PERSONAL.
Hon. Mr. Davies and other Ministers (accompanied by Lieut.-Col. Donville) have gone West on the official car of the Minister of Railways.

THE PHILIPPINE REBELLION.
According to the latest advices the Philippine rebellion is a rising of half-breeds and natives. With the exception of a small peninsula containing the arsenal and a docking establishment, the whole province of Cavite is in their hands. The Spanish authorities admit that there are rebels also in the provinces of Manila, Bulacan, Pampanga, Nueva Ecija, Tarlac, La Laguna and Batangas. The rebels have 8,000 Mauser rifles. When the trouble began it was feared that the discontented natives designed to inaugurate the rebellion by a wholesale massacre of the Spaniards in Manila, and plans that have fallen into the hands of the authorities have the European houses marked off in red ink. The British residents' houses were designated otherwise, so that their occupants might be spared.

THE LITTLE EXTRA
MAKES ALL THE DIFFERENCE
Here are a few examples. The P. D. Corset is a little 'extra' comfortable, 'extra' shapely and 'extra' serviceable. The result is it costs a 'little extra' and wears an 'extra' long time.
Our range of Fancy Work and Embroidery Silks is 'extra' large and in order to reduce stock at once and very largely, we are giving an 'extra' discount.
The value we now offer in Ladies' Winter Vests and Combinations is 'extra' good. We have recently received a 'bought at an extra' discount because of the lateness of the season. We have placed them all on sale at 'extra' low price and there is no 'extra' charge for 'extra' large sizes.

ST. ANDREW'S DAY.
Very Successful Dinner at the Hotel Davies Last Evening.
The memory of good old St. Andrew, the Patron Saint of Scotland, was this year perpetuated by the Caledonian Club in the honor-able way. The last dinner given on St. Andrew's Day under the auspices of the Club are always exceedingly enjoyable functions, and that of last evening will be fondly remembered by all who participated. The reputation of the Hotel Davies was more than sustained, and about eighty guests thoroughly discussed the choice viands provided. John S. Macdonald, Esq., President of the Caledonian Club, presided, having on his right Honorable Senator Macdonald, Patron of the Club, and on his left James Paton, Esq., the Chief. Vice-President H. C. McMillan filled the vice-chair, supported on his right by Dr. James Macleod, Past Chief of the Sons of Scotland, and on his left by P. McCourt, Esq., President of the Benevolent Irish Society. The wants of the "inner man" having been well attended to the chairman rapped for order and then began the feast of reason and the flow of soul. The toast list follows:
The Queen.
The Day and a' wha' honor it.—Rev. D. Sutherland.
The President of the United States.—Consul Kane.
The Governor General and Parliament of Canada.—Hon. D. Laird and Senator Macdonald.
The Lieutenant Governor and Local Legislature.—Hon. D. Ferguson and A. B. Warburton, M. L. A.
The Land of the Heather.—Rev. G. M. Campbell.
The Land we live in.—Senator Ferguson.
The Beach and Bar.—W. S. Stewart, Q. C., and A. A. McLean, Q. C.
The Agricultural and Dairying Interests.—Archibald McNeill and T. J. Dillon, Esq.
The Military and Naval Forces of the Empire.—Lieut.-Col. Moore.
The Press.—Hon. D. Laird, of the Patriot, and Mr. McInnis of THE EXAMINER.
Sister Societies.—P. McCourt, Esq., President of the Benevolent Irish Society. Our Host and Hostess.—Mr. Davies.
The toasts were all drunk in sparkling cold water. They were interspersed with vocal and instrumental music and recitations, the vocal selections being well rendered and keenly enjoyed. Among those who contributed to this portion of the entertainment were T. A. McLean, A. A. Bruce, William McKay, R. Lamont, Peter N. McDonald, and W. Whitehead. Mr. H. V. McKinnon played the accompaniments.
The speeches as a rule were above the average. The speech of Rev. Mr. Sutherland in reply to the "Beach and Bar," "The Day and wha' honor it," was really eloquent; and a similar remark applies to what was said by Rev. Mr. Campbell speaking to "The Land of the Heather." Consul Kane was an able eyesman for the republic to the South of us, and Senator Ferguson referred with feelings of pride to this Canada of ours. Messrs Stewart and McLean made excellent speeches in reply to the "Beach and Bar," "The Sister Societies" were well looked after by Mr. McCourt. Hon. David Laird and Senator Macdonald replied for "the Senate and Parliament of Canada," the former suggesting a "deal" by which each political party would be allowed to nominate a senator alternately with a view to keeping equal the representation of the two political parties in that body after the number on each side had been equal. Hon. D. Ferguson and Mr. Warburton had some good words for "the Lieutenant Governor and the Provincial Legislature," and Messrs McNeill and Dillon referred to the progress and importance of our "Agriculture and Dairying industry." Lieut.-Col. Moore responded briefly to our "Military and Naval Forces" because of the lateness of the hour at which the toast was reached. "The Press" was similarly disposed of for a like reason.
About half-past two o'clock this morning the entertainment was brought to a close, and the merry party separated all well pleased with the manner in which the "St. Andrew's Day" Patron Saint had memory of Scotland's Patron Saint had been honored by the Caledonian Club of Prince Edward Island in the year of grace 1896.
