Cards Take 2 From Brooks; White Sox And Yanks Win

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

For the first time in at least eight years the St. Louis Cardinals swept a doubleheader from Brooklyn Sunday, defeating the Dodgers 7-6 and 8-4 to advance from fifth to second place in the five-team National League race.

The Milwaukee Braves rteained first place, defeating the fourth-place Philadelphia Phillies 3-2 in the first game only to lost the second game 1-0 despite a one-hit pitching performance by Lew Burdette.

The New York Giants dropped the Cincinnati Redlegs into third place, coming from behind to win 4-3, on pinch hitter Don Mueller's three-run homer in the eighth inning. The Chicago Cubs won their third straight over Pittsburgh 4-1 before the Pennsylvania curfew halted the second game with the score tied at 4-4 in the top of the seventh.

SOX BOOST MARGIN

The Chicago White Sox increased their first-place margin over the New York Yankees to 3 ½ games in the American League race, defeating Washington twice 4-2 and 8-6. The Yankees remained two games in front of Detroit, defeating Kansas City 8-6 in 10 innings.

The Tigers also had to go 10 innings to win, edging out the Boston Red Sox 2-1 on Harvey Kuenn's home run. Cleveland's fourth-place Indians remained 6 ½ games off the pace by turning back Baltimore twice 5-1 and 4-3.

Stan Musial, the veteran slugging star, and a pair of relief pitchers, young Von McDaniel and Hoyt Wilhelm, shared the laurels in the Cards' sweep over the Dodgers. Musial collected five hits in the twin bill to raise his batting average .364 and extend his hitting streak through 16 consecutive games.

His three-run homer in the sixth inning tied the opener at 6-6 before Ken Boyer's game-winning homer. His single in the sixth of the nightcap ignited a winning four-run rally.

McDaniel, 18-year-old younger brother of Lindy McDaniel, also with the Cardinals, hurled four scoreless relief innings in the first game, permitting only one hit to register his first major league triumph.

The youngster, who received a reported $50,000 bonus for signing less than two weeks ago, had hurled four scoreless relief innings against Philadelphia in his only other mound appearance, last Thursday. In all, he has given up two hits, walked none and struck out nine in eight innings.

RETIRES 12 STRAIGHT

Wilhelm, coming to the rescue of Willard Schmidt in the sixth inning of the nightcap, after the Dodgers had broken through for two runs with nobody out, retired 12 straight Dodger batters to nail down Schmidt's sixth triumph in seven decisions.

Red Schoendienst, playing his first game for Milwaukee, sparkled at second base contributed a single and triple, and scored a run in the Braves' first game victory over Philadelphia. Young Juan Pizarro turned in a four-hitter to win his third game for the Braves.

Joe Lonnett's sixth - inning double, the only hit given up by Burdette, was turned into the second game's only run as Curt Simmons blanked the Braves with six hits in the nightcap.

Bobby Thomson, one of the three Braves acquired by the Giants from Milwaukee for Schoendienst, ignited the winning rally in the eighth with his second single. Another singel by Daryl Spencer finished Don Gross. The first pitch by his reliever, Tom Acker, was hit by Mueller into the right field stands.

Home runs by Jim Bolger, Ernie Banks and Walt Moryn accounted for all the Cubs' runs in the first game against Pittsburgh as Chicago climbed to within 16 percentage points of the seventh-place Pirates. The suspended second game will be resumed at a later date.

PITCHER HOMERS TWICE

Relief pitcher Dixie Howell hammered two successive home runs to spark the White Sox to a comeback second - game victory after they had trailed Washington 6-0 early in the game. A four-run eighth inning put Chicago ahead for the firstt ime.

After pinch hitter Earl Torgeson had singled in the tying run, relief pitcher Dick Hyde forced over the two winning runs with a pair of bases-loaded walks.

A pair of two-run homers by Minnie Minoso and Jim Rivera, the latter's blow breaking a 2-2 tie in the sixth, won the opener for Chicago.

A three-run 10th inning, highlighted by Elston Howard's two-run single, gave the Yankees their seventh straight triumph over Kansas City.

Billy Martin, playing his first game for Kansas City after Saturday night's trade that brought Harry Simpson to New York, homered in the eighth to give his team a temporary 4-3 lead. After Enos Slaughter's pinch double in the ninth put the Yankees ahead 5-4, the As tied it in their half on Hal Smith's homer.

Kuenns 10th inning homer gave Jim Bunning his sixth straight triumph and his seventh in eight decisions. Bunnng permitted only three hts and fanned six to take over the league leadership in strikeouts with 76. The loser was Mike Fornieles, making his first start for Boston since he was traded by Baltimore Friday for Billy Goodman.

Early Wynn won his eighth game of the season for Cleveland with a six-hitter against Baltimore that was spiced with home runs by Al Smith and Dick Williams. A two-run single by rookie Roger Maris in the eighth enabled the Indians to come from behind for their first-game triumph.

New Brunswick Rifle Team Wins Maritime Rifle Shoot

SUSSEX (CP) — Eight keen-eyed New Brunswickers—seven men and a woman—outshot two other teams of eight to win the annual inter-Maritime rifle shoot on the Sussex Rifle Range Saturday.

The New Brunswick score of 800 was too good for Nova Scotia, seeking to defend the honors won last year, and Prince Edward Island. The Nova Scotians were runners-up with a total of 793, and Prince Edward Island finished well to the rear with a 785 mark. Possible score was 840.

Although the final margin of New Brunswick over Nova Scotia was a substantial seven points, it was not earned until the late stages and the result was in doubt almost to the end.

New Brunswick took the lead in the first stage, fired at 200 yards. There the host province scored 268 out of 280 to lead Prince Edward Island by two and Nova Scotia by four. R.Q.M.S. R.J. Staplefords, of Sussex, scored the only possible 35 for New Brunswick, while Lieut. G.L. Rogers and lieut. Mary MacLennan equalled his mark to keep the Islanders close.

Staplefords' second possible, at 500 yards, was matched by perfect scores from mates Claude MacFarlane, of St. Andrews, and R.C.M.P. Cpl. W.M. Beatty, of sussex, and the team's total for the intermediate stage climbed to 270. with C.C. Strong, A. Debodt and G.S. Higgins turning in like scores, Nova Scotia posted a 272 to close the New Brunswick margin to two points. Rogers kept pace with Stapleford with his second straight possible, and Sgt. A.M. Johnson also had a 35, but the other Islanders dropped off to leave them six points off the pace.

There was no change in the New Brunswick - Nova Scotia situation when the first men completed shooting at 600 yards. The second Nova Scotian edged the second New Brunswicker by one. The third Nova Scotian did likewise and the teams were tied.

MacFarlane, shooting in his first inter-Maritime match, came through with another possible, in the fourth New Brunswick slot. His Nova Scotian counterpart had 31. That was the turning point, for it was the only possible from the long range. The remaining New Brunswickers ran the lead to seven points before calling it quits.

Their 600 - yard total was 262 against 257 for Nova Scotia and 253 for Prince Edward Island.

MacFarlane and Beatty shared individual honors. Each had a total of 103. After an opening 33, MacFarlane turned in two possibles. Beatty had 34's in front of and behind his possible at 500 yards. Stapleford finished with 32 at 600 yards after his two possibles for a 102 total. Equalled by Nova Scotia's A.R. Mosheer on three scores of 34.

Other members of the New Brunswick team were S.J. McAdam, of Saint John, 98; Mrs. Theresa Hughes, Newcastle, 99; Sgt. F.G. Palmer, Saint John, 100; WO. 2 R.G. Ferris, Saint John, 98, and A.S. Emery, Saint John, 97. The team was Lt. -Col. W.F. Roberts of Fredericton, President of the New Brunswick Rifle Association, and J.L. Ward of Moncton, was coach.

Lieut. MacLennan, a veteran of inter-maritime shoots and a former Canadian representative at Bisley, finished with a score of 101 to edge the only other woman competitor, Mrs. Hughes, by two points.

The trophy and individual prizes to members of the winning team were presented at a dinner in the officers mess of the 2 - 8 Canadian Hussars (Princess Louise's). The trophy was presented by Lt.-Col. R.L. Simmonds, coach of the Nova Scotians and past president of the Nova Scotia Rifle Association, and was accepted by ol. Roberts.

Major C.E. Bent, president of the N.S.R.A., and Ralph Jenkins, president of the P.E.I.R.A., congratulated the victors. Lt.-Col. R.S. McLeod, commanding officer of the 2-8 Canadian Hussars, welcomed the rifle shots to the mess Col. Roberts was chairman, and others at the head table were Mrs. Roberts and Major Buchan of Moncton, representing Brig. A.C. Ross, commanding No. 5 Militia Group.

Gallant Man Wins Belmont

By JOHN CHANDLER

NEW YORK (AP)—Gallant Man, sensational little colt from Ireland, caught Bold Ruler in the final quarter mile Saturday and pulled away to an eight - length victory while setting an American record in winning the $113,350 Belmont Stakes

The Irish horse not only became the first Irish horse to win the classic for three-year-olds but was only the fourth foreign-bred colt ever to capture the 1½-mile race since its inception in 1867 He is owned by Ralph Lowe of Midland, Tex, who dreamed that his jockey stood up in the saddle in the Kentucky Derby and then saw the night mare come true

Willie Shoemaker, who made that error in the Derby May 4, wasn't caught snoring this time He put Gallant Man on the trail of Bold Ruler and jockey Eddie Arcaro in the middle of the final bend Then, as the crowd of 36,094 roared with excitement, Shoemaker shot Gallant Man in front and the little son of Migoli-Majideh pulled away for one of the easiest wins in recent renewals of the stakes

His time of 2:26 3-5 smashed the American record of 2:27 3-5 set by the five-year-old Bolingbroke in 1942 on this same track The clocking also compared to the stakes record of 2:28 1-5
