Giovine, who does not speak or understand English too well, asked for a review of the bidding, and upon being reassured (in Italian) that South had really bid three clubs, doubled (in English). With four trump tricks in his own hand, and partner who had opened the bidding, Giovine had a pretty good case. He led the nine of diamonds. Declarer took the trick in dummy and played the king spade. Franco won with the ace and returned the king of hearts which was ruffed. After cashing the queen of spades declarer trumped a spade in dummy. He then ruffed a heart and led a diamond to the ace. Seven tricks had been played and South had won six of them. He still had the A-Q-J of clubs, as well as a spade and two diamonds.

Opening lead—nine of diamond. The scene was the European bridge championship played in Amsterdam in July 1955. Thirteen countries participated in the tournament which was won by a French team, Italy being second. The hand shown occurred when Norway played the Italian team. Sitting East - West were Franco and Giovine, representing Italy. They were playing the nightly artificial Marnic system, and Franco's two club bid showed a three-suited hand of 5-4-4-0 or 4-4-1 distribution. The Norwegian South decided he would try to cramp the opponents' bidding before they could find their suit. He bid three clubs.

Declarer led a heart from dummy and discarded a diamond. West was forced to ruff and could not avoid playing back a trump. South won with the jack and exited with the jack of diamonds. Again West had to ruff and return a trump. So South made three clubs doubled. At the other table the final contract, peculiarly enough, was also three clubs. But since declarer was not doubled, he did not know the trumps were banked against him and ended going down two.

Montreal Police Renew Drive On Robbery Wave
MONTREAL (CP) — Montreal police Friday renewed their drive to snuff out an unexplained series of holdups and muggings that have been building up into something of a crime wave. Inspector William Fitzpatrick said he could ascribe no particular reason to suddenly push-rooming holdup attempts that began last Friday with seven, including a thwarted holdup of a bank. In less than a week there were about a score, although they were comparatively minor. The muggings have come into prominence in the last day or so, along with the holdup attempts, although Inspector Fitzpatrick said "we have muggings all the time." FIFTH VICTIM
A 24-year-old woman became the fifth victim of beatings in 24 hours at the hands of hoodlums when she was attacked outside a nightclub about 2 a.m. Friday. Several other persons were attacked when they stopped their cars for traffic lights.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:
A X Y D L B A A X R
I S L O N G F E L L O W
One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.
A Cryptogram Quotation
C I P J Y V P O K N U P K Z R O K R N
C I Y R S V D Z B O C I P Y Z D B P V —
K Z Y V C B T I K R P V.

JOE, AFTER WRITING THIS NOTE, WILDA MUST HAVE PUT A SOFT INSERT UNDER THE PAPER AND THEN TRACED OVER HER WRITING - SO THAT THE REVERSE IMPRESSIONS WOULD APPEAR ON THE REVERSE SIDE!
SHE PROBABLY USED A HAIRPIN OR A FINGERNAIL FILE! AT A GLANCE, THE REVERSE IMPRESSIONS FOLLOW THE SLANTING OF HER WRITING - EXCEPT THAT FOUR WORDS WERE CHANGED!
Phil has gently scribbled across the reverse of Wilda's note with this result...
