

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

JULY 27, 1882.

Murray Harbor Election.

On Monday next, the election in Murray Harbor District will take place.

The main issue in the contest is between extravagance and taxation on the opposition side, and economy and no taxation on the Government side.

Mr. George Wighamman represents "the Dashways"; Hon. Samuel Prowse, the Economists.

We hear that there is great excitement among the electors of the district, and well there may; for the eyes of the Province are upon them, and the Province is anxiously awaiting the result.

Hon. Mr. Sullivan's pointed speech which we publish in another column, sets forth plainly and vigorously, the differences between the two parties.

The Russian Coronation.

It seems to be definitely arranged that the Czar will be crowned at the end of August. No less than ten times has the same notice been given and countermanded.

The Turks believe that, in the event of Arabi and his army sustaining a defeat near Cairo, Arabi will destroy that place, join the Sudan insurgents, and at once proclaim the independence of Upper Egypt.
