IN MEMORIAM

MRS. FRED W. CLARK

The death occurred at her home on April 6th, 1953, of Mrs. Fred W. Clark of Cavendish. The late Mrs. Clark was born at New Glasgow, P. E. I., on Aug. 6th, 1876. "Hettie", as she was known to her friends, was a skilled dressmaker, having taken up the work in early girlhood, and practiced it both at home and in Boston.

She was married in 1905, and came to Cavendish in 1908 where she lived the remainder of her life.

She endured an illness of two and a half years with patience and forbearance, and one of her greatest joys was the visits of her friends and relatives.

She knew that she was "going home" and was resigned to go at the Master's bidding. She leaves to mourn the loss of a kind and loving wife and mother, her husband and family of four, Gertrude, Mrs. Donald Lamont, French River; George at home; Marjorie, Mrs. Cyril Smith, Hunter River; Elmer in Saint John, N. B.; also a sister, Mrs. Eva Stevenson, Westminister, Mass., fifteen grandchildren and six great-grandsons.

The funeral was held from Cavendish United Church on April 8th and was very largely attended. Her pastor, Rev. George Gough, conducted the services, assisted by Rev. Howard Christie, Hunter River, and Rev. Mr. Green of Stanley Bridge.

Hymns were favorites of the late Mrs. Clark, "The Lord's My Shepherd" and "Abide With Me." A quietude, "Sweet Peace, The Gift of God's Love", was very beautifully rendered by Miss Blanche Wyand, Messrs. Olaf and Roy Stevenson and Lowell Wyand. Mrs. Reggie Simpson presided at the organ.

Pall-bearers were the six nearest neighbors, namely, Wm. Johnstone, Eric Simpson, Jack Stewart, Sterling Stewart, Reginald Simpson and Chesley Clark, the latter a nephew.

Flower-bearers, Ellwood Stewart, Benson Graham, Beverly MacLeod, John MacNeil, John Toombs, Albert Laird, Herbert Moore and Alvin MacNeil.

The remains were tenderly laid to rest in Cavendish cemetery. Funeral arrangements were under the direction of Mr. James E. Andrews.

Floral tributes were as follows: Pillow: The family.

Minnie and Wilfred Whitlock, Hunter River. Helen and Stanley MacLean, Borden. Mary and Jay Edwards and Dora, Ottawa, Ont. Florrie Whitehead, Mansfield, Mass. Albert and Irene Baker and Florence. Earle, Helen and Donald Baker, Ch'town. Saskels: Eva and family, Westminister, Mass. Shed staff, C.P.R., Saint John, N. B.
