IN THE COURT OF INSOLVENT DEBTORS.

32nd Victoria, A. D. 1868.

HIS Honor Judge Young, Commissioner of the said Court, has been pleased to make the following Rules and Orders therein:—

1st. That, for the present, all matters relating to the office of Judge, or Commissioner of the said Court, and of the Clerk thereof, shall be transacted at the Chambers of his Honor in the Colonial Building, at Charlottetown, unless otherwise ordered by him.

2nd. That the Attorneys and Barristers of the Supreme Court of Judicature, now on the Roll thereof, shall be deemed to be the Attorneys and Barristers of this Honorable Court; no other person shall practice therein without special permission from the Judge.

3rd. That any Attorney or Barrister hereafter admitted in the said Supreme Court, shall not necessarily be an Attorney or Barrister of this Court, unless he shall be admitted thereto, by Petition or Motion.

4th. That the Costs of all proceedings in this Court, not specified in the Schedule of "The Unfortunate Debtors' Act, 1868," and of Attorneys and Barristers therein, shall be taxed on the same scale, as costs for similar services would be allowed in the said Supreme Court, and be recovered in the same way by attachment; and that all Bills and costs shall be made out in currency.

5th. That it shall be in the discretion of His Honor, upon any proceedings held before him, whether or not to allow costs to be chargeable against the estate of an Insolvent Debtor, or how otherwise.

6th. That upon the meetings of Creditors of Insolvent Debtors to be held before His Honor, under the said Act, the proceedings shall be conducted under the same rules of evidence and practice as prevail at the Trials of civil causes in the said Supreme Court.

The foregoing Rules are published by order,

F. W. HUGHES, Clerk I. D. Court.
