Prisoners Released

BUCHAREST (AP) — Romania announced Sunday it has been releasing thousands of political prisoners and plans a general pardon in August that will let "practically all" internees out of jail by the end of the year. AIM OF CRUSADE

The text of Billy Graham's message is based on the passage from the Bible in which Christ told Nicodemus "Ye must be born again." To this end he travels with his Crusade for most parts of the world, hoping to get Christians to re-affirm their Christian faith as well as to accept Christ as their personal Saviour, and not just anyone universities in the United States. He said that he found "The world has become in the generation, a neighborhood but not a brotherhood," said Dr. Graham, referring to racial problems and the threat of war in this modern world, where "the purpose of life is through God. The population is going to double in the next 36 years."

In asking people to accept the concept of God, he said, "the service which has become cannot prove his existence... I must say 'yes' by faith... there is a God."

When the sermon had finished Dr. Graham came to the part of the concept of God, he said, "the service which has become cannot prove his existence... I must say 'yes' by faith... there is a God."

people to feed the hungry and unique," said Dr. Graham. "Jesus always called his disciples publicly and never privately. This makes it very difficult," he said, "to be an evangelist, and thus more 'significant'."

In response to Billy Graham's invitation to come forward and make their "witness," about 4,000 people walked down to a cleared space in front of the speaker's platform.
