty years, and can say, in confidence and truth of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine ever has it filled in a single instance to effect a cure, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, we are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of highest commendation of its beneficial effects and medicinal virtues. We speak in this manner "what we do know," after thirty years' experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfillment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most experienced and skillful nurses in New England, and has been used with never failing success in thousands of cases. It not only relieves the child from pain but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, AND VINDICOLIC, and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the best and surest remedy in the world, in all cases of Dysentery and Diarrhoea in Children, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—to not let her prejudices, nor the prejudices of others, stand between her suffering child and the relief that will be sure, yes, absolutely sure, to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None Genuine unless the fac-simile of LITTLE & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper.

OLD DR. JUDSON'S DEAD SHOT WORM CANDY KILLS WORMS

New Triumphs of Rogers' Medicines. Run your eye over them and tell your officious neighbour about it. AMHERST, N.S. August 7th, 1866. MESSRS. ROGERS & CO.:

Gentlemen—Permit me to add my testimony to the great value of your preparation; and any person reading the following account of a cure effected by it upon my son, will not dispute my right to do so. He first fell upon a fork handle in the barn, and hurt his leg a little below the knee; he subsequently took cold, when he got to swell and pain him very much. It soon ulcerated near where it was hurt, and continued to discharge freely, until the call of the leg seemed to be one mass of corruption. His foot and knee swelled very much, and when we commenced with your medicine, was very much inflamed, and I was evidently on the eve of mortification. The pain and suffering he endured, no pen can describe. He grew weaker daily. Nothing that medical skill and faithful attendance could accomplish, was omitted; still he gradually sunk, until there seemed but little hope of saving either his life or limb. As a last resort, the doctors decided to amputate the leg. This was to have been done the next day, but just at this critical point, a kind friend advised me to try your medicine. I concluded to do so; and the leg at once began to improve, and is now well. He goes to school as usual. This is, certainly, the most extraordinary cure ever recorded in this country. No person could duly appreciate the sad and suffering condition he was in, without seeing for themselves; to all human appearance he could not have lived a week; there did not seem to be a ray of hope left. Doubtless there are thousands dying whose lives might be spared, if they had this extraordinary medicine. Hoping that God may prosper you in your work of humanity, I am, Gentlemen, yours affectionately, ALISON COPELAND.

We, the undersigned, inhabitants of Amherst and vicinity—some of us having been eye witnesses to the above distressing case, and all being quite familiar with the facts, from common report in this community—have no hesitation in endorsing the above statements of Mr. Copeland.
