MR. AND MRS. GARY LEA GIBSON

Young Couple Pledge Vows In Ceremony At Trinity United

Spring flowers and pussy willows decorated the chancel for the marriage at Trinity United Church, Charlottetown, of Carol Elizabeth Frances Thompson, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley C. Thompson, and Gary Lea Gibson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Gibson of Moncton, N.B.

The solemn vows were spoken before the Rev. R.S. Latimer at two o'clock in the afternoon of Saturday, April 14, 1962. Royston Mugford was in charge of the wedding music and accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Leith Thompson, sister-in-law of the bride who sang "O Perfect Love" before the ceremony, and "The Wedding Prayer", during the signing of the register.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage. Her portrait gown of nylon sheer with lace appliques featured a sabrina neckline with net inserts, fitted bodice with long torso point at back, and long sleeves tapering to lily points over the hands. The flowing skirt was floor length. Her shoulder length veil of nylon tulle fell gracefully from a coronet of flowerettes and pearls, and she carried a cascade bouquet of red sweetheart roses.

Miss Barbara Worth, maid of honor, was gowned in geranium pink pois de sole featuring a full skirt and fitted bodice with scoop neckline, three quarter length sleeves, and a cummerbund finished with a bow at the back. A matching headdress with tiny veil and a nosegay of white and geranium pink carnations completed her ensemble.

Junior bridesmaids were Linda Gibson, sister of the groom, and Susan Saint, who wore matching dresses of blue peau de sole. They were designed in similar fashion to that of the maid of honor with short sleeves and matching headdress, and they carried nosegays of white and pale pink carnations.

David Gibson was best man for his brother, and Dr. Leith Thompson, brother of the bride, and John Cameron, friend of the groom, ushered the guests to the pews marked with lily-of-the valley tied with white ribbon.

A reception for ninety guests was held in Trinity Social Hall.

The bride's table was centered with a three tier wedding cake beautifully decorated, and topped with a miniature bride and groom. Also gracing the table were lighted tapers in crystal and sterling silver candlebra, and baskets of spring flowers. The guests were seated at tables for four centered with daffodils. Mrs. C.C. Baker and Mrs. Ellis Profitt, aunts of the bride, poured and Mrs. Sheldon Duncan replenished.

Serving were Sheila Casley, Paula Doucett, Mrs. Keith Sudsbury, Diane Mayhew, Mrs. Charles Lank, Mrs. Stirling Giddings and Frances MacPherson.

The toast to the bride was proposed by the Rev. Mr. Latimer, who also read the telegrams. The groom responded, and proposed a toast to the bride's attendants.

Mrs. Thompson chose for her daughter's wedding a gown of pale blue organza over taffeta in tones of blue, fashioned in sheath style with matching jacket. With it she wore a blue cloche hat and a corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. Gibson, mother of the groom, wore a lilac gown with a nylon petal hat in deeper tones of the same shade, and a corsage of white carnations.

The bride's going away costume was a three piece double knit cotton ensemble, in blue with matching hat of cascade petals, black accessories, and a Persian lamb jacket with sapphire mink collar on which she wore a corsage of white carnations.

The bride is a graduate of Prince of Wales College and Mount Allison University, and has been engaged in social work at Riverside Hospital. The groom is a graduate of engineering at University of New Brunswick, and is employed as a civil engineer with the Department of Public Works at Ottawa, where they will live.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Gibson and family; Mr. Thomas Carroll, grandfather of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. John Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. James Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Doucett, Miss Paula Doucett, Mrs. Kenneth Carroll, Miss Jacqueline Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Fisher, Mr. Walter Bodzien. Mrs. Murray Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. C.R. Carroll, all of Moncton; Mr. W.C. Thompson, Calgary, brother of the bride, Mrs C.P. Thompson, Toronto, Mrs. Evelyn MacLure, Montague.

Telegrams were received from friends and relatives in Calgary, Ottawa, New Glasgow, N.S., Toronto, Charlottetown and Kamloops, B.C.

ELLEN'S DIARY

First Requisite Of Girls' Training Was Housekeeping

"Now which would you rather have at your plate - a Kitchener spoon or a Roberts?" Alex will stop to ask when he helps set the table.

"A Roberts!" . . . "Bobs" was such a gallant little man.

"I guess Gran'daddy will like one of the same," he will nod.

"I'll take a Kitchener myself."

"But how do you tell them apart?" we ask him.

"The name of one begins with an 'R' the other with a 'K'. And besides," he has grinned over this, "the ends of Roberts' moustache turn down. Kitchener's is across his cheeks, have you noticed?"

Peter skimmed the remnants of sweet from the bowl so thoroughly, that it could be said of it, there was no morsel of the precious mixture wasted.

"When I look back through my years," a gray-haired woman related to us the other summer, "I can thank my Scottish mother for instilling in me the practice of thrift. And she did it easily, and I would say perhaps unwittingly on her part. She had taught me, while still only a child to help and cook, because no matter the extent of a girl's education then, the first requisite was naturally to know how to keep house. And if you could spin and sew and knit besides . . and drive a horse, and milk a cow," she added with a chuckle, "that was all to the good!"

And I remember," she continued, "how well I do recall it! this morning I had mixed a cake-a sponge cake they called it then, and put it in the oven . . . An old high oven it was, with a door at either end." She made a comical motion of unlatching one and peering within." And Mother came by, and picking up the bowl, took the spoon, and gathered all the little scraps remaining there together."

"Now," she asked quietly, "what were you intending to do with this?" That lesson sank deeply into my mind. And no matter how little, or how much I've had of this world's goods to do with, I've never been a wasteful creature since."

And with "The Closing" exercises over this morning, a white dress worn happily, a single

NEW DEMOCRATS SPEAK

INCOMES

Before Tommy Douglas came to power in 1944, a drop in farm income would have disastrous effects on total income in the province. Agriculture employed over 90 per cent of the population and, consequently, any serious drop in farm income would penetrate throughout the entire provincial economy.

Today this is no longer the case. A very sudden reduction in farm income, such as happened last year due to drought, can still cause total income to decline but not by nearly so much as in the years before 1944.

Diversification of industry has cushioned the effects that fluctuations in the national and international agricultural markets can have on incomes in the province. Developments in manufacturing, mining, construction, electric power, etc., have provided alternative sources of employment and income.

This point is illustrated if we compare the growth of per capita income in Saskatchewan with its growth in Canada as a whole. In Canada as a whole, per capita income (in current dollars) increased by 85 per cent between 1946 and 1960. Over the same period, the increase in per capita income in Sask. was 101 per cent. In other words, in spite of the fact that agriculture injects certain instabilities into the Saskatchewan economy, the Douglas government's program of economic diversification has enabled per capita income in Saskatchewan to grow at a faster rate than per capita income in Canada as a whole.

Compare this with the Maritimes where we are still struggling under a hit and miss system without any planning or co-ordination except what A. P. E. C. is now doing and this is being ignored in official Government circles.

What is our solution? Douglas' plan for Maritime Economic Development which we ask you to consider seriously.
