

Yanks Find Trade Field In Russia

MOSCOW (AP)—Representatives of a number of major U.S. businesses, convinced following talks with Kremlin leaders that they should begin trading with Russia, are ready to try to persuade the U.S. government to remove trade obstacles.

This was the summary given here by one of a group of 52 businessmen who began returning home from five days of talks. This man, who had long experience in trade talks here, in contrast to the inexperience of many in the group, commented:

"They'll go back and talk to their congressmen about making it easier to trade with the Soviet Union."

A number of other businessmen of the 63 corporations represented in the talks voiced a cautious conclusion that trade should be developed. Not all, however, were convinced.

Cattle Rustlers Are Faster Now

CALGARY (CP)—Cattle rustlers are quicker and get away faster than they used to be in the days of the "old West."

Fred Newcombe, secretary of the Western Stock Growers' Association, complained that "it's getting like the old bootlegging days" when a rustler was treated so leniently when caught that it paid him to continue rustling.

In one recent rustling case, Mr. Newcombe said, a rustler was fined $125—and allowed to keep $200 worth of stolen beef in his deep freeze.

"You're getting money for nothing, or almost nothing, so you pay your fine, charge it against expenses, and go on," he complained that a cattle man had no way of "locking his doors" to keep his property intact.

Modern Foods Give Cavities To Eskimos

EDMONTON (CP)—Eskimos, apparently, once needed dentists like a hole in the head. Now they get cavities like everyone else.

Dr. C. H. Carley, a senior federal government dentist, said in an interview that the Eskimo once existed on a high-protein, low-carbohydrate diet. His teeth rarely decayed. But now, many Eskimos eat the same refined high-carbohydrate foods as other Canadians—and they're paying for it in cavities.

Dr. Carley is one of six dentists employed by the federal health and welfare department to work in the vast area of Northern Alberta, the Yukon, and the Mackenzie district of the Northwest Territories.

Two of the dentists, including Dr. Carley, work out of Edmonton; the others are stationed in the north.

CUBAN TAKES LONG VOYAGE

LONDON (AP)—A few days ago Bernardo Rodriguez Portal, a Cuban fisherman, was peacefully catching fish 100 miles off the coast of his native Cuba. Then he drifted 11 miles to American territorial waters off Key West, Fla., and was picked up.

Today, after travelling from Miami via Washington to London, Portal was on his way home via Prague and Shannon, Ireland. The total mileage: 11,000. The total cost to the American taxpayer according to U.S. airline officials: Approximately $735.

Red tape, lack of diplomatic relations and air connections between Cuba and the United States obliged the U.S. authorities to deport 35-year-old Portal the hard way.

FUNERAL CUSTOM

It is not unusual in Cambodia for a gay and festive funeral service lasting four days, to take place two years after a person's death, when the body is exhumed.
