

Rookie Forwards Will Have Better Chance With Habs

MONTREAL (CP)—The way things are shaping up at Montreal Canadiens' training camp it looks as if a forward will have better chance than a defenseman among the rookie contingent for a job with the National Hockey League champions.

Coach Toe Blake said Wednesday that, barring accidents, he plans to go along with five defensemen when the season opens.

Otherwise, Blake was non-committal, but it's a good guess that the five will be regulars from last season—Doug Harvey, Tom Johnson, Bob Turner, Jean-Guy Talbot and Albert Junior Langlois.

Six were carried last season largely because of the injuries. Harvey missed 19 games and Langlois 28. Ian Cushman, the sixth man, was used in only 35 games and was drafted at the NHL annual meeting last June by New York Rangers.

Up forward Blake still has four complete lines from last season. But it was there that injuries hit unusually heavily, particularly scoring stars Rocket Richard and Boom Boom Geoffrion.

MUST SLIM FIELD

There was also a falling off in production here and there among some regulars with the club a couple of years or so. These are the ones who will have to produce now. There are too many prospects in camp and Blake doesn't figure on carrying 13 forwards when all are healthy.

Among the likely prospects so far at the camp are three forwards who played last season with Rochester of the American Hockey League. They are Billy Hicke, Billy Carter and Cec Heekstra.

Hicke, a 21-year-old Regina boy, won the AHL scoring title and was called up for Stanley Cup playoffs. He got into one game.

Dickie Moore, NHL scoring leader the last two seasons, said he would like to hit the jackpot for three in a row.

KEEP IN FAMILY

"That would be fine," said Dickie. "But if I miss I won't worry about it so long as one of our boys gets in there. We want to keep the scoring title in the family."

Ralph Backstrom, who won the NHL rookie award last season, apparently isn't afraid of the sophomore jinx.

"My first season in the NHL was certainly all I expected; it's really tough," said Backstrom. "But I think I can do better. I have put on some weight, 170 pounds now compared with 162 when I finished the season and I think that will help."

Backstrom scored 18 goals and 22 assists last season in 64 games. He said he probably played in only about 45 because of early season bench-warming.

TENNIS WINNERS

Australia's Neale Fraser and Brazil's Maria Bueno pose with trophies after they won the men's and women's singles titles in the U.S. tennis championships at Forest Hills. Maria beat Great Britain's Christine Truman, 6-1, 6-4. Fraser whipped a listless Alex Olmedo, 6-3, 6-2, 6-4.

Braves Blank Giants 2-0; Yankees Halt White Sox

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Milwaukee Braves, with Lew Burdette pitching five-hit ball for his 21st victory, moved within a game of pace-setting San Francisco in the National League Wednesday as Chicago White Sox's magic number in the American League was reduced to three.

In the first of their two-game head-on clash series with the Giants, the defending champions twice broke through Sam Jones, who also was after his 21st pitching triumph, for a 2-0 victory.

The White Sox dropped 3-1 decision to New York Yankees. But they moved into a position where three victories or Cleveland defeats will clinch their first pennant in 40 years. The Indians bowed to Boston Red Sox, 6-5. The White Sox lead by 5½ games with seven games to play. The Indians have eight.

BRAVES BUNCH HITS

Jones and Stu Miller, who hurled the ninth, gave the Braves only eight hits. The champions, however, bunched two of them with a walk for a run in the fourth and put together a cluster of three straight singles after two out in the eighth for the other tally.

With one out in the fourth, Joe Adcock singled. Enos Slaughter walked. Bobby Avila fanned but Del Crandall singled, scoring Adcock. Hank Aaron, Adcock and Slaughter did the eighth inning damage with the latter's blow scoring Aaron.

Chicago's Early Wynn, another seeking his 21st, and success of the year, ran onto red-hot Yankee rookie Jim Coates as the White Sox lost to the Yanks. Coates held the AL leaders to four hits, two of which came in the fourth when Billy Goodman doubled and Al Smith singled for the Sox run.

Wynn appeared en route to his 27th major league victory when the Yanks jumped on him for three runs in the sixth. Yogi Berra singled one run home and then, with two out, successive singles by Hector Lopez and Hank Bauer sent two more across the plate.

ROLLAWAY ACES are one game down in their battle for the New Brunswick-Prince Edward Island Senior 'B' softball championship.

However, to talk to any member of the City League champions you would never know they took a 6-0 trouncing last Saturday at Minto. The score sounds convincing enough to make one think that the Aces are certainly not the case. Rollaway boys are talking with real optimism and they're certain there'll be a third game necessary here on Saturday afternoon.

A FEW BAD fielding plays allowed Minto to get a big jump on the Charlottetown team last weekend. Ralph Pincus deserved a far better fate than the nine-run get out which he was forced to finish. The boys for got to put the wood to the ball and Ralph's defence cracked badly on occasions.

The Aces are sure the same things will not happen again this Saturday. They have every intention of finding their batting eyes and giving the Rollaway hurlers the kind of airtight support they displayed during the semi-finals and finals in City League play. If they can come through and make these predictions of theirs stand up, the Minto boys will have a really hard time grabbing a triumph on Saturday afternoon.

SOFTBALL has certainly caught on in Charlottetown. There were close to 1500 persons at the final game between Rollaway Aces and Barry's Lions. The interest was on the increase with each contest. Now with a matinee team coming to town there's no good reason to believe that the folks will not break that attendance figure.

Right now the weatherman appears to have had a change of heart and the outlook for the weekend is bright. If we can get an ideal Saturday afternoon, then the site of the softball encounters (Aces insist there'll be more than one) should be really jammed with folks.

Lets give these Aces the support they deserve. The club has played a fine brand of ball all season and came through to capture all the chips.

There is a certain amount of expense to operating a softball league. While it doesn't mount up like that of a baseball league, it's very easy to see that some expenditure creeps in. League officials have done an excellent job of keeping in the 'black' and fans should see to it that there is something in the 'kitty' for next season. They can take care of that by turning out in droves this coming Saturday afternoon, and throwing a substantial amount in the 'pot'.

So the stage is set for what promises to be a most exciting afternoon for softball enthusiasts. All local fans are hoping the Aces can bounce back and win the N.B.-P.E.I. championship. If they cannot accomplish the task, you can wager your last dollar they will give it the sternest kind of a battle.

Go Aces go.

JUST WHEN we were ready to give up on the Los Angeles Dodgers they rally in the tenth inning and edge Milwaukee Braves 8-7.

It was just about the biggest victory the Dodgers had come up with this year. Had they dropped the tussle, they would have dropped three full games back of the front-running San Francisco Giants who were crushing the Cincinnati Redlegs 13-7. The Giants certainly must have been cheering the Dodgers on in that one because it kept the Braves two games back, in a second place tie with the Athletics.

From now until Sunday night, the Giants do 'nothing' but entertain the two teams who have downright intentions of beating them out of the National League flag. After the Braves finish their two games in San Francisco this afternoon, the Dodgers are in for single battles Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Both Braves and Dodgers have it in their hands to sidetrack these Giants but the way Rigney has his boys performing that is going to be a most difficult task.

WHILE THE OUTCOME of the National League race is still very much in doubt, the chase has just about ended over in the Junior circuit. Al Lopez still is claiming his White Sox are in, but he's the only one who hasn't counted everybody else out of the picture.

Lopez was asked which team he would rather see cop the flag in the National. He replied he wasn't worried about that league. All he wants is to nail the victory down in the American League.

The pilot of last year's world champion New York Yankees Casey Stengel has long since awarded the pennant to Lopez and company. When the White Sox and Yankees met Tuesday in New York, Casey and Lopez had a few words at home plate before the game started. Underway, writers got to Lopez and asked him what did Casey have to say.

"He handed me a piece of paper, a note from Edna. Mrs. Stengel," said Lopez, "tucking in his pocket. 'Here it is.'"

It read:

"Four good box seats, Chicago, Illinois, Casey and Edna."

HARNESS RACING will definitely be back on a 'night' schedule this Saturday at Charlottetown Driving Park.

Frank 'Duck' Acorn and the horsemen got together the other night and decided to try racing under the arcs. If the Saturday night card proves a success, then there is a real likelihood that they will try racing on Wednesday nights as well.

If the weather holds for a spell, they could still have a lot of fun at the local oval. The horsemen are keen on keeping going and Frank has no intention of calling a halt as long as the fans will turn out.

Horsemen who had starters in last Saturday's program were delighted with the way things worked out. They believe things will be even better under the lights and we are inclined to agree with them.

The ardent racing fans are more than pleased at the decision of the horsemen and Acorn. Some of these folks can't get enough of harness racing and once action stops here, they are away to maintain tracks for the weekend. Now they can have their fun right in their own backyard.

SACRIFICE FLY

Gary Geiger sent a sacrifice fly to centre with one out in the ninth to score Jim Mahoney with the Red Sox's winning run after the Indians had blown leads of 2-0 and 5-2. Frank Malzone hit a two-run homer, his 19th of the year, in the seventh to tie the score at 2-2.

Vern Law won his 17th and Bob Friend lost his 19th as Pittsburgh Pirates and Chicago Cubs split a doubleheader. The Pirates won the first 3-2 with Bill Mazeroski homering for the first time since May 17. The Cubs took the second 4-2 on Sammy Taylor's ninth inning, two-run homer.

In the only other scheduled games, Los Angeles Dodgers, still very much in the National League race, met Cincinnati in one night game and Detroit was at Baltimore for another.

Rough Riders Whip Argos; Ticats Grab League Lead

OTTAWA (CP)—Ottawa Rough Riders snapped their losing string Wednesday night by defeating Toronto Argonauts 28-1 on the strength of fullback Dave Thelen's four-touchdown performance before 13,097 chilled spectators.

It was Riders' first victory in six Big Four League games and Argonauts' fourth loss against two wins, both over Ottawa.

Thelen, who accounted for most of Ottawa's ground yardage, scored a touchdown in each quarter, cracking through a porous Toronto line that displayed inept tackling for most of the game.

Gary Schneider converted three of the touchdowns and Frank Trippuk kicked a single. Bob Dehlinger being fouled, in the last minute.

Argonauts only score a single, came in the first quarter when quarterback Gerry Doucette kicked from the Ottawa 48. The ball skittered through Davey West's legs and bounced behind the goal line where West was roused.

HAMILTON (CP)—Hamilton Tiger-Cats moved into first place Wednesday night when they knocked off Montreal Alouettes 25-13 in their Big Four football game here at Civic Stadium.

A record crowd of 24,759 was on hand for the game. It was the third attendance record set here this year.

Hamilton alternated quarterbacks, with Bernie Faloney and Tom Dublinski taking their turns.

DUBLINSKI was on the field for two touchdowns and Faloney for one. Dublinski threw a forward pass to Tommy Grant for the first touchdown of the game three minutes after Steve Oneschuk had made it 1-0 for Hamilton when a field goal attempt went wide.

Dublinski's second touchdown came when he handed the ball off to Gerry McDougall and McDougall broke through the centre of the Montreal line for 70 yards.

CHANGED TEAM

There was no resemblance between the Rider team that lost its first five games and the peppy, hard-tackling squad that trounced a dull-looking Argonaut team Wednesday night.

It was mainly a battle of Canadian quarterbacks, with Ottawa's Russ Jackson getting a lot of mileage out of Thelen whose four touchdowns in one game tied a Big Four record held by several players.

Import quarter Frank Trippuka, who did all of Ottawa's punting, went into the game late in the fourth quarter and sustained a passing attack that led to a single point.

Doucette called a rather unimpressive game in the Argo collapse and was spelled a half dozen times by rookie import Johnny Green from Chattanooga University.

ALS NEVER SET

Montreal was never really in position to take the game as the Hamilton club jumped into the early lead and held on.

Faloney passed to Ron Howell in the second quarter for a touchdown.

Don Leary scored in the third for Montreal when he intercepted a forward pass tossed by Faloney and ran 50 yards for the score.

The other Montreal touchdown was scored by Red O'Quinn who took a pass in the end zone. Bill Bewley kicked one convert.

John Barrow broke in to smear Sam Etcheverry for a Hamilton safety touch on the last play of the third quarter.

Convair Shatters Record In Winning St. John Race

SAINT JOHN, N.B. (CP)—Convair, the reigning monarch of a Maritime harness racing, blazed a double-dash win in Wednesday night's $2,000 Alexander Memorial pace at Exhibition Park.

Owned by Francis Breau of Moncton, he paced a new track mark of 2:07 2-5 and took his next race in 2:07 4-5. Driver

Hickory Doc, Saint John. After his last race Barribeau said he thought he had reined the big stallion to still another track record.

"I was late in stopping my watch at the finish and still it showed a mile in 2:07 2-5."

Several other horsemen claimed to have snapped their watches at 2:06 4-5.

The resurgence, said Kennedy, can be traced to the team's chief scout, Harvey Johnson, a soft-spoken man who played pro ball in the U.S. for six years.

Johnson joined the Alouettes staff last year after piloting Kitchener - Waterloo Dutchmen to four consecutive championship ships in the Ontario Rugby Football Union.

"Harvey has dug up most of the good new Canadian material we have. It's about 90 per cent his effort," Kennedy said.

Canadians Are Prominent On Alouette Team In 1959

By MARVEN MOSS

Canadian Press Staff Writer

MONTREAL (CP)—Prosperous or otherwise, 1959 likely will go down in Montreal's football almanac as the year of the resurgent homebrew.

Not since the late 1940s—and the glittering invasion of high-priced All-Americans from the United States—have domestic youngsters figured so prominently in the aspiration of the Alouettes.

Other clubs in the Big Four and the West's pro league also appear deeper in good Canadians. But most have long counted several among their first-stringers.

For the Alouettes it's a new experience.

Walker has his loud critics. In past seasons their main complaint has been that the slow-talking Southerner "never gave us Canadian players a chance."

Kennedy says "definitely not" when asked whether Walker in his eighth season in Montreal has revamped his policy on homebrews.

"Doug has always regarded Canadians just as highly as imports—provided they could produce as well. But you have to have the horses to go. And Doug had them before."

Managing director Gorman Kennedy says flatly: "potentially we have the best crop of Canadian boys in Canada."

Kennedy acknowledged the powerful Canadian contingent of the Hamilton Tiger-Cats with the statement. But he added: "Next year we'll be even stronger in homebrews. We should be tops in the country."

Hockey Promoters in B.C. Hope Lean Days Are Over

KELOWNA, B.C. (CP)—Amateur hockey promoters, still seeing red from dwindling financial returns of the last few years, are stirring the embers of interest in the British Columbia interior these days. They hope their lean days are over.

The 1959-60 seasons of the Okanagan Senior and Western International Hockey Leagues—the only two senior A circuits west of the Lakehead—open in mid-October. The four OSHL clubs start Oct. 16 and two of the three in the WHHL get under way Oct. 17. The outlook, as seen by various league officers is not all rosy, but they say there is reason to hope for improvement over last year's money-losing season when attendance in OSHL centres averaged less than 1,000 a game and in the WHHL little better than 500.

Recording Contradicts Testimony Of Probe

NEW YORK AP)—Appearing before the New York State Athletic Commission Wednesday Vincent Veilella heard a recording of a conversation between him and Bill Rosensohn refuting his testimony.

The commission is conducting an investigation of the promotion of the June 26 Floyd Patterson-Johansson heavyweight championship fight.

Rosensohn then was president of Rosensohn Enterprises, Inc., promoter of the title match. Veilella, now president, was majority stockholder and director.

whose unsavory police record was read by a detective from the district attorney's office Tuesday.

In the heated recorded exchange between Veilella and Rosensohn, Veilella mentioned the $25,000 he had put into the promotion, and also the personal loan of $10,000.

Veilella has insisted his association with Salerno was strictly that of lawyer and client, and that he thought that when Salerno turned up at certain gatherings he came as a friend of Rosensohn.

REASONABLY OPTIMISTIC

"I'm reasonably optimistic now," says president Bob Gilhooly of the OSHL, which includes Kelowna, Penticton, Vernon and Kamloops.

"It looked pretty bad last spring, but all the clubs have cooperated well during the summer in taking steps to improve the situation."

These include a reduction to 12 from 15 the number of players who may be dressed by each team, a schedule reduced to 48 from 54 games, and a maximum salary figure of $300 a month, with a $500 fine for clubs caught violating this figure.

The OSHL clubs also are staging a greater drive for season-ticket sales so they can start the season with something in the bank. Ticket prices, ranging from $20 to $24 for the 24 home games on a season-ticket basis, are down slightly from last season.

The hearing took a dramatic turn when the recording was played back and introduced into the testimony.

With Sol Gelb, Veilella's attorney, protesting, the commission attorney tried to entrap Veilella with a line of questioning concerning a meeting between Rosensohn and Veilella last July 31. Veilella answered most of the questions with "I don't recall," or "I don't remember."

NOT A PARTNER

He had said Charey Black, an associate of Gus D'Amto, Floyd Patterson's manager, never was a partner in All-Sports, Inc., a predecessor of Rosensohn Enterprises. The recorded conversation had him admitting to Rosensohn that Black was a partner.

He also had denied knowledge of a personal loan to Rosensohn. Rosensohn had testified he received such a loan in Veilella's presence from Tony Salerno.
