Drugmen Cop Title

Enman Drug softball team has won the N.B. - P.E.I. senior "B" championship and will play for the Maritime Cup of the Atlantic Coast League. The team, coached by Jim Jenkins with the winning run and Enman's beat Moncton 10-5. Enman had a home run to his credit, and Grady batted 3 for 3. One home run player took to the umpire Woodard, and it was interesting to note what action Jim took on the attack. Woodard recently a softball coach over what was considered a wise opinion. "The fact is you do down into the bush league," he said. "The more chances umpires take performing their duties." It also seems true that the higher you go in these leagues, the less an umpire will take from a player. One time in a major league a player mugged the

Where Is The Villain?

We had a phone call from Bob Banks, president of the Prince County softball league, and guess what: he's not the fellow we're after either. Bob says he told "Dick" Gallant the manager of the team after securing the little league diamond for the game with Moncton and that he was the villain. Okay, Uric, the number 10 in the 31-10 game, was the thing taken out before you let a chance to call that. We have a name for every villain goes around wearing a raincoat and no sign of the villain of the moment. "Dick and James" stuff, that's it.

Good Losers

The time-wary struggle of the American and English races is back with us again, and it seems that the English are going to win a little more than usual. They've been on a losing streak since 1951. Through the years, the English, a magnate, struggled for years and gained a reputation of good sportsmanship. Perhaps you shouldn't say "only" as good sportsmanship is pretty important but being a good loser can get tiresome after a while. If practice makes perfect, the English racketeer should be good losers. They've had an awful lot of practice.

Dartmouth Team Shows Movers

SUMMERSIDE — Dartmouth swamped Coastal Movers 15-3 this Saturday to run the first of three, Maritime Senior "A" softball semi-finals. The Nova Scotia team was in a bit of a wide open in the seventh inning, scoring 11 runs in 16 men paraded across the plate. It was a tough game for the Movers to lose. Despite being down one in the eighth, the Summerside pitcher George Kinch and teammates played six innings were named ally. 3-2. Kinch had an error and the rest two out of an infield single. No one was out. At this point, Coastal Movers coach Ken Potter made a surprising pitching change. That was to prove fatal. The Movers were out of Kinch and with little success, allowed six runs in the eighth. The Movers were out of Kinch and with little success, allowed seven hits, two of them were Ken Goodwin went the distance for Dartmouth. Goodwin scored all three runs. But the remaining two innings Ken Goodwin was extremely tough. As he pitched shut-out ball. In one stretch he retired five batters, walked six and allowed seven hits.

Flying Hawks Trail Series

Barry Ellis was the big man with the stick for the contest. Ellis belted out three triples in four trips to plate for a three for four day in the batter's box. The batting star for the losers was Peter Pineaux. Peter is the son of Joe Pineaux who is a former resident of Charlotteville.

Bill Weatherbie pitched the masterful game for the Charlotteville squad. Bill threw a neat two hitter at the opposing batters. Mike Kelly was playing short-stop in the second game. Kelly was instrumental in pulling of the fielding gem of the series.
