

The Slater Beauty

We have just received another lot of this famous shoe, and they are without an exception the most beautiful we have ever seen. Of a rich chocolate, nice kid with a cord tip and handsome vesting top; they have a style which in all their own and cannot be duplicated.

L O O F—Regular meeting of Wildey Lodge tonight. Installation of Officers.

A HIGH ROLLER.—Charles Lewis, of Stratford, Ont., while asleep rolled out of a third story window. His injuries are serious.

KING'S CO. R. A.—The annual prize meeting of King's County Rifle Association will be held at Georgetown Range on Thursday 14th July at 9 o'clock.

Rev. D M Campbell will preach (D. V.) in Brooklyn, Lot 61, on Saturday evening, July 9, at 7.30, and on Sabbath, July 10, in Murray River, at 10.30, a. m., and in Belle River at 5, p. m.

LET BROTHERLY LOVE CONTINUE.—The British flag was displayed on Monday last in a great many places in the United States and was everywhere greeted with much heartiness.

LECTURE—S D McPhee will deliver a lecture on Orangeism in the Church at Valleyfield, under the auspices of Union District Lodge, L O A, on Tuesday, July 12th at 3 o'clock, p.m. A collection in aid of the P E Island Hospital will be taken up.

A LARGE HOG.—According to an exchange the prize hog of the age belongs to T. W. Williams of Decatur, Ill. It weighs 1,524 pounds and is so much of a burden that it cannot rise from its haunches. The exact dimensions of the hog are as follows: Height, 4 feet 6 inches; diameter, 7 feet; length, 10 feet 2 inches. For several months the hog has only eaten one gallon of corn at a meal. The hog's sire and dam were only medium-sized Berkshires crossed on common stock. A number of stockmen from the west have declared that it is the largest hog in the world.

A TEACHER ADDRESSED.—The ratepayers of the Cardigan North District recently presented Miss Minnie Edmonds, teacher at that place, with an address. The address spoke of the good work that was done by Miss Edmonds during the time she has been engaged as teacher and the keenest regret was expressed at her departure from the school. The pupils also presented her with an address and gift expressive of their appreciation of her work. Miss Edmonds made fitting replies to both addresses. We regret that we have not space for the addresses today.

MARRIED.—At Charlottetown, July 6th, by Rev. C. W. Corey, Wm. A. McEachern, of Charlottetown Royalty, to Sadie Matheson, of this city.

The big, hearty, healthy man is a continual irritation to his dyspeptic friend. Constipation is the root of nine-tenths of the sickness of men, and of a large proportion of the sickness of women. It can be cured easily, naturally and quickly. Nature is continually working as hard as she can to throw off impurities, and to force out poisonous refuse matter. When there is an impediment, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets set the wheels working again without any trouble. They assist nature in a gentle, healthful, efficient way. There is nothing violent about their action, and yet it is just as certain as if it were twice as violent. "You do not become a slave to their use." They are different and better than any other pill for the cure of constipation, headache and kindred derangements. Almost all druggists understand this, and are conscientious enough to tell you so. The druggist who tries to sell you a substitute is not a safe man from whom to buy medicine. Send 31 cents in one-cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive Dr. Pierce's 1008 page "Common Sense Medical Adviser," profusely illustrated.

We beg to advise the public generally that we have disposed of our entire stock in trade to parties whose advertisement will appear in due course.

We take this opportunity of sincerely thanking our many customers and patrons for the liberal patronage we have received from them during the past twenty-three years.

REQUIESCAT.

Gone from us about a year,
Gone to some immortal sphere,
Gone, and yet 'tis strange to hear
Gone is he!
Gone beyond the frost and snow,
Gone the way that mortals go,
Gone from all of human woe,
Gone—and free.

Almost now a year has fled,
Since we laid him in his bed,
By the partner that he wed,
In his prime;
Youth and beauty once had they
And their hopes were fair as day,
What is left but clay to clay,
Hand of time?

Even now his echoes ring
Through the house as he would sing
Talk or laugh or anything,
Echoes plain;
And the last, a mournful note,
When the death was in his throat,
Will it never cease to float
Through the brain?

By the wall there stands his seat,
Low and warm and all complete,
Where he oft the sun would greet
In the morn;
Day by day his tread would pass
Slow and slower, till alas!
None did tramp the growing grass
All forlorn.

With the summer solstice past
He did waken, weaken fast;
And we knew he could not last
Many days;
Naught can strengthen palsied age,
Love nor prayer nor lore of sage,
Death will claim the sinner's wage;
Each one pays.

Toil and sorrow, love and hate,
Youth and middle age and late,
What are these, and wealth and state
Mortal man!
When thou journey'st hence alone,
If thy time with tears be sown,
Tears that tears may not atone,
Neither can? H. R.
