LONDON (CP)—Pompey is dead but not forgotten. The hooves and tail of this 19-year-old Royal Horse Guards steed, who took part in the Coronation procession, have been mounted in the regional museum and the public has expressed its sorrow in hundreds of letters.

Gavilan And Bratton Sign For Title Fight

CHICAGO, (AP)—Kid Gavilan of Havana and Johnny Bratton of Chicago have signed for a world welterweight championship fight in Chicago Stadium Nov. 13.
The agreement was announced Friday by James D. Norris, president of the International Boxing Club. He said negotiations for the match had been in progress for two months.
Gavilan, Norris said, had objected to the date because he was the victim of a "home town decision" in his last Chicago fight which ended in a draw with Bratton.

STANLEY CUP
Symbolic of the world's hockey championship, it was donated in 1893 by Lord Stanley, a Governor General of Canada. Prior to 1908 the Stanley Cup was competed for by amateur clubs, but since that time it has been played for solely by professionals.

The reason why champions choose C.C.M.'s can be summed up in just one word... craftsmanship. Yes, C.C.M.'s are made by men with years of experience in designing and building Matched Skating Sets... men who know how to select the best top grain leather... men who know how to heat treat steels for toughness and durability... how to match skate and shoe then rivet them together to make a firm, safe set that glides straight and true.
And when champions select their hockey sticks, you'll find tough C.C.M. "Resilobonded" Laminated Hockey Sticks are the overwhelming choice.
You can buy a genuine C.C.M. Matched Skating Set for as low as $9.75 from any of more than 3,000 C.C.M. dealers across Canada.
