POLICE COURT.—This forenoon a young man named John Rogers, arrested on a charge of vagrancy, was remanded until Monday, as he showed symptoms of insanity. The Scott Act cases against Henrietta Connolly and Lucy Gallant were adjourned until Monday next.

PRINCE STREET SCHOOL.—Hon. T. Heath Haviland visited Prince Street School yesterday and addressed the pupils of the advanced classes. His subject was "British History, as found in Shakespeare's play of King John." The address was well delivered and greatly appreciated.

MUTES MARRIED.—The Sackville Post says: A young man from Havelock and a young lady from Turtle Creek, A. C., both deaf and dumb were married at Turtle Creek last Saturday evening, the questions and responses being written on a slate. The parties became acquainted some three years ago at the deaf and dumb institute at Fredericton.

TWO BRAWLS IN LOVE.—A respectable man reported to the S. P. C. yesterday that his daughter had left home and would not return. He wanted her to marry a certain young man, but she preferred the hand of another. Lover No. 1 is anxious to have the girl return home and marry him at once. Lover No. 2 carries a revolver, which he says he will use on his rival if he attempts to take the girl from where she is now residing.—Halifax Herald.

ONE MEAN MAN DEAD.—David Robinson, an aged hermit, known on Long Island as "Double David," was recently bereft from the home of his son, in Montreal. The old man died from exposure during the recent severe storm. He was found on the floor unconscious. Robinson, who weighed 300 pounds, was 75 years of age. He is said to have left a fortune of $50,000. He was married three times, and each wife deserted him because he would not provide her with proper food and clothing.

FIRE.—The Pioneer reports that the farm house of Mr. Wm. Rielly, of Locke's Shore, was nearly burned on evening last week. Mr. Rielly and most of the family had left but a short time previously. The fire broke out in a closet under the stairs. The clothing was all in a blaze as well as the children at home quickly got water from the well and happily were able to put the fire out. The mystery is how the fire originated, as it was only the upper parts of the clothing which were burned. Scarcely anything on the floor was touched.

LECTURE AND ENTERTAINMENT.

The hall at Kelly's Cross, Lot 29, was well filled on the evening of the 20th inst., on the occasion of a grand lecture and entertainment held under the auspices of St. Joseph's Literary Society. The lecturer of the evening was Mr. Kane, U. S. Consul in P. E. Island, who kindly accepted the invitation of our Spiritual Director, Rev. P. A. McElmeel, and thus conferred a distinguished honor on the people of Kelly's Cross, as it is the first time they had the pleasure of hearing a lecture from a representative of the United States. The lecturer, who of course is a true patriot, naturally took for his subject the "Resources of the United States," and it is needless to say he handled his subject well. He showed in detailed facts the rapid progress made by this country since its formation as a republic, and also in what relation she stood to the other great countries of the world. At the same time he did not advise any person comfortably situated, to leave their island, the "Garden of the Gulf," but thought it would be better to "leave well enough alone."

The entertainment in connection with the lecture consisted chiefly of vocal and instrumental music, readings and recitations, and it must be said with truth that the programme in all the different parts was carried out to perfection. The recitation of little Miss Bay, of Cranford, deserves special mention, as it was a surprising effort for a child of her tender years:

PROGRAMME. Part I. Overture, instrumental.....Miss Hannah M. Flood

Solo.....Mrs. Hugh Campbell
Recitation.....Little Miss Venus Day
Instrumental.....Rev. P. A. McElmeel
Song.....Hannah M. Flood and Hannah Smith

Reading.....Ursula Flood
Solo.....Anthony McDonald
Solo.....Rev. P. A. McElmeel
Lecture.....Mr. Kane, U. S. Consul

Part II. Violin Duet.....Miss Caroline and Master Anthony McDonald

Solo.....Mrs. Hugh Campbell
Recitation.....Little Miss Venus Day
Solo.....John Flood
Reading.....John Smith
Solo.....Patk. Monaghan
Violin solo (by request).....J. J. Johnston
Solo.....Rev. P. A. McElmeel

The accompanists were J. H. Monaghan and Miss Caroline McDonald.

After the rendition of the programme, a hearty vote of thanks to the lecturer was proposed in a few well chosen remarks by Mr. John Smith, president, seconded by J. J. Bradley, and ably supported by John Bradley, Esq. It was tendered the lecturer by the Chairman, Rev. P. A. McElmeel, in his usual happy manner. He also took the opportunity of thanking the audience for their presence, as well as those who had contributed to the evening's amusement. After the singing of the National Anthem, the audience dispersed.

MATTHIAS SMITH, Secretary.

SCOTT ACT.—Summonses for persons charged with violating the Scott Act have been served on the following individuals: W. W. Jenkins, Mrs. LeWell, Mrs. O'Brien and P. Lavers, Georgetown; Henry Norton, Isabella McAulay, Sturgeon; Captain Martin, Dundas. These summonses are returnable before Stipendiary Magistrate Blanchard on the 6th March.

AT WEDNESDAY.—St. Peter's Cathedral: Holy Communion, 7.45; Matins, 9 a. m.; Communion Service and Holy Communion, 11 a. m.; Children's Service, 4.30 p. m.; Litany, 5 p. m.; Evensong and Address, 7.30 p. m.; Thursday, Evensong and Meditation 5 p. m.

AT THE RINK.—The attendance of skaters at the Rink last night was the largest on any band night this season, and the ice was excellent. The mile race was easily won by "Jimmie" Williams, with Dewar second and Fleigher third.

The supreme mistake of Lord Randolph Churchill when he resigned the Chancellorship of the Exchequer, expecting to be taken back into the Cabinet on his own terms, was in his forgetting Mr. Goschen. When told at a party by his hostess that Lord Salisbury had sent for that gentleman, he felt as if he had been dipped in cold water, his heart assuring him the news was true.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Thomas D. Rogers has THE EXAMINER'S thanks for late Florida papers. We are pleased to learn that Mr. J. G. MacPhail has recovered from his late illness.

Mr. John P. Sullivan, St. Peter's Bay, was registered at the Queen Hotel last evening.

Hon. John Yeo, Port Hill, and John McLean, M. P., Souris, registered at the Hotel Davies this forenoon.

Rev. Dr. Lathern, the present editor of the Wesleyan, has been tendered an invitation to the Synod of the Methodist Church at Sackville, N. B., to take effect at the conference in June.

Mr. G. W. Milner has been publishing an interesting series of papers on Port La Jolie (the French city that preceded Charlottetown) in his journal, the Chignecto Post. Mr. Milner accumulated the material for his articles during a visit to his island last summer.

The funeral of the late Captain Thomas Walsh took place in Summerside at 10 o'clock to-day. It was very largely attended. Messrs. Milton Walsh, of the Marine Department; Mr. Moore, of the Inland Revenue Department, and Mr. W. L. Cotton, editor of THE EXAMINER, were in attendance from Charlottetown.

The Rev. Father Burke, of Alberton, came to this city last evening and returned home this morning. He says that the Guardian's statement that the meeting at Alberton in the interests of a cheese factory "did nothing definite" is not true. A live committee have the canvass in hand, and he expects to see a first-class factory in full blast as early as any other in the spring. "The people of the West have accepted the gospel of the Dairy Commissioner in its entirety, and even if late in the field, will contest the palm with the oldest portions of the Province," said Father Burke to us.

Talk About Styles.

Some people, talking about Nobby and Stylish Hats, reminds us of a young man not a thousand miles away from this city, on hearing the fire bell one very dark night, jumped out of bed, and without lighting the lamp attempted to get on his clothes in a hurry; but after pulling and tugging for some 10 or 15 minutes to get into what he thought was his pants, decided to light up, and to his astonishment found it was his coat! Now that is the way with —. They may pull and tug, holler and shout Styles, till no person can have them but themselves; but when they get the light of 15 years' experience turned on them, they find that Hats are made to suit the people and not the people to suit the Hats. Now we claim, after making Hats our specialty for 14 or 15 years, to know what the styles are and what the people want in this line, always taking particular care not to sell a man a Hat that does not suit him. We cordially invite inspection of our new stock, and if the styles, qualities and prices do not suit we will not ask you to buy, but will consider you have done us a favor in looking them over.
