N. Y. STOCKS

NEW YORK (AP)—Many gains by steels and motors faded Monday as the stock market went a late sinking spell.

Gains which had run to two or three point earlier were cut to fraction or converted into losses.

Generally, the range of losses stretched to about three points at worst among pivotal stocks.

The market was obiously hesitant at the start because of the dubious situation regarding the Suez Canal crisis. While the London stock market steadied because of Egyptian President Nasser's proposal for a negotiating group, the effect of this was fleeting in New York after the news came that Britain had cold shouldered the idea.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks fell 50 cents to $183.80.
