

Annual Meeting Of Borden Credit Union

Borden Credit Union held its banquet and annual meeting on Oct. 14 in Borden United Church hall.

After grace had been asked by Mr. William Ozon, about 60 members sat down to the splendid repast which consisted of a hot turkey dinner.

Mr. Reginald Rodgers, president of Borden Credit Union read congratulatory letters from Mr. G. R. Ball, president of the Bank of Montreal and Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent, who wrote of the fine work done by the Credit Unions and wishing them success in their future work.

Secretary Reginald McAleer told of what had been accomplished during the past year. He spoke of the benefit of regular savings and asked the members to deposit their dollars as well as their dimes in their Credit Union.

Guest speaker of the evening, Mr. Donald Smith, field man of the Credit Union National Association addressed the gathering. He said it was fitting that Borden Credit Union should hold its annual meeting with a banquet on the eve of International Credit Union Day which was on October 15 when the 105th anniversary of the Credit Unions was celebrated.

Double Wedding At Belfast

A pretty double wedding was solemnized in St. John's Presbyterian Church, Belfast, on September 17 at 6 p.m. when Rev. James E. Heathwood united in marriage Edna Isabel, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Nicholson, Mr. Buchanan, to Mr. John Martin Gillis, son of Mrs. J. H. Gillis, Pinette, and Margaret Eva to Stewart Leslie MacRae, son of Mr. Sinclair MacRae, Pinette.

The brides, with their father entered the church to the strains of Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus. Both brides wore white net over satin fitted lace bodices. Their shoulder-length veils were held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms and each carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses.

Edna Nicholson was attended by Miss Janet Gillis who wore a gown of mauve taffeta with matching head-dress. She carried a nosegay of Talisman roses. The groom was supported by his brother, Bert.

Margaret Nicholson was attended by her sister, Joan, who wore a green taffeta with matching head-dress. She also carried a nosegay of Talisman roses. The groom was supported by his cousin, Lloyd Morrison. Ushers were Ernest MacLeod, Pinette, and Bobby Barnes, U.S.A.

The church choir sang "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden" and "Perfect Love". During the signing of the register, Mr. Herby Worth sang "O Promise Me". Organists were Mrs. M. W. MacDonald and Mrs. A. G. Putnam. The church was beautifully decorated with gladioli and mixed flowers.

A reception and buffet supper was held at the bride's home for more than 100 guests. Two three-tier wedding cakes, topped with miniature bride and groom, centered the dining-room table.

"NIAGARA" STARS MARILYN MONROE AT CAPITOL, SUMMERSIDE

"Niagara," the Twentieth Century-Fox suspense drama, which opens today at the Capitol Theatre, Summerside, is a breath-taking motion picture in more ways than one. It provides an abundant display of Marilyn Monroe's physical allurements and at the same time has the scenic splendor of Niagara Falls as a background for the emotional turbulence she herself provokes. And to make the pyrotechnics of the story and locale all the more spectacular the proceedings are photographed in color by Technicolor.

Joseph Cotton and Jean Peters, with Miss Monroe, form a startling triumvirate that adds real lustre to this unusual murder mystery. With Casey Adams playing the husband of Jean Peters the picture unfolds the drama of two honeymoon couples entangled in a tangle of fate as threatening as the ominous might of the great Niagara they have come to see.

"Niagara" is the story of a two-timing wife who brings her husband, a war-shocked Korean veteran, to the honeymoon resort and plots with the man she is having an affair with to have her spouse pushed into the Falls. Marilyn is the philandering wife and Cotton is the psychotic husband.

Dedication Services F'town United Church

Re-opening and re-dedication services were held Sept. 30 in the Freetown United Church. This church recently repaired and decorated is one of the oldest in the Province, being built in 1852 on land donated by Mr. Edmund Crosby.

Since that time, many improvements have been made in the church building, the greatest of these being the work done this year.

The walls and ceiling are completely new, all new pews have been installed, extra electric lights added and a larger chancel built. It all makes for a pleasing interior.

At the dedication service was led by Rev. J. K. Campbell, hearts were lifted in gratitude to God, not only for the church, but for all those, whose love, efforts and money made this day possible.

Rev. Harold Kennedy of Cape Breton, who was student minister in this charge in 1950, was guest speaker at both morning and evening services. In the morning he led his hearers "down memory lane", as he brought before them those things which have contributed to make the church a living force in our lives.

In the evening he exhorted all to live up to their Christian convictions, in the home, in the church and in the community.

A mass choir of North Bedouque and Freetown churches, directed by the organist, Miss Mary I. Cairns, led the singing and rendered as an anthem, the beautiful hymn "Give To Our God Immortal Praise".

The church, beautiful with flowers and ferns, was filled to overflowing. Sound system installed carried the service to those outside, and the choir and congregation joined heartily in the singing of hymns suitable to the occasion.

The soloist in the morning, Mrs. Wallace Reeves, sang very sweetly, the hymn "I Would Rather Have Jesus", and in the evening the guest soloist, Mr. J. B. Lewis sang "How Lovely Are Thy Dwelling-places". A male quartet from Kensington, Messrs. Taylor, Brown, MacKay and Walker, accompanied by Mrs. MacKay sang "Wandering Child Come Home", and "Dear Lord Forgive".

The benediction by Rev. J. K. Campbell brought the service to a close.—AB.

In Memoriam

ALONZO KEOUGH The death of Alonzo Keough at the age of 70 years, occurred at Western Hospital, Alberton on September 1.

He passed away resigned to God's holy will and fortified by the last consoling rites of Holy Mother Church, of which he was a devout and faithful member.

Alonzo Keough was the son of the late Richard Keough and Mary Dawson Keough of Christopher Cross, and spent all his life there. His life was truly a useful and industrious one as is testified by the comfortable home he built and the productive acres surrounding it. He will be remembered by all who knew him as an obliging, courteous and considerate friend and neighbor; his character, personality and good judgement, won for him the love and esteem of his many friends, who could always rely on his honesty and fairness.

In the home where he was a faithful husband and a loving father he will ever be mourned by his sorrowing wife, the former Lauretta Milligan of Norway, and his three sons, Walcott and Lloyd residing in the United States and Ellsworth, Christopher Cross; a son Arnold pre-deceased his father several years ago. Besides his immediate family he is survived by two brothers, Alfred Keough and William Keough, Boston, Mass., and a sister (Lucy) Mrs. Peter Shea, Boston Mass.

His funeral under the direction of Mr. J. Peter Gaudet was one of the largest in this vicinity for some time was held from his home to the Church of St. Simon and St. Jude, Tignish, on September 3, where a Requiem Mass was celebrated by Reverend J. A. MacDonald, P. P. assisted by the parish choir under the direction of Reverend Dennis Gallant. Services at the grave were conducted by Father Gallant.

Funeral services were Messrs. Earl McInnis, Fred Hogan, William Olohesoy, Ray Handrahan, Earl Gallant and Howard McDue.

Mrs. Keough and family were the recipients of floral tributes, many mass cards and messages of sympathy from friends both far and near, to whom they are deeply grateful.

OUT OUR WAY By J. R. Williams

President Mrs. Keith Marr

conducted the meeting which opened with the Creed. Mrs. Harold Laird, past provincial president, also a number of visitors. Letters were received from the following: Dr. L. G. Dewar, cancer campaign chairman; Mrs. Stuart MacGregor, Home Economics convener, and Roy Cudmore, chairman Red Shield Appeal. Mrs. Peter MacLellan gave the interesting report and Miss Donalds MacDonald reported for the school committee. On motion it was voted that an organ be purchased from Miss Grace Easter, to be used by the teacher in teaching singing and music in the school. A committee was appointed to look into the business of purchasing swings for the school children.

The president introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Laird, who gave a realistic description of her visit to the A. C. W. W. conference. Her vivid report of meetings, tours, entertainment, etc., was educational and interesting and much enjoyed by those present. She showed many souvenirs received from delegates of other countries and from places visited in Ontario. A question period followed and several points were discussed including resolutions passed at the conference. The president expressed the thanks of those present, to Mrs. Laird for attending the meeting and for her inspiring talk.

Mrs. Justin MacLellan read Miss Frances Hand's "Facts" on the A. C. W. W. conference (English, Sept. 10). This was appreciated by all and especially by Mrs. Laird who said Miss Hand had summarized well the real value of the conference. Mrs. Sinclair served refreshments, assisted by the committee.

Mrs. Fred Tuplin, R. N., explained the Refresher Course given under the auspices of the Red Cross, which she attended in Charlottetown, Aug. 28. It was decided to organize a class in First Aid, to be held the following week at the school with Mrs. Tuplin as instructor.
