
STERN-FACED HOFFA AFTER CONVICTION

James R. Hoffa, teamsters president walks from the Federal Court with a Chattanooga, Tenn., city policeman Wednesday after being convicted on two counts of attempting to fix a 1962 Federal Court jury in Nashville. Hoffa sat in stunned silence as he heard his first conviction in five federal trials dating from 1957. He indicated he would appeal. Others convicted with Hoffa were Ewing King, former president of the Nashville Teamsters Union; Larry Campbell, Detroit Teamsters business agent, and his uncle, Thomas E. Parks, a Nashville handyman. Each faces a maximum of five years in prison and $5,000 in fines.
