
ARGYLE SHORE BEAVERS

B.Y.C. Wins Title Once Again

B.Y.C. volleyball team once again won the City Volleyball title by defeating the Y.M.C.A. Micmacs 5 games to 1 in a best of nine series last evening.

B.Y.C. has won the City title every year since the league was formed in 1952. They have also won the Island title twice since it originated in 1954.

Members of this winning team are Gump Gillis, Donnie MacLean, Lorne MacKinnon, Bill Coughlan, Alf Coady.

In last night's contest Gillis was playing with a bad leg. This hindered him slightly but he still helped his team enormously. Team Captain Alf Coady was unable to participate in the encounters as he was laid up with the flu.

This weekend three local teams travel to Halifax to compete for the Maritime title. These teams are: Independents, B.Y.C. and the Micmacs. The championships will be played Saturday in H.M.C.S. Stadacona gym, the navy base. Approximately 22 to 24 teams will be taking part in this competition.

Last year B.Y.C. competed for the Maritime title and got as far as the semi-finals where they were knocked out of play by a team from Fairview, N.S., who went to win the title.

Argyle Shore Hockeyists Are Honored By District

On Monday night, April 7, the residents of Argyle Shore gathered in Argyle Hall to do honor to the "Argyle Shore Beavers" - the school hockey team. Mr. Ken MacDougall coach of the team, acted as chairman. He complimented the boys on their excellent showing and fine sportsmanship, and thanked them for cooperating and obeying each and every order. They played at Crapaud rink against Albany Rural, Albany Village, Augustine Cove, Carleton Siding, Carleton North, and Long Creek.

On the final night they played two games, the first against Albany Rural, which they won with a score of 6 to 5 and then against Crapaud, winning again with a score of 10 to 1 entitling them to the Crapaud Board of Trade Cup. Ken MacDougall presented them with a trophy, which was accepted on behalf of the team, by the captain Neil MacPhail. He also presented Harvey Inman with an engraved cup for acquiring the most goals during the season.

Neil MacPhail thanked Ken for his kindness to the boys, for taking them to the rink and helping them in every way possible, and on behalf of the team, presented him with a leather billfold. Ken although taken by surprise thanked the boys for their gift and hoped that some of them would be able to carry on next year. the older boys having to pull out from the school team. The remainder of the evening was spent in music and games. The ladies served lunch.

Athletics & Tigers Win; Deadlocked For Top Spot

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Kansas City Athletics and Detroit Tigers continued to hold the limelight in the American League Wednesday with a pair of victories that left them deadlocked atop the standings.

Kansas City pounded six Cleveland pitchers for 14 hits — including a home run and a pair of doubles by Bob Cerv—to whip the Indians 9-4.

Detroit leaned on Frank Bolling's three-run homer on a three-two pitch with two out in the ninth to decision Chicago White Sox 5-4.

In the only other American League game scheduled Boston Red Sox turned back New York Yankees 3-1.

The only National League game was a night fixture between Los Angeles Dodgers and San Francisco Giants in San Francisco.

VICTIM OF BLAST

Victim of Bolling's last ditch blast was Chicago's Dick Donovan, who was shelled for 12 Tiger hits.

Bolling's clout hit the foul marker on the left field line in Chicago and was an automatic homer although it bounced back into the field.

A second - inning homer by Detroit's Charley Maxwell with none on caromed back into the field after hitting the right field foul standard.

Bolling preceded his homer with three straight singles.

The 10-hit Sox attack against six Detroit pitchers, included a two-run homer by Bubba Phillips off starter Tom Morgan in the second and a none-on homer by Sherm Lollar off Vito Valentinetti in the fifth.

The winner was the fifth Tiger pitcher, George Sepncer.

At Cleveland, Cerv's hitting rampage drove in five runs. The Athletics jumped on starter Ray Narleski for four runs and chased him before he could retire a batter in the first inning.

The victory went to Ralph Terry.

USE COMBINATION

The Red Sox, playing at home, used a combination of Jackie Jensen's two-run homer, Frank Malzone's sharp fielding and clutch pitching by Dave Sisler to nip the Yanks.

Jensen poweerd a Tom Sturdivant offering into the left-centre field screen in the first inning, scoring Gene Stephen's.

Malzone braced Sisler's shaky start with defensive gems at third in the first and second innings. Sisler then rallied and finished off a snapping seven-hit effort.

He lost his shutout bid in the fifth when Hank Bauer doubled and Gil MacDougald drove him in on a wind-blown fly which bounced off the fence just after Stephens lost track of it.

SPORTS FRONT

By PIUS CALLAGHAN

Had you planned on watching Bruins and Canadiens on television this coming Sunday night?

If so, you can go right on with your plans because there is definitely going to be a sixth game in the Stanley Cup finals.

Boston Bruins made that certain for hockey fans Tuesday night and they left little doubt as to the better team as far as that night's play was concerned. They kept coming at the defending champions for the entire sixty minutes, never giving the Montrealers a chance to really get organized.

It was an amazing reversal of form for a team that looked anything but dangerous after Canadiens had blanked them 3-0 Sunday right in Boston Gardens. But if that setback was supposed to discourage the Bostonians from further fight its purpose was certainly not understood by Milt Schmidt and his battering Bruins. They showed little respect for the powerful Habs and thundered through with a well deserved victory.

Now this scene shifts to Montreal Forum for the fifth game Thursday and you can bet your last dollar that both teams want this one and want it badly. It's now a best of three affair and Thursday's winner will take a big stride toward grabbing the coveted Stanley Cup. The sixth game will be played Sunday at Boston with the seventh if necessary back in Montreal on Wednesday night April 23. Originally the seventh was set for Tuesday but the Montreal Forum is not available for that night.

We misled our readers regarding the starting time on television for last Tuesday's game but it was done in good faith. The C. B. C. had planned to come on at 10 o'clock and were advised by CFCY of this. Just when the Evening Patriot was rolling Tuesday afternoon Paul Williams of CFCY phoned us to say his station had been advised that the hour had been changed to 9 o'clock. It was then too late to advise our readers.

There is no doubt about tonight's game, however. The game starts at 9.30 local time and the entire affair will be carried by CFCY TV.

Remember that time again — 9.30 tonight. You can see the game at the Sports Arena, then head home for the telecast.

If you take the trouble to do a little reviewing you will find that this Stanley Cup series is about as even an affair as you could find.

In the four games played Bruins have scored nine times and Canadiens have put the puck behind Simmons on eight occasions.

In the matter of penalties it's almost as close. The Canadiens have been penalized on twenty-seven occasions, not including a misconduct to Bonin. The Boston Bruins have been clipped for 25 penalties for a total of 53 minutes. Canadiens served 55 minutes in the cooler, exclusive of the misconduct. For that penalty the Canadiens did not suffer in manpower.

You can't have it much closer.

Henri Richard and Doug Mohns have drawn the only majors, five minutes each for fighting. The Pocket Rocket leads the offenders for the Canucks — again forgetting the misconduct — with nine minutes. St. Laurent and Pronovost are next with eight minutes each. Talbot, Harvey, Maurice Richard and Jean Beliveau have served six minutes each. MacDonald, Turner and Provost each picked up one minor.

Most penalized player with the Bruins is Doug Mohns with nine minutes. Leo Labine is a close second with eight minutes. Six players collected a total of four minutes each. They were Boone, Horvath, Stanley, MacKell, Boivin and Flaman. Six others served single minors. Those players were Buyck, Toppazini, Johnson, McKenny, Hillman. Boston also received a bench penalty.

Each team has shown a real liking for the other's home ice. Bruins walloped Canadiens 5-2 in Montreal Forum and the Habs blanked the Bruins right in their own backyard.

Now figure it out from here —

Pittsburgh Pirates had a couple of newcomers that spoiled the Pennant-raising ceremony at Milwaukee Tuesday afternoon.

Everything was in readiness for the happiest of days when the Pesky Pirates up and spoiled the whole show.

They did things in such an impolite fashion that Braves' fans won't forget for a long time to come. Of course losing on opening day doesn't mean very much, but to fans like the Milwaukee folks Tuesday's defeat is hard to take.

To start with the Pirates got rid of the venerable Warren Spahn in the very firts inning, anything like a nice way to treat the gentleman that personally started the Braves to the pennant with his 21 victories last season. Then they came from behind in the ninth with a single tally to tie the game and force the issue into extra innings. A pair of new hands named Blackburn and Raydon shared mound duty from the 11th inning on and held the world champions scoreless. Gene Conley who was showing signs of new life late last season was tagged for the winning run in the fourteenth frame.

And it could have been such a pleasant day.

* * * * *

We are batting .500 on our choices in the two major leagues. We have been told that's the best average that we will have all season. We'll just have to wait and see.

Our Los Angeles Dodgers got a really bad lacing from the San Francisco Giants but our choice in the American circuit, Detroit Tigers, came through for us by an eyelash. The Bengals shaded Al Lopez's Chicago White Sox 4-3 and beat the great Billy Pierce in doing so.

Jim Bunning went the distance for the Motor City nine and limited the Sox to seven safeties. All Chicago's runs came in the third when Sherm Lollar homered

Steps Taken To Limit Tourneys

LONDON (AP) — Steps were taken Wednesday to put a limit —both in number of tournaments and expense allowances—on the world's touring amateur tennis players, the so-called "tennis bums."

In a blow at widespread amateur violations, the directing committee of the International Lawn Tennis Federation made the following proposals:

1. That players be limited to 150 days of play each year during which they could draw expense money. Currently there is no limit.

2. That expense allowances be restricted to $11.20 a day, plus travel expenses. Each country now regulates this matter.

3. That a ban be placed on expenses to persons accompanying players to tournaments such as a wife or manager. Exception would be made in case of Davis Cup competition or a team manager appointed by a national association.

4. That the number of so-called national and international tournaments be restricted to three in each country—one each on grass, hard and covered courts.

The proposals must be approved by the general meeting of the ILTF at Brussels, July 9. They would become effective next Jan. 1.

In New York, a spokesman for the U.S. Lawn Tennis Association said he knew the amateur porposals were in the works, but they were more severe than expected.

A British spokesman said he expected the restrictions, if adopted, to be rigidly enforced.

Bruins Spring Surprise Play

MONTREAL (CP) — The lowdown on a "new play" sprung by Boston Bruins in their Stanley Cup game Tuesday against Montreal Canadiens became known Wednesday.

The play involved removal of the goalie, in favor of an extra forward, when there is a "slow-whistle" penalty.

Coach Milt Schmidt and general manager Lynn Patrick of the Bruins have long considered trying the play. The spectators in Boston Garden and TV-viewers saw goalie Don Simmons skate for the Boston bench in the third period. Then he was waved back by the grinning Schmidt.

The Bruins were leading 3-0 at the time nad referee Red Storey had signalled a penalty against Jean-Guy Talbot of Montreal. The Bruins were in possession of the puck. Storey could only keep signalling the penalty but could not blow his whistle until a Montreal player touched the puck.

It was during this interval that Schmidt motioned to Simmons but sent him back as the whistle sounded. Schmidt was perfectly safe in his move because play stops the instant the oppositoin touches the puck.

Durelle Signed For May Bout

MONTREAL (CP) — Yvon Durelle, British Empire lightheavyweight champion form Baie Ste. Anne, N.B., and Germinal Ballerin, high-ranking French boxer, Wednesday were signed to a 10-round bout here Wednesday, May 21.

Protest Filed Against Ruling Of Umpire

CINCINNATI (AP)—Gabe Paul, general manager of Cincinnati Redlegs, Wednesday filed a formal protest against an umpire's ruling in Tuesday's opening baseball game here which Philadelphia Phillies won 5-4. He asked that the game be replayed.
