

Busy Program Faces Bonhomme Carnival

When Bonhomme Carnival, the spirit of the Quebec Winter Carnival, arrives in Charlotte this evening, he will immediately embark on a program which will permit him little rest until his departure on Thursday morning.

Arriving at the Charlottetown airport at 6:45 p.m., Bonhomme Carnival will ride in an open convertible to Charlotte's and following a television appearance will go to the Charlottetown Hotel where he will drop in on a meeting of the P.E.I. Canadian Club.

FORUM AND PWC
From there he will go to the Forum led by a police escort where he will put in an appearance at the Prince Street School Sports. Following this he goes to PWC to appear at a basketball game and bring greetings from Quebec to the PWC students.

Later, he will attend a reception at Montgomery Hall.

Thursday morning the city will ring with sleigh bells as the Quebec visitor rides through the streets in a parade of sleighs. He will make courtesy calls on Lieutenant-Governor

UP DRIVE CONTINUES
Originally scheduled to close on Oct. 31, 1963, due to returns and donations coming in slowly, the time limit for the P.E.I. United Fund campaign will continue until the $233,000 objective has been reached. As of yesterday the fund stood at 70 per cent of its objective with a total of $177,128.

FEW LOAN TAKERS
Provincial government circles yesterday disclosed that although no definite information is available, Island communities do not appear to be showing much interest in the federal Municipal Loan Fund. It is believed that this feeling stems from the desire of various communities to avoid any conflict with borrowings under the winter works program. A number of places are thought to be considering using the new fund, but to date only two communities are believed to have submitted applications.

Police Report Two Collisions

Two minor accidents were reported to city police during Monday's commuting damage to four cars.

Home Unit in Society, Topic Of Discussion At Montague

MONTAGUE — A rousing discussion highlighted the January meeting of the Montague Home and School Association Monday evening. The topic was "The home unit in our present society as compared with 20 years ago".

Members of the panel were Mrs. William Reddin, Mrs. Becher Hickox, Robert Ferguson and Albert Fogarty, with Jerry Pinesau as moderator.

What can be done in the home to stave off undesirable influences? Is the school given too much responsibility for developing the child? What about the social graces? These and many other pertinent questions were expensively discussed with the audience taking part in the final analysis.

lock book will be held in the gym. Tickets for the complete carnival will be on sale shortly. Also individual tickets for each of the events will be on sale at a slightly higher price for those who government support of the arts don't expect to attend every activity.

ANTI-SMOKING DRIVE PUSHED

TORONTO (CP) — A druggist in suburban North York has launched a campaign to make people give up smoking.

Frank Bergson, 25, a non-smoker, has posted anti-smoking signs in his store. One demands proof of age from teenagers seeking to buy cigarettes. It stressed the law forbidding their sale to those under 16.

A billboard bears newspaper clippings dealing with the tobacco-cancer link.

Across the front of the pharmacy counter is a sign announcing formation of a quitters club.

Mr. Bergson plans to display photos of club members in a showcase. Those who give up trying will be switched to a special case for followers.

His store is well stocked with cigarettes and tobacco.

But Mr. Bergson says he doesn't worry about losing business.
