Shore Picnic Marks School Closing At South Freetown

A pleasant day was spent at Chelton Shore on June 27 when the South Freetown School District held their annual picnic.
The day was happily spent in bathing, games, and sports. The ladies spread a delicious picnic meal which was enjoyed by everyone. On behalf of the pupils Ruby E. Reeves read an address, which stated their appreciation for Miss Aletha Graham's interest in instructing them during the four years. A gift from the pupils was presented to her by Connie Reeves. An address of appreciation was read by Mrs. Eldon Drummond on behalf of the Home and School Association, thanking Miss Graham for the whole-hearted interest she had taken in the children's welfare. A gift from the Association was presented by Mrs. Wallace Reeves. Miss Graham fittingly replied.
Everyone was served ice cream by the teacher, and the children were treated to chocolate bars by the Home and School Association.

The Jolly Thirty-Five Junior Red Cross Branch was organized during the early part of the school year. The members were active and during the year many interesting meetings were held. At the final meeting Miss Margaret Smith, a student teacher, was in attendance. The annual report was given; Donations to March of Dimes $6.00; other donations: Crippled Children's Fund, treats for the sick in the district, Far East Relief Fund. A Christmas time large box of gifts was sent to the Red Cross Society for distribution to the crippled children. During the winter months a portfolio was made, and word has been received from the school in Australia which received the portfolio. They were delighted with the splendid work of the pupils, and now understand more clearly how Canadians live. They stated that they were planning on making one for South Freetown School.
