THE SERFS OF RUSSIA.

Flogging them was one of the duties of the Police.

Father will not be appeased, says Prince Kropothin in The Atlantic. He said to his son, the piano tuner and subbutler, and reminds him of all his recent sins. He was drunk last week and must have been drunk yesterday, for he broke half a dozen plates. In fact, the breaking of these plates was the real cause of all the disturbance. Stepmother had reported the fact to father in the morning, and that was why Uliana was received with more scolding than was usually the case, why the verification of the hay was undertaken and why father continued to shout that "this progeny of Ham" deserved all the punishment on earth.

All of a sudden there is a lull in the storm. My father has taken his seat at the table and writes a note to the police station. "Take Makar with this note to the police station, and let 100 lashes with the birch rod be given to him."

Terror and absolute muteness reign in the house.

The clock strikes 4, and we all go down to dinner, but no one has any appetite, and the soup remains in the plates untouched. We are ten at table, and behind each one of us a violinist or a trombone player stands, with a clean plate in his left hand, but Makar is not among them.

"Where is Makar?" stepmother asks.

"Call him in."

Makar does not appear, and the order is repeated. He enters at last, pale, with a distorted face, ashamed, his eyes cast down. Father looks into his plate, while stepmother, seeing that no one has touched the soup, tries to encourage us.

"Don't you find, children," she says, "that the soup is delicious?"

Tears suffocate me, and immediately after dinner is over I run out, catch Makar in a dark passage and try to kiss his hand, but he tears it away and says, either as a reproach or as a question, "Let me alone. And you, too, when you are grown up, will be just the same?"

"No, no; never."

Yet father was not of the worst of landowners. On the contrary, the servants and the peasants considered him to be one of the best. What we saw in our house was going on everywhere, often in much more cruel forms. The flogging of the serfs was a regular part of the duties of the police.

Miss Elsie Reasoner is a Kansas girl. Miss Reasoner had charge of the bureau of publicity at Omaha when the war broke out, but she at once resigned her place and went away with the soldiers, going first to Kingston, Jamaica. Miss Florence Nightingale, who has never recovered from the effects of her labors during the Crimean war, presents in this respect a strong contrast to Miss Clara Barton, who, in the midst of her Red Cross work, is nearly as old as her English prototype and who says she feels as well as she ever did in her life.

DEADLY CATARRH
has fastened its relentless grip upon some member of nearly every family in the land. Competent authorities estimate that from eighty to ninety per cent. of the entire population of this continent suffer from some form of this repulsive and dangerous malady. If you or any of your family suffer either from recognized catarrh or from the lingering colds which mark its early stages—don't trifle with it. It is the precursor of consumption and death.

Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder never fails. It is the remedy of all remedies, endorsed by the most experienced and eminent nose and throat specialists of the day, and having a record of a multitude of radical, permanent cures of chronic cases which had been declared incurable. It also cures cold in the head, influenza, hay fever, loss of smell, deafness, sore throat, tonsillitis, asthma and all similar diseases. It is delightful to use.

"I have had chronic catarrh ever since the war," says J. C. Taylor, of 230 N. Clinton Ave., Trenton, N. J. "I had despaired of ever being cured. I used three bottles of Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder and my catarrh has entirely left me." Rev. C. E. Whitcomb, rector of St. Matthew's Episcopal Church, Hamilton, Ont., was a great sufferer. He used Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder, and now proclaims it a safe, simple and certain cure. The Lord Bishop of Toronto, Can., recommends the remedy over his own signature. Sold by druggists.

PLAIN WORDS, THESE

Mr. W. H. Bowser Tells of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Say's He's Proved Them to be all They're Claimed to be—A Positive Cure for Kidney Complaints.

St. John, N. B., Feb. 15.—Among the business men and commercial travellers of this province, no man is better known, more popular, nor more highly and justly esteemed, than is Mr. W. H. Bowser, a genial "Knight of the Grip," whose home is in this city.

Mr. Bowser is known to be a man whose word is as good as his bond, and who could not possibly be induced to originate nor countenance an incorrect statement, no matter how important it might be.

Knowing this, our readers will at once see that the statement Mr. Bowser makes below, will carry conviction to the most sceptical person.

Mr. Bowser says: "I believe Dodd's Kidney Pills to be a splendid tonic. They're good enough for me, at any rate. 'I may say that I have used them for severe pains and aches in the back, and have proved them to be all it is claimed they are, viz., a positive cure for Kidney troubles such as mine.'"

Now, two things are made apparent by Mr. Bowser's statement.

One is that the great Kidney Remedy—Dodd's Kidney Pills, cured him from Kidney Disease, as indicated by backache, etc. The other is that Dodd's Kidney Pills will cure any other case of this disease.

This is good news to the thousands who are suffering the tortures of Kidney Complaint. They can be cured. They may have used other remedies, which did them no good. Dodd's Kidney Pills will cure them. There is no doubt, nor uncertainty about it.

Dodd's Kidney Pills are sold by all druggists at fifty cents a box, six boxes $2.50, or sent, on receipt of price by the Dodd's Medicine Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
