The Alpha Chapter of Hi-Y decided to study last summer's National Hi-Y Assembly more closely, and invited delegate Phyllis Cutcliffe to discuss the conference findings with them at their regular Tuesday evening meeting last week.

Last moment arrangements were in order when Delta Hi-Y prepared to sponsor a dance in connection with the annual visit of Summer-side Academy students to compete in a local school's Ice Sports.

The week's Hi-Y activities were climaxed with the regular monthly joint meeting of the four clubs last Friday night. Ten new members were welcomed to Hi-Y fellowship in an induction ceremony which took place after pictures of each club and the Council had been taken.

"Gosh, the fellows sure take this seriously." Thus spoke one of the girls at the regular Monday night So-Ed dance instruction class. The whole group is indeed enthusiastic on the capability of instruction and this results in a genuine learning process.

Tumbling is really catching on in the boys' gym program. Last week Mr. Scantlebury had a very encouraging turnout. Since then a new tumbling mat has been put in and everyone should feel more like giving the old college try now.

Now that the school hockey league is concluded the Junior Teen-Town is back at full strength. This is a program for those 13 to 15 each Saturday from 7:30 until 10:15 P. M. Last week films were shown as a special feature and next week something different is being planned by the committee.

Boxing promoter Jack Solomons said today in London, England, it is "not fair" for the National Boxing Association in the United States to declare the Johnny Bratton-Charlie Fusari bout a welterweight championship contest.

Solomons said any settlement of the vacant welterweight title would have to include Eddie Thomas, British and European welterweight champion. Arch Hindman, N.B.A. president, said the N.B.A. will give title recognition to the March 14 Chicago Bratton-Fusari winner.

Fusari-Bratton Match March 14 To Be Title Go

CHICAGO, Feb. 27 — (AP)—The winner of the 15-round Charlie Fusari-Johnny Bratton battle at the Chicago Stadium March 14 will be recognized as welterweight champion of the world by the National Boxing Association, with certain reservations.

The N. B. A.'s title sanction was made jointly by the group's president, Arch Hindman, at his Hagerstown, Ind., home, and by Fred Saddy, chairman of the N. B. A. championship rating committee, in a personal appearance before the Illinois State Athletic Commission.

The welter crown was vacated by new middleweight champion, Sugar Ray Robinson. The N. B. A. specified that the winner must defend the title against Cuba's Kid Gavilan, probably in New York within 45 days and that the winner of the bout with Gavilan guarantee meeting England's Eddie Thomas, European welterweight champion, within three months.

Warming Up For Good Year

PHOENIX, Ariz., Feb. 27—(AP)—Opponents of the champion New York Yankees will find no comfort in the news that pitcher Joe Page is convinced he's warming up for another of his famous "on" years.

The big, handsome lefthander whose relief work burned down the American League in '47 and '49 but who failed signally in the even seasons, says he is recovered from the hip trouble which plagued him last year.

It was not until the last winter that the pitcher told of the pain which caused him to lose his effectiveness and sent the Yanks on a desperate quest for another relief star.

"I don't like it one little bit," he recalled, "I slipped as I delivered the ball, my legs spread out awkwardly and I felt a muscle pull in my hip."

"I took treatments all winter and recently pitched five innings of an exhibition game without feeling a twinge. I expect to start throwing hard within another day or two."

Two years ago Page appeared in 60 games, won 13 and saved innumerable others. Last season he worked only 55 innings and won only three decisions.
