Passenger Train Cutback By CPR Is Ordered Halted

By BEN WARD

OTTAWA (CP) — The CPR's plans to curtail a variety o. regional passenger train services across the country have been frozen abruptly by the Board of Transport Commissioners.

The board revealed that it has ordered the privately-owned railway to defer the reduced frequency of 26 trains — six in Nova Scotia, 16 in Quebec and Ontario and four in Alberta.

Public hearings will be held in all cases to hear opposition to the curtailment plans. Dates will be announced later.

The board's directive was contained in telegrams sent to the railway's Montreal headquarters following a series of closed-door hearings in Ottawa Tuesday.

Under law, a public hearing is automatically required if a railway seeks to abandon completely its service on a specific line.

Cutbacks in service, however, can be made without hearings, unless the board steps in and orders them.

MPs PROTEST

This time the board reacted to protests from Members of Parliament and most of the municipalities involved.

After the hearings the board will decide whether to allow the reductions The railway's profit-or-loss situation is usually the major factor in such decisions.

In most of the 26 cases under review the CPR intended to cut out daily runs and provide service one, two or three times a week.

The trains involved are:

Nova Scotia—trains 16 between Yarmouth and Halifax; 17 and 20 between Kentville and Halifax, and 13, 14 and 15 between Kentville and Yarmouth. All are on the Dominion Atlantic Railway, owned by the CPR Quebec and Ontario—trains 31 and 32 between Montreal and Farnham, Que., as part of the through service to Boston; 132, 133, 137 and 138 between Montreal and Ottawa along the Quebec shore; 10 local runs linking Peterborough, Havelock and Toronto.

Alberta—trains 309 and 310 between Calgary and Lethbridge; 307 and 308 between Medicine Hat and Lethbridge.

CUDDY — In fond and loving memory of a dear mother and grandmother, Mrs. Clarence Cuddy, who passed away five years ago today, October 24, 1959.
It was in the month of October
That we stood by an open grave
And we watched them lower our loved one
We would have given our lives to save.
But we knew we could not waken
That silent soul in clay
So we laid down our hearts beside her.
And sadly walked away.
As angels keep their watch up there
That we down here do not forget.
We loved and miss her so.
Dearly loved and sadly missed by Harold, Christy, Ewen, Sally, Waldo and Stephen.

Student Given Three-Year Term

MONTREAL (CP) — Georges Laporte, 21, a university student who told a judge last week he wanted to blow up "every symbol of colonialism" in Quebec, was sentenced to three years in prison here for illegal possession of dynamite.

"You are free to express your ideas," Judge Armand Cloutier told him. "But when you do express these ideas, it doesn't mean you are free of the consequences of your statements."

Laporte pleaded guilty last week to possession of 135 sticks of dynamite. At that time he told the judge he was against "all federal symbols," such as monuments, particularly those in Quebec City.

He is at present serving a three-year term for attempted robbery of a St. Hyacinthe, Que., bank and for public mischief. The sentence was imposed last May.

When your family is young ...

their security is completely in your hands. Here are two Confederation Life Plans that provide the help every young father needs:

Confederation Life's Whole Life Plan

This plan protects your family at very low cost—provides the amount of money you choose as a lump sum or monthly income, or both. It builds substantial cash values and earns profitable dividends. For instance, a $10,000 Whole Life Policy begun at age 25 will have a cash value at age 65 of $5,640. Dividends, while not guaranteed, would provide an additional $7,230 if left to accumulate at current scales. Together, a $12,870 return on an investment of about $6,100! A tidy profit—over and above the security it gives your family!

The Family Protection Benefit

This is an economical means of providing extra income for your family. You add it to a permanent insurance plan, usually for as long as your children are dependent on you. Your family receives $100, $200 or more per month during the period of protection you select, followed by the face amount of the policy. The premiums are low. At age 25 for example, you can give your family the protection of an extra $100 per month for 20 years for as little as $20.80 per year. They get maximum protection at the lowest possible cost.

Talk to your Confederation Life man. He's trained to give you sound advice. He can show you how Confederation Life's insurance plans can provide money at any critical time of life. Phone him today. You'll find that a talk with your Confederation Life man is a step in the right direction.
