

HONORARY DEGREE

Rev. Canon E.M. Malone, former rector of St. Peter's Cathedral in Charlottetown, (RIGHT) is seen with Rt. Rev. George MacDonald, president of St. Dunstan's University during convocation exercises yesterday afternoon. Canon Malone was being presented with an honorary degree of Doctor of Laws.

President Delivers Report At Convocation Ceremony

Rt. Rev. George MacDonald, president of St. Dunstan's University, said the work of the university is no longer confined to full-time students but is extended to reach a great number of others in the province. Monsignor MacDonald, who delivered the annual president's report at convocation ceremonies yesterday, dealt at length with government, both federal and provincial and financial aid to universities.

Monsignor MacDonald told his audience a provincial government grant of $300 per student will be made to universities here for every full-time student in attendance. However, in telling of the extension work carried on he also noted last year during the summer period approximately 250 students took advantage of the many courses offered to make up academic deficiencies or acquire needed credits.

He said when the term opened last September there were upwards of 600 students enrolled for the various courses, and he surprised his listeners by telling them, the number of courses has now passed the 100 mark.

The president noted the influx of students from other provinces and other countries and said Australia was the only continent not represented in the student body. He hoped after a presidential visit there in 1968 St. Dunstan's would be better known there as well.

Monsignor MacDonald defined the purpose of university work when he told the assembling: "In granting degrees and diplomas to our graduates the university sets its stamp of approval upon them both as young men and young women and as young students. We hope, and with reason, that St. Dunstan's will never have occasion to regret her action today. You the graduates of '66 have received much good advice as to your future and as to what the world has in store for you. I hope that your stay at Saint Dunstan's has provided you with the opportunity to develop a degree of maturity that will be a fitting start in your life's work."

"I trust that your professors attending the meeting will be president-elect of the C.T.A., Kenneth H. More, MP, of Regina. Mr. More is a native of Saskatchewan, MP for Regina city. He is president of the Saskatchewan Anti-Tuberculosis League.

ed on the campus in the not too distant future.

"In reference to the new science building, it gives me a great deal of pleasure to acknowledge the debt that Saint Dunstan's owes to a most generous alumnus who has made possible this expansion in our facilities. I refer, of course, to Dr. St. Clair Duffy of Montreal. It was announced some three years ago that Dr. Duffy gave $250,000 towards the construction of this science complex. Not only has Dr. Duffy given $250,000 but he has doubled that amount and to date Saint Dunstan's has been the happy recipient of the really handsome sum of one-half million dollars from our most generous benefactor."

EXPRESSES REGRET
"I regret that Dr. Duffy is not with us today; if he were, I think I would take a cue from Ed Sullivan and ask for a big hand for our benefactor. Last year I expressed the hope that the bread he cast upon our financial waters would return to him a hundred fold; well, the hundred fold is as close to it as I continue the good wishes I expressed last year. We hope to have Dr. Duffy with us when the new building is officially opened in the fall.

"Serious thought must be given, in the immediate future, to the construction of student residences. The pressing need, at the moment, is for accommodation for the young ladies attending Saint Dunstan's. It is generally understood that residence facilities should be self-supporting. With the high cost of building and furnishing, added to the high cost of food services it becomes practically impossible for the university to charge what is necessary to defray the cost of these services, and some means of subsidization will have to be found.

"Study has been underway for some time regarding changes in both our Arts program and our Science program. It is presently planned to carry through a program in operation here in 1966-67, and students will be able to follow a majors program after their freshmen year. This new program will provide a better preparation for graduate work in the larger Canadian universities. I may say that in these larger universities a student undertakes graduate work after gaining his honours degree, which normally takes four years after senior matriculation.

HONORARY DEGREE
"We are grateful to His Honour the Lieutenant Governor for accepting, on short notice, the important duty of delivering the address to the graduates. We are pleased to have our Chancellor confer upon His Honour the degree of doctor of Laws, honoris causa. His Honour has been closely associated with the education of youth in the province for over 50 years and he has had a distinguished career both in the classroom and in the service of his country. We thank His Honour for your generous acceptance of the duty we thought His Excellency the Governor-General would perform. His Excellency and Madame Vanier have sent their regrets at not being able to be with us today and they both look forward to a visit to our campus later in the year.

"Finally I extend a warm welcome to the young clergyman you see on our stage. We are delighted to have Canon Malone with us and it will be a pleasure for our Most Reverend Chancellor to confer on him our highest distinction the degree of Doctor of Laws, honoris causa. Canon Malone is no stranger to our audience and I trust he will be back to visit us many times in the future."
