Pistol Championships Open Friday; Titlist In Fine Form

By ROY LaBERGE
Canadian Press Correspondent

CONNAUGHT RANGES, Ont. (CP)—Garry McMahon of Dartmouth, N.S., 26-year-old defending titleholder, was in top form as the national pistol championships opened Friday.

But United States masters dominated opening matches of the national small-bore rifle championships at these ranges near Ottawa.

As three days' shooting with pistols, sporting rifles and small-bore rifles opened, the Ontario Rifle Association's three-day .303-calibre service rifle meet ended.

George Bulgin, 32, of Toronto, in his second year of competitive shooting, won the lieutenant-governor's match, main event of the Ontario shoot.

McMahon, who last year ended American domination of pistol events, fired 266 points of a possible 300 in the metric slow-fire match.

Canadians also held the second and third places. Runnerup was Ed B. Wilson of Ottawa with 261. RCMP Cpl. James R. Zabitz of Nanaimo, B.C., a former Ottawa resident, was third with 255.

SIX WERE PERFECT

Six shots posted perfect 400 scores in the opening small-bore rifles any - sights match at 50 yards.

Promotion, Riddle Spreads To Paris

GOTEBORG, Sweden (AP)—The baffling heavyweight championship promotional riddle, already with more angles than a goemetry book, spread out to still another city Friday, and posed still another question.

The new question was: "Who met whom, and why?"

Ingemar Johansson, the champion; Bill Rosensohn, promoter of the June title fight between Johansson and Floyd Patterson; Truman Gibson, president of National Boxing Enterprises, Inc., and Jack Solomons, London promoter, all appeared in Paris simultaneousluy.

Returning here Johansson denied either he or his advisor, Edwin Ahlquisut, had met Solomons.

Solomons, returning to London, said he not only had met the Swedish fighter and Ahlquist, but had dined with them for three hours Thursday night.

Johansson and Ahlquist flatly denied comment when asked if they had met with Gibson, who said he was in Paris to visit his daughter.

More Horses Arrive For Old Home Week

The Charlottetown driving Park is the scene of helter-skelter activity these days as more and more horses arrive here to compete iin the many racing programs which will be staged during the annual Old Home Week festivities.

Latest to arrive in town was the George Turner stable, headed by Josedale Clansman which got here Friday afternoon.

The "Wib" Jardine stable, headed by the great favorite, Abbeland, arrived here today. Mr. Jardine has a string of eight horses.

David Pinkney's string, numbering six, including Rainbow Clegg, will arrive this a.m.

James Ferguson, race secretary and manager of the Sydney Raceway will arrive Sunday. Mr. Ferguson will alternate presiding judge chores with Clifford Rankin, the presiding judge at the local track.

SPORTS FRONT

(While Sports Editor Pius Callaghan is on vacation, this column is being written by staff writer Gus Flynn.)

MIGHTY LEE, the fastest race horse in the Maritime Provinces, apparently has run out of opposition.

Next week he will be running all alone in a pair of exhibition miles aimed at lowering the present pacing mark at the Charlottetown Driving Park, according to Race Secretary Frank 'Duck' Acorn.

The roan gelding, owned by Willard MacDonald of Summerside and Rankine MacLaine of Charlottetown hasn't lost a race at the CDP this season and there are those who are betting that on Tuesday the clock won't beat him either.

Mighty Lee, of course, is the owner of the record. He broke the old mark of 2:05 owned by Newport Chief while Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth and His Royal Higness Prince Philip looked on last Thursday. After the Royal couple left the track after seeing two dashes Mighty Lee came back again to scorch the oval in 2:03.4, to set the record he is shooting to break Tuesday.

THE QUESTION IS can he do it? There are those who believe he can pointing out that this little fellow hasn't come anywhere near reaching his peak as yet. With the highly capable George Callbeck at the reins, and a nice hot afternoon, they say, he could go in 2:03 - maybe even faster.

On the debit side of the ledger there is the fact that he has no opposition, therefore no pacesetters and no one to push him on to a record. Is he a horseflesh version of Johnny Landy who admittedly only races to win rather than set records? Or is he a horse of a different color who goes all out whether or not there is anyone to chase him to the wire?

There are those who will point out that very few horses have chased him to the wire this year. Nearly all of his dashes - at the CDP at least - have been won rather handily with little or no opposition. So, they say, it won't make a particle of difference whether or not there are others in the race.

THIS GELDING HAS racked up an impressive record over Maritime tracks this season. In fact "impressive" could be regarded as something of an understatement. To date he has started 14 times and on 11 of those offasions he has led the field to the wire. His only setbacks occurred at Fredericton and Moncton. At the track in the New Brunswick capital city he finished second to Hal's Man and Hal's Mae, two horses who have since been competing in the U.S. and at the Hub City he won one dash of the Monctonian and was third in a photo finish in the second dash.

Tuesday's race against the clock will likely mark the last appearance of Mighty Lee on a Maritime track. His owners Messrs. MacLaine and MacDonald will in all probability take him to Montreal to compete at Blue Bonnets for the rest of the season.

There is no doubt that a big Old Home Week crowd will be on hand to bid the roan gelding farewell on Tuesday.

THIS WILL BE A busy weekend around here on the sport scene. This afternoon a full slate of games is on top in the City Softball League semi-finals. This morning play will begin in the final 18 holes of the men's and ladies' amateur golf championships at Summerside and Charlottetown and tonight a solid racing card is going at the driving park. On Sunday, of course, there will be action in the Kings County Baseball League.

It will be a full day for the softballers. In addition to playing two scheduled playoff games the teams will have to complete two contest that were curtailed by darkness Wednesday and Thursday night.

The games are scheduled to start at 1 p.m. At the time of writing we were unsure of which teams would be playing first but during the afternoon's activities the Lions and Juniors will be attempting to finish a game in which Barry's boys were leading 13-4 when it was called off Wednesday night. Then they play the third game of the series. Should the Lions hold their lead - and they certainly should - the series will be tied up at 1-1.

In the other contests the Rollaway Aces and BIS Shamrocks will finish their abbreviated game from Thursday evening. The Aces lead this one and with only two innings to go will be choices to hold on to their 6-1 lead. The victory would give the Aces a 2-0 lead in the playoffs and would make the third game an absolute "must" win for the Irish, or else Ev Beagan's Shamrocks will be on the edge of elimination from the semi-finals which are best-of-seven affairs.

WHILE ALL THIS is going on Don MacDonald and Gail Mustard will be out to annex the Island's amateur golf crowns. MacDonald's way to the championship will be a little easier than that of Miss Mustard because Don goes into today's final 18 holes with a commanding seven-stroke lead over Art MacKenzie and Bill (Pud) Beer, while Miss Mustard has but two strokes on Mrs. R A. Horne of Cavendish and Blanche Hogg of Summerside. Miss Hogg will be right at home on her own course and will be shooting to bring the title to the western capital.

Another championship will be old stuff for the veteran MacDonald who is a former Island champion and also has won the N.B.-P.E.I. amateur crown. But the city girl is looking for her first major title Last year and this year she won the Belvedere club championship.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND TOURIST ASSOCIATION

DOWN THE BACK STRETCH

Next week will be the 21st renewal of Old Home Week, which had its origin in 1939. It is a week which is looked forward to, not only by Islanders, but by all Maritimers, and this year it will have six nights and five afternoons of harnes racing, with more than 200 horses from all parts of the Maritimes meeting for one of the largest distributions of money ever offered by a Maritime track.

And, of course, there will be the usual big livestock show, the vaudeville program from the leading agencies in the United States, and the Bill Lynch midway with its rides and entertainments that will round off a week that cannot be excelled for entertainment, livestock displays, and harnes racing in the Dominion of Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Ash, 56 Warberry St., St. John's, Newfoundland, have arrived at Charlottetown and plan to see the big show next week. Mr. Ash is a harness horse lover—who is endeavouring to have a track built at St. John's that will provide regular racing programs.

One of the few women professional harness racing drivers in the United States is Miss Carol Hukil, of Indiana, and she has arrived at Freehold Raceway in New Jersey with her stable. That track is over a hundred of years old, but it has been completely modernized, of course, by manager Mushky Jackson, and has facilities to ahandle about eight to nine thousand race fans. Its proximity to New York City, where money is so plentiful, brings in a big sum at the parimutuel, with betting averaging $241,000 while the attendance averages only 4,000 fans per night.

And here is the latest from Sackville Downs, for Wednesday night's races: Races 1 and 4 — Pixie Abbe (S. Daniels) 1-1, Lady Aubrey (J. Chappell) 2-4, Mighty Again (D. Ratchford) 4-3, four other starters, time 2.14 1-5 and 2.14 4-5; Pixie Abbe owned by F. Daniels, Truro. Races 2 and 6 — Miss Wilma Dale (J. MacGregor) 1-1, Angus L. (D. Ratchford) 2-2, First Again (J. Chappell) 3-5, Just Rita (D. Wallsh) 6-3, four other starters, time 2.12 3-5 and 2.12 3-5; Miss Wilma Dale owned by W.G. Barbour, Charlottetown.

Races 3 and 7 — Abbasong (L. Walker) 1-3, Knight Norris (Ray O'Brien) 5-1, Scotch Feather (G. Mauger) 2-4, four other starters, time 2.12 and 2.11 2-5; Abbasong owned by the L. and G. Stables, Halifax, and Knight Norris by Vincent Turner, Windsor, N.S. Knight Norris, a five-year-old, ended last season with a mark of 2.18, so he had made big improvement in Ray O'Brien's hands.

Race 5 — Cecil Heromine (J. Balloch) 1, Watch Top (G. Mauger) 2, Jollity's Jet (G. Turner) 3, four other starters, time 2.16; winner owned by Charles Elliot, Aylesford, N.S. Race 8 — Jollity George (H. Walsh) 1, Miss Reo (Ray O'Brien) 2, Little Johnny (B. Jones) 3, five other starters, time 2.19 2-5; winner owned by Fulton Moreside, Lower Sackville, N.S.

A horseman friend has handed us a copy of the New York Times with a writeup of the $113,812 Hilltop Trot, which was witnessed by 24,736 fans at Yonkers Raceway last week. It reads: "The winner, driven expertly by Joe O'Brien, took the lead at the three-quarter mark and finished a length and a half ahead of Willowood. Third under the wire, in the richest single event for two-year-old trotters, was Newport Mercury, three and a quarter lengths back.

The victory for Blaze Hanover, who trotted the mile in 2.08 1-5, was worth $62,596 to his owner, the S.A. Camp Farms of Shafter, Cal. This brought the two-them in a bag. The Department 594. The win was the fifth straight for Blaze.

Jamin, that won the $50,000 International Trot at Roosevelt Raceway last Saturday night, is having pages written about him. One of his favorite dishes in artichokes, and when he arrived in the U.S.A. at Idlewild Airport, his trainer had brought 100 pounds of them in a bag. he Department of of Agriculture confiscated this as contraband, and as the days went by, Jamin, deprived of his artichokes, became more and more dejected. Then, just when it appeared he might refuse to trot at all, the California Artichoke Growers' Association came through with a supply of choice specimens shipped in by air.

Jamin's owner is a very beautiful woman, Mme. Leon Olry-Roederer, whose firm produces some of the world's finest champagne. She never sees Jamin race—she's afraid that she will jinx him if she watches. His 28-year-old driver, Jean Riaud, who is also the trainer, is so handsome he has been offered a screen test since coming to New York. As a 10-year-old he hid in the forest for three days with Jamin's grand-sire when the Nazis were combing France for champion horses to send to Germany.

At Yonkers Raceway last week, Joe O'Brien was second in a two-year-old Trot with Soring Frost, sired by Scott Frost 1.58. he purse for the event was $35,325.

Scott Frost may possibly become, if given the opportunity, as preat a progenitor of speed as his sire. Hoot Mon—the world's greatest sire of trotting speed.

Also at Yoners Raceway last week Joe was second in a $25,000 Pace with Meadow Al. The race was won by Adios Butler, driven by Clint Hodgins, time 2.02 1-5. Meadow Al is a three-year-old. On the same night, Joe won the eighth race, purse $5,500, with Raider Frost, time 2.03 4-5.

When the news reaches Montreal that the six-year-old Mighty Lee, that last season retired with a record of 2.04 1-5, and total money winnings of $10,899, has, within five days, won all four dashes in which she was entered at Charlottetown track in 2.04 3-5, 2.02 4-5, 2.04 1-4 and 2.07 2-5—an average time of 2.05 1-5 for the four races—knowing horsemen there will certainly award a great deal of credit to George A. Callbeck, who took over the management of this pacer when he was brought here by owners Willard MacDonald and Rankine MacLaine. Two of his performances bettered the track record of 2.05, made by Newport Chief at the Old Home Week races in August, 1956, driven by Buddy Cruikshank and owned by B.C. Cruikshank of Halifax.

Should the owners consider sending their pacer to Blue Bonnets Raceway, which has had a million-dollar facelifting job they can figure on the possibility of Mighty Lee knocking two or three seconds of his present mark, and possibly having a crack at the holder of the Richelieu track record, Mighty Dudley 1.59 3-5.

They are now settling up the estate of Colonel Edward J. Baker, who was one of the great figures in harness racing, and owner of the world's champion trotter, Greyhound 1.55 1-4.

Open Champion Cards 73 To Give Ontario Big Lead

By JACK SULLIVAN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

TORONTO (CP) — Marlene Stewart Streit, long - ball hitter from Toronto who has cleaned up everything worthwhile in Canadian women's golf, shot a three-under-par 73 Friday to give Ontario a commanding lead at the halfway mark of the 36-hole interprovincial team matches.

The 24-year-old veteran, five times Canadian women's open champion, was the only golfer to bust regulation figures as women golfers from the Maritimes to British Columbia sprayed the 6,025-yard St. George's course. The four-member team from Ontario ended the day with a total of 317, 15 stroked ahead of runner-up Alberta with 332.

Quebec edged out Manitoba for third spot with 344 as the Westerners needed 345. British Columbia was fifth with 347, followed by Saskatchewan (350), New Brunswick (380) and Nova Scotia (395).

The final 18 holes will be played today and on Monday the week-long Canadian women's open match play championships start with Mrs. Streit the defending champion.

THE WEST LED

There was plenty of activity Friday. Seven two-member junior interprovincial teams followed seniors and after 18 holes of play based on net scores. Western provinces filled the first three spots.

The Vancouver twosome of Gayle Hitchens, with a net 76, and Jo-Ann Percy with an 83, posted a 159 total, one stroke up on Manitoba, represented by Heather Lawrence and Lynne McDonald, both of Winnipeg. Miss Lawrence, with a nine handicap, shot a 72, and Miss McDonald, with a seven handicap, an 88.

Alberta was third with 162, followed by Ontario with 163, New Brunswick with 174, Quebec with 168 and Saskatchewan 171.

For New Brunswick, Caro. Lewis of Moncton shot an 80 and Suzanne Hilton of Goderich, had a 79.

For Quebec, Mary Darling of Montreal scored 79 and Lynne Chaplin, also of Montreal, 89.

Gross scores of the junior interprovincial counted in the under-20-age group championship for the Canadian title and Toronto's Gail Harvey, defending champion, led the field with a 77, with nines of 38-39.

The seniors—and Mrs. Streit—stole the show.

Marlene, only Canadian woman to win the American and British Amateurs, shot five birdies in her big round and went over regulation figures on two par-three—the 135-yard third and the 165-yard 16th.

The well-trapped greens resulted in fantastically high scores, ranging from Mrs. Streit's subpar round to a whopping 114 registered by Dorothy Lohnes of Lunenburg, N.S.

Gaspar Ortega Defeats Paret

NEW YORK (AP)—Fifth-ranking welterweight challenger Gaspar Ortega of Mexicalo, Mexico, won a split decision over Benny Paret of Santa Clara, Cuba, in a bruising 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden Friday night.

Paret weighed 148, Ortega 148½.
