CONTRACT BRIDGE

North dealer. Neither side vulnerable. NORTH: ♠ 9 4 2, ♥ K Q 6, ♦ K 10 8, ♣ A Q 10 5. WEST: ♠ A 10 8 7 3, ♥ 7 4 2, ♦ Q 6 2, ♣ 4 3. EAST: ♠ Q 6, ♥ 10 9 5 3, ♦ 7 5 4, ♣ K 7 6 2. SOUTH: ♠ K J 5, ♥ A J 8, ♦ A J 9 3, ♣ J 9 8.

The bidding: North East South West 1 NT Pass 2 NT Pass 3 NT. Opening lead—seven of spades. Nine tricks are easy enough to make. All declarer has to do is win the opening spade lead, finesse West out of his queen of diamonds and there they are, all nine of them.

Looking at 52 cards, there's nothing to it. But how should South play when he sees only 26 cards? Is there a safe and sure way to make nine tricks without knowing who has the king of clubs or which opponent has the queen of diamonds?

BEDTIME STORIES. Afraid To Try

Be sure that he will never fly. Who fears his wings to even try. —Hooty the Owl. Tubby Bear, one of Mother Bear's triplets, had had a fall. He had started to climb up in a tall tree growing close to his home. It was the first time he had ever tried it. The lowest limb was not very high above the ground, though it seemed so to him.

Now what the three little cubs living under the big pile of brush didn't know was that high up near the top of that tall tree was a big nest. And in that nest were two babies. It was the nest of Hooty and Mrs. Hooty, biggest Owls in all the Green Forest. Those babies were theirs. They really were rather big to be called babies, for they were almost ready to fly. In fact, they could have flown if they had dared to try. The little piece of meat that had tempted Cubby Bear to start to climb that tree had been knocked from the edge of the nest by one of those young Owls. He had been exercising his wings. He had been flapping them, up and down and up and down pretending he was flying, but all the time taking great care not to let those big wings lift him off the nest.

Report Huge Timber Purchase

RUMFORD, Me. (AP)—The Oxford Paper Co., which claims the title of being "the largest mill under one roof in the world," said Monday it has made one of the largest single purchases of timberlands in Maine's history. The company said it signed a purchase agreement to take title to undivided interests of approximately 70 per cent in 203,000 acres of softwood lands, principally in northern Somerset and Piscataquis counties. The company also acquired 23,100 acres in other parts of the state, with a total of approximately 185,000 acres involved in the transaction. The price was not disclosed.

Note Changed Political Atmosphere Under Franco

MADRID (Reuters) — Spain's cabinet changes suggest the Franco regime is becoming more flexible and tending toward greater liberalism in politics and trade. Political observers say the Falange has lost its monopoly in Spain's political life. And they say now is clear for a reasonable collaboration of the Falangists, the Roman Catholics, and the Monarchists.

A feeling of change is in the air, with the middle and upper classes expressing frank approval of the cabinet shuffle. But the workers show reserve. They are wondering whether the disappearance of Jose Antonio Giron from the labor ministry means a painful change in policy. SAD DEPARTURE. Giron introduced radical social health a labor union reforms during his 16 years in office. Women wept and children kissed his hand as he drove off from the labor ministry building last week to again become a private citizen.
