MR. JAMES GAMBLE, who has been for the past week examining the different sources of water supply in the vicinity of Charlottetown, left for New York this morning.

FRANK LESLIE'S Popular Monthly for September may be had at the Diamond Bookstore. It is a number of more than usual interest to Canadians—opening as it does with autographies of Canada's greatest statesmen.

A STRANGER in our city noticing in early morning that the street lamps remained lighted, asked the reason why they were allowed to burn all night. Oh! was the reply; You see they are too small to go out after dark.

The platform on Great George Street, from Beales' corner northward, has been torn up. It is much better to have even the bare earth rather than dilapidated, treacherous plankways. Other parts of the city might be similarly treated.

"The Maiden Tribute of Modern Babylon," being the report of the Pall Mall Gazette's secret commission, has been received at the Diamond Bookstore, but the first supply sold so rapidly that a further quantity has been ordered and will arrive in a few days.

The Masonic Picnic at Cape Traverse today is quite successful. Seven cars, loaded with excursionists from Charlottetown and four from Summerside arrived at the grounds this morning, besides an immense number attended from the surrounding country.

We learn that three rows, the property of Whedley & Son, jumped overboard from the steamer Southport while on the passage from West River yesterday evening. A boat was after some time lowered, and an attempt made to drive them ashore, but we have not heard with what success.

FIRE AT NORTHAM.—The Pioneer says we are exceedingly sorry to learn that the store of Mr. T. H. Pope, of Northam, was on Saturday night reduced to ashes with nearly all its contents. The upper part had been used as a dwelling, but fortunately Mr. Pope had moved into his new house a few days before. It will be remembered that only a few months ago he lost his large warehouse in the same way, without a dollar insurance. We have been unable to learn what insurance was on the store and its contents. Mr. Pope is an upright, good citizen, and has the sympathy of the country round.

"FRED HANLAN."—Last Saturday George Hughes, Esq., purchased from A. C. Dennis the famous trotting colt, "Fred Hanlan." This horse was raised by Wm. R. Dennis, Jr., Margate, and is a three-quarter brother of the well known "Hanlan," now owned in Nova Scotia, which, though only 5 years old, recently trotted a full mile on Truro Park in 2:32. "Fred Hanlan" is 4 years old, and weighs about 1,600 pounds. He is of splendid stock, and can trot considerably under three minutes. Being of fair style, carriage and action, he has no superior in the city, and is a horse of which Mr. Hughes may justly be proud.

Two Brutal Sluggers.

139 ROUNDS FOUGHT.

A desperate slugging match took place five miles east of Bruceville, Illinois, on the morning of the 18th, between Adam Patterson, saloon keeper, and George Mulvey, miner, both from Bruceville, for a purse of $500. Mulvey knocked Patterson out after 129 rounds. The stakes were driven just across the line in Kankakee county. At 5.15 o'clock about 800 persons assembled, when time was called. The men fought with five ounce hard gloves. Each man weighed about 185 pounds, but Patterson was slightly taller than his opponent. At the commencement odds were given in favor of Patterson, but after the 50th round Mulvey was the favorite, although he got some very hard knocks. He punished his opponent severely, and when the 139th round was called, Patterson was so exhausted that he could not speak, but shook his head. His second helped him up, to make him come to the scratch, but he fell to the ground. Mulvey was as fresh as in the first round. The battle lasted two and a half hours.

REV. DR. TALMAGE'S business manager has made a proposition to a number of American newspapers to supply them with advance copies of the sermons that the Reverend Doctor is to deliver in England, the sermons to be printed here on the morning after their delivery, the hint being thrown out that they may be used as if sent as special cablegrams. The modest sum of $10 is asked of each paper that accepts the proposition. Talmage's Brooklyn sermons are furnished to newspapers in the same way and at the same rate. Talmage is the great money catcher of the American pulpit, and whatever he does is done on business principles.

The Lake Superior Silver District.

The Thunder Bay Sentinel has published a map of the new silver region near Port Arthur. The reports from silver Mountain, which is about forty miles west of Port Arthur, are enthusiastic, and it is said that five-sixths of one mine has been sold for $25,000, although no information has yet been made public that demonstrates that amount of value in all the mines yet opened. From all the reports we have received concerning this new mineral district it would appear to be an attractive field for prospectors and capitalists, though the latter class should invariably be accompanied by competent experts. The parties who own the prospects thus far discovered are for the most part men with means wholly inadequate to develop or successfully work mines; but, with the exaggerated confidence of ignorance, they are all convinced that a prospect is a mine, and they accordingly put prices upon their property which are far too high for any capitalist to pay. It may be that a few bonanzas near the surface may be worked with profit; but the present owners, or those buying at their prices, will have to go through the usual experience until the owners get educated up to the appreciation of the fact that the value of a mine is the net value of the ore actually proved by shafts and levels, and that the man who invests his money to work a mine is the man who takes all the risk, and should have most of the chances in his favor.

A Wicked Maiden.

She was lying In a hammock, softly sighing In her sleep (Vulgar people call it snoring) To her side I silent creep. Ah, how fair! From tiny foot to golden hair Her I love, And the rose upon her cheek Outshines the rose that twines above.

But the breeze, Stealing softly through the trees, Moves a rose. And a petal gently parted Falls like dew upon her nose.

How she quivers, And from head to foot she shivers As she cries, Half in dreamy, vexed awakening, Half unconscious, "D—n the flies!"
