

She Only Said Good-Bye.

Good-bye, if it please you, sir—good-bye. This is a world where the wild swans fly. This is a world where the thorn hangs on. When the horse its time is gone, is gone. Good-bye—good-bye—good-bye.

Good-bye, if it please you, sir—good-bye. You are here and away—I care not why. This is a world where a man has his will. A world where a woman had best be still. Good-bye—good-bye—good-bye.

Good-bye, if it please you, sir—good-bye. This is a world where—we see the sky: After a while the stars will fall. And the end will make an end of it all! Good-bye—good-bye—good-bye.

Household Hints.

To Fry Chickens.—Cut up the chickens and season them with salt and cayenne pepper roll them in flour, and fry them in hot lard; when the whole are fried, pour off the lard, and put in 1/2 lb butter one teaspoonful cream, a little flour, and some scalded parsley chopped fine for the sauce.

JOHNNY CAKE.—One quart buttermilk one teaspoonful flour, two-thirds teaspoonful molasses, a little salt, one teaspoonful saleratus, one egg, beaten; leave it so thin that it will almost run; bake in a tin. If it is not light it will be because it is made too thick.

TOMATO CATSUP.—To one gallon of tomatoes put half a gallon of good vinegar, two tablespoonfuls red pepper, four tablespoonfuls of black pepper, a little salt, one tablespoonful powder cloves, one grated nutmeg; boil until very thick, then strain it and add half a pound of sugar; bottle and shake every morning for seven days.

BAKED PEARS.—Peel and bake ripe pears with but little water. When cold, cover the top and sides with a cake-icing flavored with vanilla, and served with cream and sugar. This makes a delicate and healthful dessert, and but little time is consumed in its preparation. Tart apples may be baked in the same way and are preferred by many.

APPLE CUSTARD PIE.—Scald the milk and let it cool; grate some sweet apples; to each cupful of apples two-thirds cupful powder sugar, four well beaten eggs, one-cupful milk, one-fourth of a nutmeg; line an earthen pie dish with a rich crust, and let it bake; then fill with the custard and let it bake for half an hour. To be eaten cold.

EGG PLANT.—Peel and cut into thin slices; soak in salt and water ten minutes; drain and steam five minutes. Make a batter of one pint of sweet milk, two beaten eggs, one-third cup of melted butter, one heaping teaspoonful of baking powder and flour, to make batter as for pancakes; dip the slice into this, and fry in butter until light brown.

GREEN TOMATO SOY.—Slice two gallons of green tomatoes and twelve or fourteen good-sized onions; two quarts vinegar, one pound sugar, two tablespoonfuls salt, two of ground mustard, two of black pepper, one tablespoonful allspice, one of cloves. Mix and stew until tender, stirring often lest they should scorch. Put up in small glass jars. This is very nice for most every kind meat and fish.

HYGIENIC CUSTARD PIE.—Two table-spoonfuls of Graham flour, one of corn starch, stirred smoothly into one half pint of milk, one tablespoonful of sugar and a little lemon juice. Stir all together, and pour into a well-buttered plate or pie tin, and bake in a quick oven. The flour will settle to the bottom and form a fine crust without shortening.

How to Tell that Eggs are Eggs.

A good egg will sink in water. A boiled egg which is done will dry quickly on the shell when taken from the kettle.

The boiled eggs which adhere to the shells are fresh laid.

After the egg is laid a day or more, the shell comes off easily when boiled.

A fresh egg has a lime-like surface to its shell.

Stale eggs are glassy and smooth of shell.

Eggs which have been packed in lime look stained and show the action of the lime on the surface.

Eggs packed in bran for a long time smell and taste musty.

With the aid of the hands or a piece of paper rolled in funnel-shape and held to the light, the human eye can look through an egg, shell and all.

If the egg is clear and golden in appearance when held to the light, it is good, if dark or spotted, it is bad.

The badness of an egg can sometimes be told by shaking it near the holder's ear.

Boschees German Syrup

can now be purchased right at home, it is the most successful preparations ever introduced to our people. It works like a charm in all cases of Consumption, Pneumonia, Hemorrhages, Asthma, severe Coughs, Croup and all other Throat and Lung Diseases. No person has ever used this medicine without getting immediate relief, yet there are a great many poor, suffering, skeptical persons going about our streets with a suspicious cough, and the voice of consumption coming from their lungs, that will not try it. If you die, it is your own fault, as you can try it for your druggist and get a sample bottle and try it; three doses will relieve any case. Regular size only 75 cts.

Humorous.

An Illinois editor returns thanks for a centipede sent him by mail from Texas, it being the first cent of any kind he has received for several weeks.

It seems strange, but it is true. When we spend a dollar on ourselves we soon forget it, but when give a dime to another we remember it a long time.

"What station do you call this?" groaned a traveller, as he crawled out of the wreck of a smashed up railway train. "Devastation" replied the conductor.

A recent picnic was turned into a hollow mockery by every fellow remembering to bring a corkscrew, and depending on somebody else to furnish the bottle.

An English writer says, in his advice to young married women, their mother Eve married a gardener. It might be added that the gardener, in consequence of this match, lost his situation.

That was a ghastly joke that a sinful townsman played on a stranger, whom he had promised to introduce to a rich planter, and then took him around and presented him to the leading undertaker.

A preacher out west announced on his Sunday night bulletin: "The Funeral of Judas Iscariot," to which an obliging fellow added, "Friends of the deceased are cordially invited." The church was filled.

A lawyer once rushed up to Jerrold in the street, said, with a flushed face, "Mr. Jerrold, I've just met a scoundrelly barrister." Jerrold looked at him with a bland smile, and simply answered, "What a coincidence!"

"Why is it, my dear sir," said Waffles' landlady to him the other day, "that you newspaper men never get rich?" "I don't know," was his reply, "except it is that dollars and sense do not always travel together."

A contemporary wonders why the English should be continually singing "God save the Queen," saying that it is always advisable to save the jack; but the queen only counts two for a game, and is always a good card to throw away.

The statistical and poetical Rock Island correspondent of the St. John News, considers, and sensibly, that as "A little nonsense now and then, is relished by the wisest men," So also, should "A little leisure now and then, be taken by all business men."

The following story is told of Professor Blackie:—On the door of the Greek class room in the Edinburgh University the Professor had, or took occasion a few weeks ago, to put up this notice:—"Professor Blackie regrets he is unable to-day to meet his classes." A waggish student, spying this, scraped out the initial letter of the last word of the sentence and made it appear as if the Professor was regretful at his inability to meet these fair specimens of humanity familiarly known outside the college quadrangle as the "lasses." But who can joke with Blackie, and not get the worst of it? The keen-eyed old man, noticing the prank that had been played on him, quickly erased another letter, and left the following to be read by whomsoever it might concern:—"Professor Blackie regrets he is unable to-day to meet his asses!"

ST. MARGARET'S HALL, HALIFAX, N. S. SEMINARY FOR YOUNG LADIES.

VISITOR: The Lord Bishop of Nova Scotia. PRINCIPAL: The Rev. John Padfield.

THIS SCHOOL offers, at very moderate cost, the advantages of a comfortable and pleasant home together with a thorough and refined education.

The course of instruction is the same as that of the best Schools in England and is founded upon the University Examinations for Women. Eight young ladies from this School passed the Local Examination of the University of King's College in June last. This is the only School in Canada that has passed pupils at a University Examination.

The number of pupils is limited, rendering the School select, and while it possesses all the educational advantages of a large public school, each pupil is enabled to receive that individual care and oversight which is so important, and which cannot be given in a large establishment.

Mr. and Mrs. Padfield are assisted by a staff of four resident governesses, besides visiting masters. Parisienne French is taught conversationally. There are two resident French Governesses. References given to parents of pupils. For further particulars address the Principal. Sept. 19, 1878.

CATARRH. Constitutional Catarrh Remedy CURES CATARRH. Hear what a Reverend Gentleman says of the Constitutional Remedy.

T. J. B. HARDING, Esq., Brockville, Ont.:—DEAR SIR—It is now two years since your "Constitutional Catarrh Remedy" was introduced to me. I have waited this long to see if the cure would remain permanent before doing this, my duty, to you, as at first the happy effects seemed to me to be "too good to be true."

I was afflicted in my head for years before I suspected it to be Catarrh. In reading in your Circular I saw my case described in many particulars. The inward "drop" from the head had become very disagreeable, and a choking sensation often preventing me from lying long. I would feel like smothering and be compelled to sit up in the bed. My health and spirits were seriously affected. When your agent came to Walkertown in August, 1876, I secured three bottles. Before I had used a quarter of the contents of one bottle I found decided relief, and when I had used two bottles and a third, I quit taking it, feeling quite cured of that ailment, and have not used any since until of late I have taken some for a cold in my head.

A sense of duty to sufferers from that loathsome disease, Catarrh, prompts me to send you this Certificate, unassociated, with leave to make what use of it you may see proper. Yours truly, W. TINDALL, Methodist Minister. Port Egin, Ont., Aug. 24, 1878.
