Dundas

The fall plowing is rapidly coming to a close in this vicinity and potato digging is about over for another year. Thousands of bushels are in sheds awaiting grading operations. Speaking of spuds a few of our local top potato men visited stores here with specimens weighing 2 lbs 6 ozs. There appears to be a considerable amount of the "Jumbo" type this fall.

The many friends of Mr. Wallace Taylor of Strathcona are sorry to hear of his recent illness at the P. E. I. Hospital, Charlottetown. All hope for a speedy recovery.

An epidemic of whooping cough and influenza has been sweeping the country and many children of the surrounding schools have missed a lot of school days.

Miss Ada McDonald, student of Union Commercial College, Charlottetown, spent the week-end at her home in Dundas.

Mr. Neil McInnis of Sydney, who has been spending some time with his wife's relatives here, returned home on Monday.

Miss Jean Campbell, Grade IX pupil of Bridgetown School, underwent an appendectomy at Souris East Hospital on Tuesday, Oct. 19th and is making rapid recovery.

The many friends of Mr. Joseph G. Campbell, of Poplar Point, who underwent an operation in Sancta Maria Hospital, Cambridge, Mass., are pleased to hear he is making good recovery at his home here.

Congratulations to Mr. Paul Kingsbury, Jr., on the winning of two scholarships at Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Me., recently.

Mrs. Rupert Garrett and son Rhodes of Souris, were visitors to the home of Mrs. Garrett's sister, Mrs. Brian Clay, Dundas on Tuesday.

Mrs. Jane Turner of Lipton was taken ill on Friday noon, but is now almost fully recovered.

Gdsm. Merlin Campbell, who has been spending his annual leave at his home in Dundas, returned by plane to Valcartier Camp on the 22nd.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Downe of St. Peter's, were Sunday visitors to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Acorn, Dundas.

Miss Betty MacDonald accompanied by her grandmother were recent visitors to Charlottetown.

The many friends of Mrs. John A. McLeod of Primrose, who had the misfortune to fall and break her hip, are glad to know she is recovering, after an operation in the P. E. I. Hospital, Charlottetown.

Mr. Henry McDonald, Dairy Supt., Charlottetown, spent Friday at the Dundas Cheese Factory. This is one of the oldest factories on the Island. Mr. McDonald made cheese here when quite a young man. It is now being run successfully by Mr. Maurice Burhoe of Strathcona.

Mr. Everett McLeod who has spent the summer in Fort Erie, Ontario, has arrived at his home in Strathcona.

Miss Mary E. Campbell, Charlottetown, spent the week-end with her parents in Dundas.

Mr. L. S. Hunter, genial manager of Matthew and McLean Store, Bridgetown, has been confined to his home through illness for the past week. All hope to see him about again fully restored to health.

The exterior of a fine, new, modern residence, belonging to Mr. Farquhar Campbell, has just been completed and much credit is due Mr. Campbell and his first class carpenter, Mr. Wallace McKenzie in erecting this commodious home in record time. We understand the interior is to be finished shortly.

The many friends of Mrs. Philip Acorn of Primrose, are sorry to hear that ill health has necessitated her removal to P. E. I. Hospital, Charlottetown. We all hope to have her back fully recovered soon.

Three daughters of Mr. Truelove Taylor, Upton, ranging in ages from 16 to 10 have had appendectomy at Montague Hospital within the last month. All recovered successfully. —GG.

Bridgetown

Bridgetown School, which has been closed for Fall vacation is now open. Miss Virginia Matheson is the efficient teacher.

Georgetown

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Underhay and daughter, Susan of Bay Fortune, were guests on Sunday, Oct. 31st of the Misses Jennie Lee and Margaret Richards.

On October 30th a large number of teen-age boys and girls gathered at the home of Miss Carol Walker for a farewell party in honor of Allan MacPhee, who left on Nov. 1st, for Airdrie, Alberta where he will spend the winter. Many of those in attendance wore costumes, which added to the fun of the evening. Music and games were enjoyed and a lunch served.

On October 30th the Georgetown Boy Scouts held their annual apple day, under the supervision of Scoutmaster, D. A. MacCormack. The Scouts were well patronized as they called at homes and places of business, and the sum of $36.15 was realized.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Simmonds of Charlottetown, were recent guests for a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Hansen.

The many friends of Mrs. Frank MacLean are sorry to hear of his present illness, which is confining him to his home and all wish him a speedy recovery.

Mr. Amos Lavandier of Hawthorne, N. Y., and Mr. Frank Waslow of Yonkers, N.Y., left recently by car on return to the U. S. A., after spending two weeks as the guests of Mr. Lavendier's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Lavandier.
