

FOOD MEDICINE

Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil is equally food and medicine.

A little of it sets the stomach at work on some easy food—that is medicine.

How does it "set the stomach at work?" By making strength: by creating strength: by turning the oil into body and life—that is food.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like.

NOTICE TO ELECTORS.

QUALIFICATION OF VOTERS, AND HOW TO VOTE.

In electoral districts of this Province the voting takes place by ballot. There is no registration of voters here.

Every male British subject of the age of 21 years and upwards who has for six months previous to the 9th day of October, A. D., 1900, been in the possession either as owner, tenant or occupant of a house or piece of land of the yearly value of six dollars shall be entitled to vote.

IN ADDITION TO ABOVE.

In country districts every male British subject of the age of 21 years who being liable to perform Statute Labour, has performed such Statute Labour or paid his commutation money for the year 1900 shall be entitled to vote, provided he has resided for twelve months in the electoral Division.

IN THE CITY OF CHARLOTTETOWN.

If a person cannot qualify as a tenant or owner, he may vote on his poll tax,

IF

He has resided for twelve months previous to the 9th day of October, A. D., 1900 either east or west of Great George Street, and has paid his poll tax of 75 cts of it for the year 1899. OR HE CAN VOTE ON HIS POLL TAX RECEIPT FOR THE PRESENT YEAR 1900. This tax may be paid at any time before the election, but not on election day.

Every resident voter must vote in the polling district where he is living on election day.

We warn poll tax electors to be prepared with their poll tax receipts, before they go into the polling booths. If you do not produce them, your votes will not be taken and you cannot again enter the booth. Tenants and owners do not require receipts.

ONLY MAKE A CROSS.

Mark your Ballot as above indicated. Simply place a X in the space containing the name of William S Stewart, the people's candidate for West Queen's. Place no other mark upon the ballot.

The cross must be made with a BLACK lead pencil. No other kind will do.

Following Irregularities Held Fatal to Votes.

- 1.—A single stroke instead of a cross.
- 2.—A mark which in itself is a means of identification, such as initials or some other mark known as used by him.
- 3.—Two single strokes not crossing.

No PERSON who has voted at the election shall in any legal proceeding be required to state for whom he voted.—See Sec. 97 of the Election Act

The election law of the Dominion provides for perfect secrecy of the ballot, except in case of a scrutiny before two judges of the Supreme Court. Before a scrutiny can be held, the person desiring one must deposit in Court one thousand dollars as security that he will be successful. No ballot can be examined until it has been first proved that the voter has no vote, and no vote under any circumstances can be examined unless it has been marked objected to before the vote was given. No vote can be marked objected after the voter has received his ballot.

The ballots after being counted are sealed and sent to the Returning officer who without opening the packets or breaking the seals transmits them to the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery, and whilst in the custody of the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery no person is allowed to inspect.

Besides the polling officers and the agents of the candidates, only one elector may enter the polling booth at a time; he MUST mark his ballot in secret, he MUST hand his ballot folded to the polling officer, who MUST place it in the box without opening, and there is a penalty for displaying the ballot in any way that would afford a cue as to how the elector is voting.

LINGERING

LOU'S LAMENT.

I cannot sing the old songs, O
I sang so sweet and slick:
For should I try to warble, O
'Twould make the people sick.

"Coal oil ten cents a gallon, O"
I sang that loud and long:
But I have swallowed 'Standard Oil'
And cannot sing that song.

"And oh for cheaper binder twine
The farmer suffers long:
But since I swallowed Hobbs & Bates,
I cannot sing that song.

"Down, down with the expenditure:
High taxes, yes, are wrong:
'Wait till you see us next year, O'
I cannot sing that song.

"And whiskey for the voters, O
And bribery, too, is wrong:
But since I swallowed Sifton, O
I cannot sing that song.

"Hurrah for Prohibition, boys,
'Twill make the people strong:
Since Fisher swallowed Fisher, O
I cannot sing that song.

"And giving jobs to members, O
Down with this Tory wrong:
Since Mulock swallowed Mulock, O
I cannot sing that song.

"And free trade with the Yankees, O
Will make this country spin:
Since Davies swallowed Davies, O
I cannot sing that hymn.

"I love the British Empire, O
To which we do belong:
But I have munched dog-biscuit, O
And cannot sing that song.

"And ring the knell of boodling, O"
I rang it loud and long;
But since I swallowed Mr. Tarte
I cannot sing that song.

"And buying Tory traitors, O

Is portrayed as a woman, yet her sex might complain that they get scant benefit of her powers. There is little justice, it would seem, in the suffering that many women undergo month after month.

Justice acts upon the legal maxim that ignorance of the law cannot be pleaded in mitigation of punishment. It is ignorance which causes so much womanly suffering. Ignorance of the requirements of womanly health; ignorance on the part of those who attempt to cure and fail, and ignorance of the fact that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures womanly diseases. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"When I first wrote to Doctor Pierce concerning my health," says Mrs. Mollie E. Carpenter, of Linaria, Cumberland Co., Tenn., "I was so weak I could only write a few words until I would have to rest; was so weak I could hardly walk. Words cannot express my sufferings: dimness of sight, palpitation, shortness of breath, black spots or else shining lights before my eyes, terrible headache, numbness in my arms and hands and tongue, also my jaws would get numb; constipation, falling of the uterus, disagreeable drains, soreness through my bowels; in fact I was diseased from head to foot. Now I can do my own washing and cooking. I can take a ten quart pail in one hand and a six quart pail in the other (full of water), and carry both one-fourth of a mile and never stop to rest. I am as heavy as I was at 19 years (125 pounds). I used thirty bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery' and twenty-five vials of 'Pleasant Pellets.'"

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps to pay expense of customs and mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Is mean as well as wrong:
But since I swallowed Pineau, O
I cannot sing that song.

"The old women in the Senate, O
I'll send them to Hong Kong:
But since I swallowed Mrs. Yeo
I cannot sing that song.

"And subsidies to railways, O
I do denounce this wrong:
But since I swallowed Blair & Co.,
I cannot sing that song.

"As guardian of the ballot box
I will be true and strong:
But after hugging the Machine
I cannot sing that song.

"That evil thing, Protection, O
Is cursed by God and man:
But since I swallowed the N. P.
I can't sing worth a--jam.

"O, East Queen's is a Liberal hive"
No longer that is true:
'Tis Tory now—alas! Good-bye,
From Linger Linger Lou.
