Tourist Ass'n Donates Strait Swim Trophy

Approval of the proposed Northumberland Strait swim in 1963 was voiced by directors of the P.E.I. Tourist Association who voted to donate a large trophy to be given the amateur winner. The directors met over the weekend at The Charlottetown.

Presiding for the first time, newly-elected president Charles Linkletter, Summerside, told the group of his appreciation at being named to head the organization and said, "We look to another year of progress for our industry."

Attending the meeting as a guest was William Hayward, general manager of the provincial Centennial committee, who suggested the directors name a group to meet his general committee at a meeting to be held Dec. 12. At this time Mr. Hayward said it had been suggested an 'accommodations' committee to oversee plans for housing and feeding visitors here in 1964 be set up.

It was decided that Mr. Linkletter, accompanied by secretary-treasurer, A. Walthen Gaudet and several of the directors would attend.

USE OF AUDITORIUM

One of the matters they wish to bring before the general committee concerns the availability of the new Confederation Memorial Building auditorium for various convention meetings scheduled to be held in Charlottetown in 1964.

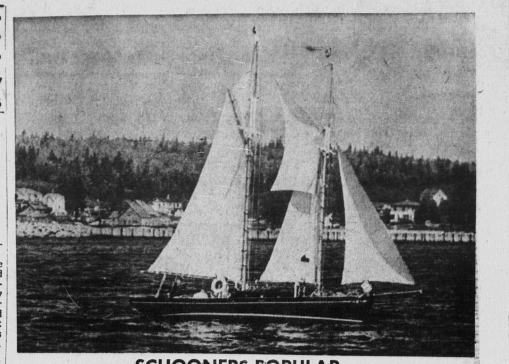
It was pointed out that some of the conventions to be held here would be too large for normal meeting places and in any event housing and feeding facilities of The Charlottetown would be taxed too greatly to permit use of the various larger rooms for convention meeting purposes.

TRAVEL EDITORS

The directors also approved preliminary plans for bringing newspaper travel editors from the Province of Quebec as their guests for a holiday here in late June. The proposal is for the entertaining of two writers of French language papers, one in Montreal and one in Quebec and from an English language paper in Montreal.

Enthusiasm was voiced over the success of the special map prepared by the tourist association itself showing various places of interest and listing places for tourists to stay and it was decided to produce another map for the coming season. The work in this connection will be done by a special map committee under chairman A.B. LePage, Cavendish, who was in charge of the project last year.

Associated with him will be members Peter Pope, Alberton; R. Gordon Shaw, Brackley; Ross MacKenzie, Summerside and J.E. Poole, Montague.



SCHOONERS POPULAR

Adare, owned by Brig. deB. Oland of Halifax, is the oldest schooner in the Nova Scotia Schooner Association fleet. Converted from a fishing craft built 57 years ago, most of its original planks now have been replaced. The revived popularity of such small schooners among yachtsmen has injected new life into Nova Scotia's boat - building industry.

Wings Shade Hawks 3-2 To Cop Lead

'No Issues Yet' — Matheson

There are still no issues over which the Dec. 10 provincial general election has been called, provincial Liberal leader A.W. Matheson said Saturday.

He was commenting on Premier Walter R. Shaw's opening speech of the campaign Friday night.

"The Liberal Party," said Mr. Matheson, "is in agreement with the programs set out by the government, and much of the program consists of measures instituted by the Liberals, so there is no issue over which to fight an election.

"It all boils down to a people's choice — a choice of which party should govern the province."

Stamps In Tears Over Elimination

WINNIPEG (CP) — Calgary Stampeder players filed down the Winnipeg Stadium runway in tears.

They were on their way to the dressing rooms after losing the deciding game of the Western Football Conference final 12 - 7 to Winnipeg on a last - second touchdown.

First off the field came Bobby Taylor, followed closely by quarterback Eagle Day who was sobbing "they stole it — they stole it."

Stampeders lost the best-of-three final when Harvie Wylie missed a kick in his own end zone and Winnipeg Blue Bombers' end Farrell Funston fell on the ball for the game-winning touchdown.

Amid the jubilation of the Winnipeg dressing room, coach Bud Grant tasted champagne from a bottle and pointed to an appalling injury list. He said his team is in worse shape than in 1958, when the crippled bombers lost to Hamilton tiger-Cats in the Grey Cup game.

Beaming end Farrell Funston wandered about the dressing room clutching the ball with which he scored the game-winning touchdown.

"He (Wylie) kicked it and it came right at me," he said. "It was lying right there on the ground."

"I dropped on it. Anyone could have done it."
