What's On At The Panther Lounge

The first week has come and gone and everyone here at the Barn has survived and is preparing for the next three months of good times and great events at the Lounge.

Santini and Bob Lambert were as entertaining as ever. The frosh attendance was fantastic and we apologize for not allowing enough room. We hope the frosh were not discouraged. We will certainly make it up in the future.

This Wednesday will see the debut of the "new and Improved" Labatt Jam Night. This week's band will be "Earwax". Albert Kays, John Parker, and Crazy Dodge will be cranking out three great sets of partyin' music. The fun begins at nine o'clock and be sure to remember the great bar specials which are always a part of Jam Night. Next week the band "Lost and Confused" will be your rockin' hosts.

Friday's movie will be featuring two powerful and dramatic films. See Tom Cruise and Jack Nicholson go head to head in the courtroom drama "A Few Good Men" and admire Michael Douglas' performance in "Falling Down". The movies and a few jugs of draught will help to loosen up the vocal chords for the first night of Karaoke with your host Rob Barry, which will be following the second movie. We had Karaoke a couple of times last year and it was hilarious to watch so we've decided to make it a weekly event at the Barn. We should almost tell everyone to pack a lunch for Fridays at the Barn!!
