CUISINE CORNER

THIS WEEKS RECIPE IS: THE PEANUT BUTTER SANDWICH

INGREDIENTS: BREAD (2 slices)
PEANUT BUTTER

DIRECTIONS: Choosing your bread is very important. The first thing you should decide is if you want white bread, brown bread, whole wheat, etc.

After having chosen your bread you must decide on the width of the slice. If the pre-sliced bread does not suit you, you may have to slice your own.

Now that your have decided on thickness you must think about peanut butter. First there is the choice of crunchy or smooth.

Next you have to decide on a brand as they all differ slightly in texture.

That's about it for all the difficult decisions. Now to start to make the sandwich itself.

Take one slice of bread and spread the peanut butter on evenly at the desired thickness. When this is done, place the second slice of bread on top of the first, making sure that you have the tops of the slices at the same end.

Now cut in desired direction.

VARIATIONS: This recipe may also be made using one slice of bread.

NEXT WEEK: How to make ice cubes.
