Mrs. H.K.S. Hemming Speaks At Kensington WA Meeting

Charlottetown was guest speaker at a meeting held in St. Mark's Hall, Kensington, when the women of New London Parish were guests of St. Mark's Senior WA, and Evening WA.

Mrs. Hemming brought the highlights of the Anglican Congress, which she attended in August, to the attention of her hearers with a vividness which stirred the imagination. She said the keynote of the Congress was a resolution of the Anglican Conference which opened the meetings with a declaration that all deliberations must be to the glory of God.

She told of strong language addressed to the delegates by various speakers in other countries. Mrs. Hemming said it had been found that the whole Anglican Communion must share it as a man power, its culture and its funds, and a suggestion had been made that all resources be pooled and all funds administered by a central committee.

The opening worship was led by Miss Margaret Forsyth and Mrs. E. F. Kerr will be devotional leader for the next meeting.

The offering was received by Mrs. Elmer Burt and Mrs. Clarence Masse.

Mrs. Hemming and the others were thanked by Mrs. F. Proffitt. Refreshments were served by members of St. Mark's Senior and Evening groups.
