IN MEMORIAM

MR. ELMER CLOW

There passed peacefully away at his home on the night of April 4th, Elmer Clow in his sixty-first year.

He had been in his usual state of health on that day and his sudden passing came as a great shock to his family, as well as to his many friends.

The late Mr. Clow was ever willing to lend a helping hand to his fellow man, and his happy and pleasant disposition will be greatly missed by young and old alike. In his own and surrounding coming husband and father is his wid-ow.

Left to mourn the loss of a wid-ow, the former Agnes MacKinnon and daughter, Mrs. Everett MacLeod; also a grand-daughter, Ar-lynn Jane MacLeod of Borden.

The funeral service, under the direction of Neil MacLean, was held on April seventh, from the home, conducted by his minister, Rev. Howard Christie, who deliv-ered a very fitting and comforting address.

Hymns sung were: "Breathe on Me Breath of God," "The Sands of Time Are Sinking" and "Come Ye Disconsolate."

Honorary pall-bearers were: Messrs. Lewis MacPherson, Amos Monaghan, Bruce Deacon, Leonard Bowman, Edison Easter, Robert Duncan and George MacLean.

Active pall-bearers were: Messrs. Cecil Campbell, William Coady, William Cullen, Everett Nicholson, Alexander MacLeod and Murdoch MacLeod.

Interment was in North Wilts-hire Cemetery.

Drake - Ings Wedding

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at the United Church manse, Pownal, on Saturday May 24th 1952, at three o'clock, when Annie Ariene, youngest daughter of Mr. Herman Ings and the late Mrs. Ings of Millview became the bride of Wallace Wynston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Drake, Vernon. The double ring ceremony was per-formed by Rev. A. S. Weir.

The bride, given in marriage by her father looked charming in an ankle length gown of blue net over taffeta, with corsage of red roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Lorna Mac-Pherson, wore a dress of pink nylon sheer, with corsage of yellow daffodils. Both wore match-ing headresses. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Kenneth Ings, brother of the bride.

Following the ceremony a recep-tion was held at the Queen Hotel with the members of the imme-diate families in attendance. The table was beautifully decorated for the occasion with spring flowers, and centered with a three-tier wedding cake. Mr. and Mrs. Drake amid show-ers of confetti and good wishes left by car on a honeymoon trip to Boston, Mass. On their return they will reside at Vernon.

Victoria And Vicinity

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Stewart and little daughter, Patsy, have returned from Ontario to their home in Victoria.

Mr. P. R. Milburn is relieving manager at the Bank of Nova Scot-ia in the absence of Mr. Donald Dart who is on vacation. While here, Mr. Milburn is a guest at the Orient Hotel.

Mrs. Anne Lea and children, Annabel and Walter, are spending their vacation in Victoria.

Mrs. E. H. Wright has arrived from the U.S.A. and has reopened her home for the summer months.

Mr. Herbert Gill, popular local painter and decorator, is at present painting the houses of Mr. Burke and Mrs. W. M. Lea.

Mr. Clayton Miller an son have recently added an extensive line of groceries to their already es-tablished meat market.

Prof. Heath N. Macquarrie has left for Wolfville where he will spend the next six weeks lectur-ing at Acadia University.

Miss Heather Howatt is visit-ing her aunt, Mrs. George Murray, at Bedoue.

The graduation exercises of Victoria School were held recent-ly in the local hall. A very enter-taining program was presented by the children. Special numbers were also rendered by the Tryon Male Chorus and the Tryon Rhythm Band.

Mr. Roy C. Lea, the son of for-mer residents of Victoria, Mr. and Mrs. James Lea, is spending some time visiting the old "home-town", and renewing old friendships. Mr. Lea, who now lives in Miami, Fla., has not been home in fifteen years, so Friday night, after the children's school closing, they with their parents and friends joined Mr. Lea in the ice cream and cake party he had furnished to sur-prise them. This generous act on the part of Mr. Lea was much ap-preciated by all who partook. —GU.
