New London Church Observes Day of Prayer

The World Day of Prayer Service was held in the Presbyterian Church, New London, on Friday afternoon Feb 24 with a goodly representation of Auxiliary members from the United Church, New London, Stanley Bridge, North Granville and New London Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. George Cole very efficiently conducted the service assisted by the following ladies: Mrs. H. S. MacEwen, Mrs. Stanley Brown, Mrs. Horace Taper, Mrs. Harold Mayhew, Mrs. C. B. Goss, Mrs. Oscar MacKay and Mrs. Harold Dunning. Mrs. Ray MacLeod was the guest speaker and gave a very fine message on the subject "Giving to and sharing with others."

With God's grace and strength today "his our day to live. It is our share to put God first in our lives as we give back to His service, our time, our abilities, and our possessions." Mrs. MacLeod very vividly presented the challenge to all W. M. S. workers who are obligated to support church work and missionaries both home and abroad with prayers and gifts and explained the great opportunity of sharing abundance with those who are less fortunate.

The offering was received by Mrs. Leah MacEwen and Mrs. Claude MacEwen and dedicated by Mrs. Cole. The meeting closed with the Benediction pronounced by Mrs. W. O. Myers. An hour of social intercourse was then enjoyed accompanied by a delicious lunch served by the ladies of the Presbyterian W. M. S.
