Masons Hold Annual St. John's Night Banquet

Rev. James Heathwood, Minister of St. John's Presbyterian Church, Belfast, was guest speaker at the annual St. John's night banquet held in the Clover Club last evening, presided over by P.G.M., W.R. Carson. Grace was said by Rev. E. C. Evans.

The gifted speaker dwelt on the outstanding qualities of St. John the Divine and St. John the Evangelist, who are the patron saints of the Order. He urged the practice of those qualities which have endeared the memory of these Saints down through the ages, so closely identified with the history of Masonry.

Brother E. T. Higgs responded to the toast "The Craft" and Mrs. J. L. Herring responded to the toast "The Ladies".

Following the banquet, three sound films were shown: "Royal Scotland", "Johnnie at the Fair" and "Aid and Assist", the latter being a production released by the Masonic Services Association.

More than 225 took part in the celebration which was conducted under the auspices of St. John's and Victoria Lodges, M.W. Douglas D. MacLaren, Grand Master, was an honored guest.

The celebration closed with the National Anthem. The Gornolly's orchestra provided the music for the dinner period and for the dancing which followed.

The Week at S.D.U.

A glance at the Calendar-November 28th, our first exam-Dec. 7th. Yes, our first half is drawing to a close and with this thought in mind we begin our final drive in preparation for the coming exams, since it is only a short time since we last made mention of exams, it might be in order to explain our system at S.D.U. During each term two sets are written, one mid-way through the term and the other at the end of the term. The mid-way exams, worth twenty marks cover the work from the beginning of the term up till the time they are written, while the finals are worth eighty marks and cover the half-year's work. If the campus appears isolated during the next few weeks it is due to the fact that we are trying to beat the sixty mark, which incidentally is a pass.

On November 24th two young Juniors, Dick Wedge and Charlie Roche, successfully opposed the resolution, "That Canada should join the United States to form one united country", against Leonard Gally and Austin Monroe, representing King's College, Halifax. In winning our first Maritime Intercollegiate Debate, these two gentlemen have set the path for what we predict to be another big year for our branch of the M.I.D.L. The judges for the debate, Messrs Somerled Trainor, H. Arthur Peake and Alban Farmer each gave a short talk following the speeches, in which they complimented the speakers and explained the reasons for their decision. The consensus of the judges was that our boys were superior in their presentation, and had an edge over the Halifax boys in the rebuttals. In the matter of presentation we whole-heartedly agreed as both Dick and Charlie did masterful jobs, considering their lack of experience. The chairman for the evening's activities was Mr. Allan MacDonald, who two years ago led St. Dunstan's to a Canadian Intercollegiate Debating Crown.

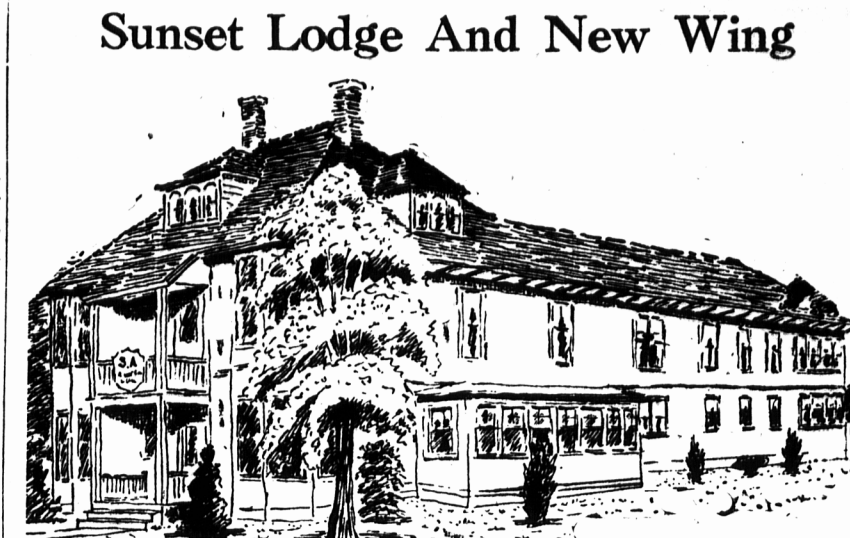

"The Week" congratulates Dick, Charlie and Coach, Father Cass in winning our first debate which we hope is the first step towards another Dominion Championship. Our Senior Basketball Team journeyed to Antigonish on November 21st and despite the fact that St. F. X. won the exhibition game 55 to 42 we have nothing to feel bad about. "The Saints" playing without Jack Reardon showed that they are a team ready to take over where they left off last year. We all know of the team's success last year, when they captured the N.E. - P.E.I. Championship and narrowly missed out in their bid for a Maritime Crown. With Reardon once more in the line-up, we feel sure "The Saints" will put up a strong fight against St. F.X. in our gym tonight.

While we are on the subject of basketball, we note that with one-half of the schedule gone in our Intramural League, the Seniors are leading the pack. However, the competition is keen and there are several other teams, Juniors and Grade XI gunning for first place, which should make the second half of the schedule very interesting.

Last Saturday evening our annual High School Drama Festival was held in the Assembly Hall with three one-act plays being staged. The festival which is staged each year has as its aim the encouraging of dramatics among the High School students. The Chairman for the evening's entertainment was Mr. Jerome Quinn, President of the Dramatic Society. The plays presented were: Tony Posters Opera House, The Dummy and Submerged by Grades X, XI, and XII respectively. Following the presentation of the plays, Fr. Edmund Roche, who acted as Adjudicator for the evening, gave a short talk on the presenting of one act plays and gave timely criticism on the faults and good points of the actors. Fr. Roche stated that although Grade XII had a very good play, he would give the nod to Grade XI, chiefly because of their enunciation and due the fact that they knew their lines exceptionally well. The cast of the winning play was as follows: Donald Bulger, Merlin Gormley, Brendon Dunphy, Neil Gillis. Entertainment for the evening was supplied by The Glee Club under the direction of Fr. James Killy. The College Drama Festival will take place in the Assembly Hall Monday evening.

Thought for the week: "Each generation is converted by the person who contradicts it most." G. K. Chesterton.

Till next week from S.D.U. to all of you. Health and Happiness.

Thirty-two guests may now be comfortably looked after in Sunset Lodge where previous to the opening of the new wing only half that number were accommodated. basic Soviet policy toward the West has undergone any change, the informant said.

Premier Joseph Laniel told the National Assembly the Moscow move "could constitute the beginning of an improvement in the international climate which France would be the first to welcome.

French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault said that at least Russia has sent a note which was not negative but that Atlantic solidarity must be preserved at all costs.

"East-West talks must be opened up as soon as possible with general security and control of disarmament as their objective," he told the assembly.

Most European capitals viewed the Russian note as a victory for the West. The note was seen as an Allied experts will begin drafting an answer to Moscow at the Bermuda conference of Prime Minister Churchill, President Eisenhower and Premier Laniel starting next week.

The U. S. View
WASHINGTON, (AP)—Russia's note agreeing to a Big Four conference was called obstructive and "disappointing" by the United States Friday.

The state department analyzed it as an effort to stall the rearming of West Germany and at the same time overcome "the disastrous consequences" of the Soviet's "uncompromising" policy in the past.

While the state department avoided saying what kind of an official reply would be made to the Russian note, it appeared here that the Western powers will go forward with arrangements for a meeting—probably in Berlin, as the Soviets suggest.

Moscow stated unconditionally its acceptance of a foreign ministers' meeting.

Bermuda Meet First
However, it seemed likely that no official reply would be made until after Prime Minister Churchill, President Eisenhower and Premier Laniel of France meet in Bermuda Dec. 4.

With news that Laniel's government had survived a parliamentary vote of confidence, despite the springing of the Kremlin surprise Thursday night, there was a feeling in Washington that for the moment the crisis in Western unity had been passed.

But a statement released by the state department conceded that the problem of how to deal with the latest Russian move is a sharp new issue for the Big Three leaders and their diplomatic chiefs— an issue which must be handled in such a way as to avoid or minimize delays in Western arming.

The Soviet note restated basic Soviet policy on two points: first, that Red China must be included in any successful efforts to relax world tension; and second, that formation of a West European army, including German forces, is an aggressive action and a threat to peace.

News and Views From P.W.C.

This year a boys' choir, under the capable direction of Miss Lillian E. MacKenzie, has been taking the spotlight, so the boys decided to do something about it. Miss MacKenzie is quite pleased with the results of the first few practices, and is quite hopeful in her efforts for a very successful year.

Once again practice for the boys senior basketball team has begun. This year the team will be under the guiding hand of our math teacher Ivan Dowling. Although it is too early in the season to make any absolute decisions about the team, Mr. Dowling feels that this year's team will be an even better one than last year's.

For the first time in the history of P.W.C., a 3rd and 4th year debating society is in the offing. Second year and Teacher Training have regular debating classes. Thus far very little has been done to officially organize this society; but the P.W.C. members are looking forward to the formation of this club.
